WELCOME!

The Catholic Parishes of Sandusky consist of Holy Angels, St. Mary's Our Lady of Sorrows, and Sts. Peter and Paul. We are three parish families in one Body of Christ.

Through prayer, the sacraments, service, and teaching, we strive to build a culture of prayer, teamwork, and active discipleship. With the help and support of Bishop Daniel E. Thomas and the entire Diocese of Toledo, we strive to grow in faith, hope, and love as we remain united in Jesus Christ and His Church.

Let us know how we can serve you!

Today's feast is among the newer feasts in our Church. Though Jesus' desire that this feast be celebrated on the eighth day of Easter was spoken to Sister Maria Faustina Kowolska back in 1931, it was not solemnly instituted until the year 2000. On April 30 of that year, Saint Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Faustina and inaugurated the Feast of Divine Mercy as a universal feast within the Church. Because this Feast is so recent within the Church, we can be certain that we still have much to learn about the message of this Solemnity as well as the numerous messages about God's mercy revealed in Saint Faustina's Diary.

Among the many messages contained within her Diary, Jesus revealed to us that this Sunday, the eighth and final day of the Octave of Easter, is a day like none other. Though grace and mercy are continuously poured out from Heaven upon us, Jesus is very clear that today is unique. Today, "a whole ocean of graces" is poured forth upon souls who approach the font of His mercy. Sit with that image for a time. "A whole ocean of graces." What does that mean?

Symbolically speaking, a whole ocean is meant to depict the infinite. Try to imagine what it would be like to have the entire ocean poured upon you—it's beyond comprehension! Thus, God is saying that the infinity of grace is given today. The question for us all to ponder is this: How receptive am I to those infinite graces?

By analogy, imagine that your life was like a thimble, and an ocean of water was poured upon you. As a thimble, you could not contain all that was given. Therefore, we should realize that God wants to stretch our capacity to receive His mercy more abundantly by widening our capacity for mercy. What if your soul were like a large pond? Still, the waters of the ocean could not be contained within that pond. What is it that is capable of receiving an entire ocean of mercy? Only an ocean can contain an ocean. For that reason, God desires to first prepare our souls to receive an infinity of mercy by transforming us into vessels of infinite capacity.

Saint Teresa of Ávila, in her spiritual classic, "Interior Castles," teaches us that the soul is, indeed, capable of infinite capacity for the simple fact that God dwells within. The soul is like an interior castle with many interlinked dwelling places through which we must pass so as to arrive at the central chamber. She teaches that the goal of the spiritual life is to travel through these various dwelling places to the center of our souls where the infinite God dwells so that we can be present to Him there. Therefore, we must understand that our souls are indeed capable of receiving the infinite waters of mercy, because God created us with this ability when He chose to live within us. The key to being able to fully receive this fullness of mercy is to seek out the infinite God, dwelling within. How is this done?

The heart of the path laid out in the Diary of Saint Faustina is as follows: Go to Confession and receive Holy Communion so as to obtain forgiveness of sins and punishment. Those who receive these Sacraments while dwelling only in the first dwelling places, for example, will never benefit from them to the extent that those who dwell in the seventh and central mansion where the King dwells in fullness. Thus, mercy is given in its fullness but unless we make the transforming journey to God through conversion and purification of our souls, we will never be able to receive the ocean of graces God bestows.

Reflect, today, upon this ocean being poured forth upon you. How much of this mercy are you able to receive right now in your life? As you humbly admit your limited openness to God's grace, know that God patiently waits for you, dwelling in His fullness deep within you, waiting for you to make the journey to Him. Commit yourself to this journey by prayer, fasting, penance, the reading of Scripture, the celebration of the Sacraments and spiritual reading. There is an ocean of the fullness of life waiting for you. Dive in and allow His mercy to deepen your capacity to receive Him most fully.

Nominations for New Statues at Saint Mary's

Beauty comes in many forms. As we head into the spring and summer months, we can look forward to the amazing sunrises and sunsets we'll see over the waters of Lake Erie; the majesty of new life found in the plants and trees that will soon be in bloom. Architecture and music also convey beauty, their harmony, lines and proportion lift our minds to higher things. We also recognize spiritual beauty; we see it in people who are close to Jesus Christ and who are examples of his love, goodness and generosity.

One particular form that conveys both physical and spiritual beauty in our parish churches are the statues we have. The images of our Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph, who model the virtues found in family life; the Sacred Heart of Jesus, who points to his heart that burns with love for us; the statues of Saints Peter and Paul, the apostles who first took the Catholic faith to the world, the kneeling angels before the tabernacle, and those of Saint Therese of Lisieux and Saint Jude, both of whom are powerful intercessors, helping us to live and love like they did.

Statues help remind us of the faith that has been handed on to us from generation to generation. They provide opportunities to evangelize and offer us a starting or focal point for our prayers—how many times I've gone before Saint Jude to ask for his intercession with a problem that seems beyond help! They also offer encouragement: silently they look at us and say, "If I can struggle and suffer to draw close to God, you can, too!" Here, I remember what Archbishop Leonard Blair used to say at the conclusion of every celebration of Confirmation: "The only tragedy in life is not to end it as a saint; and a saint is nothing more than someone who ends their life on earth as a friend of God."

The saints want us to be their friend, and God's! They spend their eternity praying for us, interceding for us. For that reason, we light candles and kneel before their image. We join our prayers to theirs, begging God to hear us and answer our pleas. This great cloud of witnesses helps us in so many ways!

Not long ago, I had the privilege to bless a beautiful new statue of Saint Jude for Saint Mary's. Today, I announce a new initiative for Saint Mary's that will hopefully bring several more new statues to beautify our church and inspire those who look upon them to live holy and faith-filled lives.

The reredos at Saint Mary's (the structure immediately behind the tabernacle) has five bays in it—each the perfect size for a statue. Over the next month or two, I will be asking our parishioners to make recommendations on what statues of saints we should commission—put into each of those bays. I have already committed the center bay to be a statue of Our Mother of Sorrows—patroness of Saint Mary's parish. It also seems appropriate to have a German-born saint in one bay, since Saint Mary's was started as a German parish.

Each of the wood statues will be proportionate to the size of the bay, and will be hand-carved through the Ferdinand Stuesser Studio—a German-based studio located in northern Italy... the same company who carved the Saint Jude Statue and who will be commissioned to carve our new nativity set. The nativity and the other statues will be decorated in a fashion similar to that of Saint Jude and will be ordered as funding becomes available. Memorials will be noted in the same fashion as those found on the Saint Jude statue.

Because these statues will adorn our parish for decades and decades to come, we want to make certain that they have meaning for us. I, therefore, invite all of our parishioners to begin to pray and submit recommendations on which saints they believe should be considered for commissioning as reredos statues. We will collect submissions using a special form, and will be forming a committee to begin the discernment process to narrow the submissions down to finalists. Keep watching the bulletin for more information!

At the Easter Vigil, we welcomed a number of people into our parish family. These individuals, with their sponsors and RCIA team members, met weekly to discuss Sacred Scripture and the Catholic faith as they prepared to receive the Sacraments of Initiation into full communion with the Catholic Church. We welcome them and their families, and ask that you keep them in your prayers.

Hello, my name is Stephanie Voltz and this is my second year as the elementary secretary here at SCCS. I grew up in Michigan and have been in Sandusky with my husband and two children Tyler (2nd grade) and Allie (1st grade) for 8 years now. Before working here, I worked at a local nursing home. I love what I do and especially love seeing and talking to the students throughout the day. Please say “hi” if you stop in at the blue awning!

My name is Steve Ruthsatz and I am in my second year as the athletic director at SCCS. I am a 1985 SMCC graduate who went on to earn a Bachelor of Science in sport management from Bowling Green State University and a Master of Arts in education at Tusculum University in Tennessee. Before returning to Sandusky, I spent more than 30 years working with college and professional sports. Most recently, I was the sports information director at Defiance College and have worked in athletic departments at the NCAA Division I, Division II, Division III and NAIA levels. While living in Georgia for 24 years, I served as an assistant director of media relations for the Atlanta Hawks and volunteered at major sporting events around Atlanta like NCAA Final Fours and the 1996 Summer Olympic Games. Additionally, I was a part-time newspaper sports reporter/writer, covering primarily high school athletics, for 19 years. I am excited to be back at my alma mater leading our athletic department, and hope to build each sports team to be successful. We want our student-athletes to have rewarding and memorable experiences here!
