Return of the “Salve”

By Tim Claubaugh, St. Mary’s Music Director and Organist

It has been an entire year since we started singing the Marian Antiphons at Mass, and so now that we are back in “Ordinary Time,” we switch our Marian Antiphon back to the Salve Regina. Over the past year, some parishioners have asked why we sing these Gregorian Chants and in Latin – didn’t Vatican II do away with Gregorian Chant and Latin? The short answer is no.

The “Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy,” which came out post-Vatican II (1964) states, “The church acknowledges Gregorian Chant as distinctive of the Roman liturgy; therefore, other things being equal, it should be given pride of place in liturgical services.” (No. 116) The “General Instruction of the Roman Missal” (2002) further states, “All things being equal, Gregorian Chant holds pride of place because it is proper to the Roman Liturgy....it is fitting that they (communities) know how to sing together at least some parts of the Mass in Latin.” (No. 41).

For a little review: The Salve Regina text is credited to Herimann Contractus, a monk of Reichenau (1013-1054), however, other scholars and historians credited it to Adhemar de Monteil (+1098) and St. Bernard (+1153). Of the four Marian Antiphons, this one is probably the most popular and familiar as it is said at the conclusion of the rosary; perhaps better known as the “Hail Holy Queen” (see the text below). This antiphon is sung from the day after Pentecost Sunday (or the day after the final day of the Octave of Pentecost) until the first Sunday of Advent. The Gregorian Chant Ave Maria may be substituted for the Salve Regina.

Eucharistic Revival

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, (Corpus Christi), Sunday, June 19, 2022, begins a three-year National Eucharistic Revival called for by the Bishops of the United States. The first year is the diocesan year. A diocesan Eucharistic Revival team will curate ideas and resources for parishes to utilize in year two, the parish year. The mission of the Revival is “to renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.” The mission of this Eucharistic Revival overflows with hope for a life-changing experience of the Holy Eucharist—especially of the Mass—in the lives of all Catholics. For more information, visit toledodiocese.org/eucharist.

Priest Convocation June 20-23

The Priests of the Diocese will gather with Bishop Daniel E. Thomas for their biennial convocation from Monday, June 20, through Thursday, June 23, 2022. This year, the convocation will be held at The Inn at St. John's, Plymouth, Michigan. Bishop Thomas has invited Fr. John Riccardo and ACTS XXIX, a lay association based in the Archdiocese of Detroit, to lead the priests in their Convocation/Retreat. The Convocation/Retreat provides our priests the opportunity to be together for spiritual nourishment, prayer, fellowship, and recreation. The Convocation/Retreat will include concelebrated daily Mass, the communal praying of the Liturgy of the Hours, and time to engage in personal meditative prayer. Please remember to pray for all of our priests, that their priestly fidelity, unity, and identity will continue to be renewed and deepened.

June 20-28: Sts. Peter and Paul Novena

Our parish feast of Saints Peter and Paul is on Wednesday, June 29. We invite you to join us in praying a novena to Saints Peter and Paul from Monday, June 20 to Tuesday, June 28. Please use the following novena to pray with us.

We hope you can join us for Noon Mass at Saints Peter and Paul on Wednesday, June 29 to celebrate and pray for our parish!

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Dear St. Peter and St. Paul, you faced opposition, hatred, and violence—all because you believed in Christ.

Pray for us!

St. Peter, you witnessed our Savior brutally crucified, and then later you suffered a similar death. We know this must have been terrifying. Today, we see many attacks on our faith. Please pray for us to not turn away from Christ. Pray that we will have greater faith and greater courage to defend our Faith.

Lord, please guide us and show us how to remain close to you and how to lead others closer to you.

Saints Peter and Paul, please pray for us and help us obtain the strength to stand up for what is right and good.

St. Peter and St. Paul, please pray for my intentions [state your intentions here].

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Congratulations to and joyful prayers for Holy Angels Parishioner, Caryn Wagner, who received the Sacrament of Confirmation at Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral on Pentecost Sunday by the Most Reverend Daniel E. Thomas. May the Holy Spirit bless her and pour out an abundance of Sacramental Grace upon her.

Are you, or somebody you know, an adult who was baptized as a Catholic, received First Holy Communion, but, for whatever reason, never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? If so, we would like to help you receive this very important Sacrament which, as the Catechism states, "is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace."

In September, Fr. Hoyles will be offering a weekly class for four weeks to prepare those individuals who were not confirmed previously so that they can be confirmed by the Bishop. The classes will be held on Tuesday, September 6, September 13, September 20, and September 27 from 6:30-8:00 PM in the Saints Peter and Paul Gathering Space. For more information or to enroll, please contact Deacon Phil Dinovo at 419-625-7500 ext. 1015 or by email at pdinovo@sanduskycatholic.org.

TOTUS TUUS SUMMER PROGRAM JULY 24-29, 2022

www.sanduskycatholic.org/totus-tuus

Totus Tuus is Monday - Friday 9:00 AM - 2:30 PM for school children going into Grades 1-6. The day includes catechetical instruction on our theme – Prayer and the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, songs and skits that are silly but teach the faith, encounters with the sacraments (particularly Confession and Eucharist), and time for games and recess. For teens, those entering 7-12 grades, a teen program of Totus Tuus is Sunday-Thursday 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM with more in-depth discussions on our theme.

Cost per student is $25.00 and will cap at $100 if you have four or more children sign up. Scholarships are available!

If you have any questions, please contact Religious Education Director, Laura Bricker, at lbricker@sanduskycatholic.org.

Totus Tuus Team Meal Sign Up

We are looking for people to provide/donate meals for our missionaries while they are here in Sandusky with us. We need to provide lunch and dinner for 10 people from July 23 – July 29. Lunches will be eaten at Holy Angels (except Saturday and Sunday). For dinner there are a number of options: food can be brought to Holy Angels, you can invite the team over to your home for a meal, you can take them to a restaurant or you can provide a gift card to a local restaurant for the team to enjoy.

Please follow the link below or go on our website that links to a SignUpGenius page created for the team meals. We ask that you choose the meal you would like to provide, include your name, email, and a phone number. Once all meal slots are filled, Laura Bricker will be calling all those who signed up in order to plan logistics: addresses/delivery, what will be served/what gift cards will be given, etc. If you have any questions, please contact Laura Bricker (lbricker@sanduskycatholic.org). Thank you for your generosity!
