WELCOME!

The Catholic Parishes of Sandusky consist of Holy Angels, St. Mary's Our Lady of Sorrows, and Sts. Peter and Paul. We are three parish families in one Body of Christ.

Through prayer, the sacraments, service, and teaching, we strive to build a culture of prayer, teamwork, and active discipleship. With the help and support of Bishop Daniel E. Thomas and the entire Diocese of Toledo, we strive to grow in faith, hope, and love as we remain united in Jesus Christ and His Church.

Let us know how we can serve you!

Living Christ

Diocese of Toledo

Forming Our Lay Leaders

Strong lay leaders are essential to the engagement and operations of our parishes and schools. These tremendous leaders are the backbone of the incredible ministries that our parishes offer to the communities they serve.

The Diocese of Toledo is dedicated to providing parishes and schools with the tools, education, and formation that our lay leaders request to enrich our communities.

An endowment will be established to maintain a singular, faith-based learning platform for our lay leaders and equip them with resources, skill development, and a knowledge base that will create a lasting impact on our diocese.

Inspire in us a lively generosity for the selfless service of our brothers and sisters.
Invigorate our commitment to follow more closely Jesus, our Shepherd and Savior.

First Sunday of Advent: Wake Up!

“Jesus said to his disciples: ‘As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man.’” Matthew 24:37–39

Are you awake? Spiritually speaking? As we begin the liturgical season of Advent, we are given the future coming of the Son of God to ponder. As this passage goes on, Jesus says, “Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.”

By the “day your Lord will come,” we should understand three things. The first coming of Christ is obviously that which we most clearly ponder in Advent and Christmas. The unity of human nature with divine nature, in the Person of Jesus, is truly awe-inspiring. But that already took place long ago.

Thus, a second coming of Christ that we must continually ponder is His coming by grace, every moment of every day of our lives, once we have chosen to freely give our lives over to His service, for His glory, in accord with His will. When we live with such an interior disposition by which we seek His ongoing “coming” by grace, then we will find that we need to continually “stay awake!” If we do not, then we can be certain that we will miss countless opportunities to become more united to Christ every day and to be used as an instrument of that very grace for His service and glory. If we do not diligently build a habit of becoming attentive to every prompting of grace in our lives, then we will, unquestionably, begin to become “drowsy” and will fall asleep, spiritually speaking.

A wonderful measure of our daily attentiveness to the innumerable gifts of grace given to us every day is to also consider how attentive we are to the final and glorious coming of Christ at the end of time. Just as Jesus explains, most people will pay little attention to this final coming, presuming it will not even be in their lifetimes. But if you have that attitude, then you have completely missed the point. The point is preparedness—today, tomorrow and always. True preparedness for the final coming of Christ will not only help you enter the mysteries of these Advent and Christmas seasons by which we ponder the first coming of Christ, it will also help you form a habit of daily attentiveness to grace.

Reflect, today, upon how ready you are for the final coming of Christ at the end of time. Are you ready if Christ were to come today? If not, understand that a lack of preparedness for the final coming also means a lack of preparedness to celebrate His first coming at Christmas long ago, as well as His daily comings by grace. Prepare today. Do not wait. If you do, God will daily transform you in ways that are glorious beyond comprehension.

My ever-present Lord, You come to us, day and night, calling to us, leading us and offering to enter our lives. Please help me to always be attentive to You and to always open my heart fully to Your daily coming by grace. Jesus, I trust in You.

Marian Antiphon ~ Alma Redemptoris Mater

For the past twenty-three weeks we have been singing the Marian Antiphon, “Salve Regina” at the end of Communion. Beginning next week, the first week of Advent, we will switch our Marian Antiphon to the “Alma Redemptoris Mater.” We will continue to use this antiphon for the next eleven weeks, or until February 2 when the Church will have us switch again to the “Ave Regina Caelorum.”

The four seasonal Marian Antiphons (also called Anthems) originally come from “Compline” from the “Divine Office” (also known as the “Liturgy of the Hours.”). Compline (also known as Night Prayer) is the last hour of the day and recited or sung right before retiring for the evening. At the end of Compline, one of these four seasonal antiphons are recited or sung: “Alma Redemptoris Mater,” “Ave Regina Caelorum,” “Regina Caeli,” or “Salve Regina” (the “Ave Maria” may be substituted for the “Salve Regina”).

While always recited or sung at Compline, these four Marian Anthems may also be sung at the conclusion of Mass, usually at the end of Communion. While the traditional chant melodies are what are sung, these texts have also been set to music for choirs by many of the great composers over the centuries.

ALMA REDEMPTORIS MATER (Loving Mother of the Redeemer) (# 471 in the hymnals)

This anthem begins our liturgical year with the first Sunday of Advent and is sung until the Feast of the Purification (or Candlemas) on February 2 (which was the original end date for the Christmas Season). This prayer tells of the angel Gabriel’s announcement to Mary and of her divine motherhood. The text and the chant melody are credited to Herimann Contractus, a monk of Reichenau (1013-1054).

Alma Redemptoris Mater, quae pervia caeli Porta manes, et stella maris, succurre cadenti, Surgere qui curat, populo: Tu quae genuisti, Natura mirante, tuum sanctum Genitorem, Virgo prius ac posterius, Gabrielis ab orce Sumens illud Ave, peccatorum Miserere.	Loving mother of the Redeemer, Gate of heaven, star of the sea, Assist your people who have fallen yet strive to rise again To the wonderment of nature you bore your Creator,  Yet remained a virgin after as before. You who received Gabriel’s joyful greeting, Have pity on us poor sinners.

Dec. 8 - Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

On Thursday, December 8 the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, an important point of Catholic teaching that Mary was conceived without Original Sin.

It is also a Holy Day of Obligation. We call them obligations because the Precepts of the Catholic Church tell us that celebrating those feast days is a part of the minimum level of commitment to the Catholic faith. The best way to celebrate these important feast days is by celebrating the Holy Mass with all the angels and saints!
