Thoughts From the Second Floor Front
XV Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 10, 2022

The gospel passage we hear proclaimed this weekend is among the most famous and well known in all of Sacred Scripture. Unfortunately, it is also one of the most misunderstood passages in all of Sacred Scripture. Many simply assume that Jesus is teaching about the goodness of the Samaritan and reducing the message to some sloppy, sentiment, soaked story about being nice to an unfortunate individual who fell afoul of a pack of pirates on the road to Jerusalem. In reality, the story is an absolute denunciation of the those who make religion a show or use it for personal advancement without any sincere engagement of the essence of what it actually means to be religious. Jesus is denouncing religiosity and lauding true religion.

Jesus' response to the scholar of the law is nothing new or original. Jesus is simply quoting from His favorite book in the Torah, the Book of Deuteronomy. His response is from the 5th chapter of the Deuteronomy, a passage known as the Shema. The witnesses to this conversation would have been surprised if Jesus had said anything else in response to the question put to Him. The problem emerges when the scholar attempted to justify himself, this is where the scene gets serious.

The professional religious, the Priest and the Levite, are on their way up to Jerusalem on some official task. According to the law, if they were to come into contact with a dead body, they would be rendered unclean and unable to perform their liturgical duties, so they sidestep the man preserving their ritual integrity and do not offer any aide.

Next on the scene is the Samaritan. We cannot understand the mentality of the way that Jews view Samaritans, who were perceived as a bastardization of Judaism. It would be unthinkable that a Samaritan can do anything good let alone be held up as an example of ethical and appropriate behavior. So intractable is the scholar of the law in his disdain for the Samaritans when questioned by Jesus: Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." The scholar is not even willing to name the person who showed mercy. He does not say the Samaritan. In his response he denies the identity of the merciful one.

Whether the scholar followed Jesus' directive we do not know. His posture up to that point was obstinate so we can only speculate as to his response. But we do not need to speculate over what our response is going to be when we have the opportunity to show mercy. Will you go and do likewise?

Faithfully,

Msgr. Diamond

Have you ever wanted to read the Bible, but got bogged down almost as soon as you started? Or are you already familiar with the stories of the Old and New Testaments, but never figured out – or even thought about – how they all fit together? Then join us for Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible, an 8-part Bible study that uncovers the story woven throughout Scripture so you can get the "big picture" of the Bible and understand how you fit into that story today.

In eight weekly, short videos, Bible scholar Jeff Cavins will take us on a quick journey through salvation history -- from Creation and the Fall through the coming of Christ and the establishment of the Church. You'll learn with the aid of an easy-to-use, color-coded Bible Timeline chart and small-group discussion questions, which reinforce the video presentations and help you apply the message to your life. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you pick up the Bible with confidence and understand how you fit into God's plan.

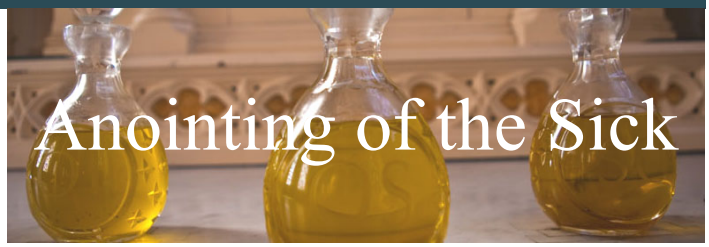
The program will run Thursdays, July 7 through Aug. 25, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in the Parish Life Center. For more information or to register contact parishioner Jean Wysocki, (215) 240-0873 or ajwysocki2@verizon.net or visit ascensionpress.com. There is a small materials charge to cover the workbook, timeline, and a one-year online access to the videos.

St. Agnes Parish

St Agnes Nurses Center is a faith-based free clinic providing health care to the poor and uninsured of our community. Services are needs based focused on promoting good health and preventing disease. We provide health assessment, nursing and medical care, and patient education for men, women, and children. There are 2 clinic days per week: Wednesday 4-6 pm and Saturday morning 10 am-12 noon. Responsibilities include presence at 1 clinic session per week, as well as other administrative responsibilities shared with the other clinical coordinator.

Requirements: Current Pennsylvania RN license, Police background and Child Abuse clearances and FBI fingerprinting check, along with Safe Environment Training and Mandated Reporter training through the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Anyone interested should email Barbara Kirby, Director of Outreach Services at bkirby@saintagnesparish.org



When: Sunday, July 24th at the 11:00 am Mass.

Where: Please sit in the 6 front pews all around the front of the church. You may have one other person with you if you wish.

Who: Please let us know if you wish to receive this Sacrament by emailing the PLC at stcorn1@comcast.net or by calling the PLC at (610) 459-2502. This will give us an idea of how many people wish to participate and help us to record who has received the Sacrament.

Why: When the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness. But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age. A person should not wait until they are at the point of death to receive this Sacrament.

Our Lady of the Clawfoot Tub: The History of Bathtub Madonnas

If you live in the Midwest, the South, or on the East Coast then you've certainly seen bathtub Virgin Mary displayed in people's front yards. I have it on good authority that in Wisconsin they call it Our Lady of Kohler (Kohler bathroom fixtures). There was a time when decorating outdoor spaces with statuaries was considered elegant and those who shied away from lawn jockeys and pink flamingoes often chose to pay tribute to their favorite religious figures instead, like Saint Francis of Assisi or the Madonna. But, how and why did bathtubs become the backdrop for the mother of Jesus?

In the years following World War II, the trend for both home buying and home remodeling was on the rise. The U.S. had not known such prosperity before and the surplus of income often went towards the family home. For many families at the time this meant installing a new-fangled shower-tub combo with sliding glass doors. This also meant that their old claw foot tubs were no longer needed. However, they were also extremely hard to recycle.

The tradition of using the old tubs as part of an outdoor shrine to the Virgin Mary is said to have originated in Fall River, Massachusetts, a city on the border with Rhode Island. However, the greatest concentration of them can be found today in Somerville, MA, a neighborhood in the Boston metro area, which boasts around 600 of these shrines!

Other variations show her in prayer herself, sometimes holding a rosary in her hands. The popularity of the bathtub Madonnas has led to countless designs, such as the Virgin Mary in front of a buried tractor tire as seen in Kentucky.

While the veneration and devotions to Mary take many forms, it should always be remembered that any devotion, veneration, or depiction of Mary should always be intended to deepen our relationship with Jesus. It is Mary, our mother, to whom we turn for comfort, direction and understanding. Mary invites us to a deeper relationship with her son Jesus, to change our lives from sinfulness and to always say "yes" to the gospel. If the depiction or display of Mary is distracting from this relationship then the message becomes distracting and is reduced to kitsch art for mere display. Mary, nor any of our sacred symbols should ever be reduced to popular cheap art displays.

Let us always remember that how we present ourselves, how we appear, speak to one another, dress and act is a reflection of who we are as Catholics. Our yard displays not withstanding.

Camp Cornelius

Camp Cornelius had another successful week of camp! Our theme for the second week of camp was arts and crafts. Who knew we had so many Picassos and Van Goghs at our camp!!! The children loved creating the many different kinds of art projects and all were so proud of their completed masterpieces! We can't wait to see what will be cooking at cooking camp next week!

CRS NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

There is a terrible drought across East Africa. In Ethiopia, people have plowed their land, gotten it ready for growing crops, but have received no rain. This is just one part of a global food crisis that CRS is responding to.

Sean Callahan, President & CEO of CRS, recently visited Ethiopia and stated, "This effort is one that reaches out to the people in villages, in very isolated areas, and it's actually saving lives as we speak. We hope that we will be able to prevent a global food crisis from realizing its victims in many of the areas, but we've already seen the tragic loss of herds as our local partners and local communities have lost livestock. And so we're hopeful now that the efforts that we've made at water conservation, of accessing water through boreholes and through this distribution of food commodities will get people through the hunger season." Please visit www.crs.org to see how you can help make a dent in this food crisis!

Eucharistic Adoration

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church.

Adoration will return Friday, September 9, after Labor Day.

The church will remain open for quiet reflection during the summer months from 8:00 am to 2:00 pm
