PRAYERS AFTER COMMUNION

Excerpt from hallow.com/blog

The Roman Missal gives broad guidelines for post-Communion prayer, saying that those who have received the Eucharist can "praise and pray to God in their hearts." All prayers in the moments following Communion are said silently. Similar to prayers offered before receiving Communion, prayers afterward can be short and free-flowing. Some examples of simple Communion prayers to say after receiving are:

- "Thank you, Lord, for this most precious gift."
- "I'm eternally grateful for your sacrifice. Strengthen me to do Your will."
- The Anima Christi (Soul of Christ) prayer

The time after Communion can be a dialogue with God, and you may find yourself doing less talking and more listening. These incredibly intimate moments with our Lord don't require strict prayers and structures. Be with God. Feel His presence. Listen to God's call. The power of the Eucharist can overcome any inability we have to offer the exact right prayer!

Cemetery Updates

Great things are happening at the Catholic Cemeteries of Sandusky! Our gratitude goes out to the team of volunteers who have been working to clean the headstones at both Saint Mary and Saint Joseph Cemeteries: Dave Faber, Glen Verhoff, Don Young, Rich Wickens, Al Agme, Jeanne Sharrah, Eileen Garven and Deb Dahmen!

Additionally, we want to extend a thank you to the Knights of Columbus who have been working to straighten headstones this summer! Over 400 of them have received attention! In the future, we will be making a record of those headstones that are too large for our staff and/or volunteers to handle and will then create a plan on how to address them in a safe and appropriate manner.

A group of volunteers has begun to take handwritten information from the cemetery archives and enter it into the beginnings of a database. This is a long-term project that will take significant hours and attention of those who enter the information, editors who will review the data to make sure it is correct, and a number of auditors who will take the time to cross-reference burial records, lot books, and information cards. Please say a prayer for those involved in this work!

In the coming weeks, we will be undertaking some work to trim trees and to remove those trees and/or branches that are dead or in danger of causing damage. You'll also begin to notice that soil will be moved into a back section of Saint Joseph Cemetery. This will be placed there over time and will eventually be spread-out to level some of the land that is currently not draining well.

Finally, please note that the Cemeteries office hours will be changing effective September 1, 2023. The new hours will be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Friday, by telephone or appointment only.

Save the Date: Grief Support Ministry

Save the date for our Grief Support Ministry! We will begin meeting on Wednesdays at 6:30 P.M. in the St. Mary's Commons on the following dates: September 13, 20, 27; October 4, 11, 18

Grieving with Great HOPE uses videos and peer-group discussion to offer a prayerful, practical and personal approach for anyone who is mourning the loss of a loved one.
