walking with purpose

Walking with Purpose is seeking to build our child care ministry during our Wednesday morning meeting time. This volunteer position requires a once a week commitment from 9:45 AM - 11 AM beginning August 25-November 17, 2021. Minimal training is required. If interested, please contact Annie Dudenhoefer at 419-602-1596.

Sacred Art with the Seminarian

We had a great turnout for our "Sacred Art with the Seminarian" event on Thursday, July 22! The Commons was filled with many Catholic paintings for parishioners to walk around and look at up close. Our seminarian, Jay Livecchi, then gave a background and reflection on God's love and mercy through Rembrandt's "Return of the Prodigal Son."

This event was a team effort! Thank you to Shannon McCabe, Mary Ann Lochotzki, Anna Morse, Tim & Anita Claubaugh, Mark Fitzthum, Jon Lawrence, Tom Sloma, John & Karen Rogers, and Aaron Kromer.

The artwork around our parish campuses would not have been possible without the generosity of private donors.

SCCS Auction Item with Fr. Hoyles

This great group won an item from this year's SCCS auction and spent time with Fr. Hoyles and our summer seminarian, Jay Livecchi on Friday, July 23. Thank you for supporting Sandusky Central Catholic School and the Catholic Parishes of Sandusky.

We can't wait for the next school auction!

In honor of our fathers and the Year of Saint Joseph, we're encouraging our parishioners to pray for their fathers (living, deceased and spiritual) and to read Pope Francis' Apostolic Letter Patris Corde "With a Father's Heart," which will be published in the bulletin over the next 9 weeks.

PART 7 - A working father

An aspect of Saint Joseph that has been emphasized from the time of the first social Encyclical, Pope Leo XIII's Rerum Novarum, is his relation to work. Saint Joseph was a carpenter who earned an honest living to provide for his family. From him, Jesus learned the value, the dignity and the joy of what it means to eat bread that is the fruit of one's own labour.

In our own day, when employment has once more become a burning social issue, and unemployment at times reaches record levels even in nations that for decades have enjoyed a certain degree of prosperity, there is a renewed need to appreciate the importance of dignified work, of which Saint Joseph is an exemplary patron.

Work is a means of participating in the work of salvation, an opportunity to hasten the coming of the Kingdom, to develop our talents and abilities, and to put them at the service of society and fraternal communion. It becomes an opportunity for the fulfillment not only of oneself, but also of that primary cell of society which is the family. A family without work is particularly vulnerable to difficulties, tensions, estrangement and even break-up. How can we speak of human dignity without working to ensure that everyone is able to earn a decent living?

Working persons, whatever their job may be, are cooperating with God himself, and in some way become creators of the world around us. The crisis of our time, which is economic, social, cultural and spiritual, can serve as a summons for all of us to rediscover the value, the importance and necessity of work for bringing about a new "normal" from which no one is excluded. Saint Joseph's work reminds us that God himself, in becoming man, did not disdain work. The loss of employment that affects so many of our brothers and sisters, and has increased as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic, should serve as a summons to review our priorities. Let us implore Saint Joseph the Worker to help us find ways to express our firm conviction that no young person, no person at all, no family should be without work!

From the Desk of Laura Bricker

Four years ago, I was asked to build a new Religious Education program for pre-3 to fifth grade students - one that meets ALL the standards in the course of study, set forth by Bishop Daniel Thomas, to ensure all students receive the fullness of the faith. I had reservations about my ability to complete such a task. However, through the grace of God and the encouragement of others, God was indeed directing me to this most important work. In that same spirit, I am encouraging you to realize your own potential to help build up Gods Kingdom.

Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven" (Mt. 19:14). Our Church is a beacon, where truth, goodness, and beauty are found. This is clear as our enrollment is at an all-time high with 174 students Pre-3 through 5th grade. We have a RESPONSIBILITY to serve them!

We now have a renovated building with classrooms dedicated to Religious Education. With many thanks to Father Hoyles and the hard work of our pastoral staff, Holy Angels School campus is ready to serve your children and grandchildren. However, I would like to make you aware of our current situation. We currently have three catechists. The commitment that is required has been restructured to give catechists more flexibility. However, to accomplish this we need eight (8) catechists total.

You may ask yourself, as I did, am I qualified or perhaps you have been discouraged from previous experiences.

- We work as a team to support each other in a structure of mentorship.
- We collaborate and cooperate to best serve our students.
- Our new course materials Alive in Christ map out the objectives and lessons and methods to effectively catechize our students.
- The work required outside the 1 1/2 hours a week class time is minimal.
- With Holy Angels church attached to the school, we are taking the children to Eucharistic Adoration where they are witnessing the True presence of our Lord, Jesus Christ.
- We are taking them into the sacristy, where they are seeing and touching the real articles of the mass, the real vestments that our priests wear, just to name a few.

I can assure you that in catechizing our precious children, you will quickly see the fruits of your labor as there is no greater reward than to lead a child to Christ!

I would not be standing here today had I not been catechized by some of the very people reading this bulletin article. If you, or perhaps someone you know, may be interested in this most important mission please contact me.

Fr Zach to offer classes on the Sacraments - All are welcome

Would you like to learn more about the Sacraments of the Church? Would you like to deepen your own Catholic faith so that you can share why the Sacraments, established by Christ and faithfully taught by the Church as handed down by the Apostles, are the means by which we are sanctified? Are you, or somebody you know, an adult who was baptized as a Catholic, received First Communion, but, for whatever reason, never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, we are excited to offer you an opportunity to learn the basics of Sacramental Theology.

Beginning in September, Fr. Zach will be offering a weekly class for four (4) weeks for anyone who would like to learn more about the Sacramental nature of the Church and the supernatural graces that we receive through them. This class will also prepare those adults who have not yet been confirmed so that they can be confirmed by the Bishop. The classes will be held on Thursday, September 13, September 20, September 27 and October 4 from 6:30-8:30 PM in the Saints Peter and Paul Gathering Space.

Feel free to invite any of your family and friends who you think may want to learn more about this part of Catholic teaching.

For more information or to enroll, please contact Deacon Phil Dinovo at 419-625-7500 ext. 1015 or by email at pdinovo@sanduskycatholic.org.

The Transfiguration of the Lord

August 6, 2021

Getty Images

In Year B, the reading for the Transfiguration comes from Mark's gospel. (The Transfiguration also appears in the other two synoptic gospels, Matthew and Luke.) In Mark, Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, apart from the other apostles and disciples.

There, Jesus is transfigured (changed in form and appearance) and appears in dazzling white clothes. Elijah, the great prophet, and Moses, through whom the Israelites were given the law, appear with Jesus. A cloud appears, overshadowing them, and a voice states, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Jesus charges the three to not share with anyone what they had seen "except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead." They keep their experience to themselves, pondering what Jesus meant by rising from the dead.

How are we to understand the Transfiguration? The story of the Transfiguration is also proclaimed on the second Sunday of Lent—a key part of Jesus' journey towards the Cross. The Catechism of the Catholic Church draws parallels between Jesus' Baptism and the Transfiguration. Jesus is baptized at the start of his public ministry. His baptism proclaims the mystery of our first regeneration—we die and rise again with Christ. The "Transfiguration 'is the sacrament of the second regeneration': our own Resurrection (St. Thomas Aquinas, STh III, 45, 4, ad 2). From now on we share in the Lord's Resurrection through the Spirit who acts in the sacraments of the Body of Christ.

The Transfiguration gives us a foretaste of Christ's glorious coming, when he 'will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body (Phil 3:21)'" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 556). During the Prayer after Communion, we pray that God might "transform us into the likeness of your [his] Son, / whose radiant splendor you willed to make manifest / in his glorious Transfiguration." The Collect, or opening prayer, tells us that the mystery of the Transfiguration "prefigures our full adoption to sonship." The Transfiguration, initially revealed to Peter, James, and John, reveals to all of us a taste of what is yet to come.

The Transfiguration is the fourth of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary.
