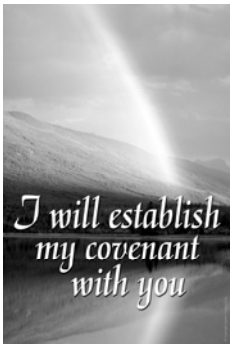
Today is the Second Sunday of Lent



THE OBEDIENCE OF ABRAHAM AND JESUS. God tested Abraham by asking not for an ordinary sacrifice, which would have been a partial burning with the meat divided between God and the people and eaten by those who sacrificed, but for a holocaust, a total burning of the sacrificial animal. This type of sacrifice consecrated the entire offering to God alone. This is what God was asking of Abraham in offering his only son, Isaac. When Abraham demonstrated his obedience, that was enough. This story from today's scriptures foretells the completion of the blood sacrifices of the old covenant in the new covenant: the blood of God's own Son, offered to us on the cross and in the Eucharist. Abraham's obedience foreshadows the obedience of Jesus to God's promise of salvation. The obedience of Abraham is rewarded in the birth to him, through Isaac, of many nations. The obedience of Jesus is rewarded in the salvation of all people for all time.

Second Sunday of Lent
February 25, 2018
If God is for us, who can be against us?
— Romans 8:31b

Flowers for the Altar

The austerity of the Lenten Season is dictated not only by sorrow for sin, but also by the character of Lent as a time of waiting and anticipation for the coming of the Easter Celebration. In keeping with this anticipation, there will be NO FLOWERS on the altar until Laetare (Rose) Sunday and Palm Sunday.

Unpack the Passion Mystery

With these two CDs, you can unpack the Passion Mystery like never before. Dr Scott Hahn, celebrated theologian and professor at the Franciscan University of Steubenville, might as well be inviting us into one of his graduate theology classes. Let's put thinking caps on and be ready for a challenging ride. Start with "Seven Last Sayings of Christ" in which Dr Hahn unlocks for us the deeper significance of Our Lord's last words, carefully chosen so that we might better understand the immense love of God for every person and His plan of salvation. Christ's words, "It is finished," what does "it" refer to? Dr Hahn touches on this question in this first CD, but digs into it in great depth in "The Fourth Cup." Here, Dr Hahn traces "it" back to the Last Supper, the Jewish Passover, and even farther back, to the time when God pledged his covenant with Israel.

Catholics fast from solids and liquids (except for water and required medications) for one hour before receiving Communion as a small sacrifice to Jesus to show respect and reverence for His true presence in the Eucharist. It is important to note that chewing gum during Mass is not respectful.

Catholic Charities of South Carolina

Catholic Charities of the Midlands is in need of warm men's clothing to restock the Clothing Closet shelves. There has been a huge need lately due to the cold weather. There is a specific need for larger clothing such as XL and 2XL - long sleeve shirts, sweaters, sweatshirts, light jackets, and coats. Donations can be dropped off in the Vollkommer Bell Tower in the middle drawer (right side) of the wooden cabinet. Donation receipts are available by calling/texting Cathy at 803.945.4449 or emailing chood@charlestondiocese.org. Thank you and God bless you!

Every time the name of Jesus is mentioned, at any point during the Mass, we are supposed to bow our heads.

Stewardship A Way of Life

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) posts notes regarding all the Books of the Bible. In its introduction to Paul's Letter to the Romans (our Second Reading), the USCCB says, "Of all the letters of Paul, that to the Christians at Rome has long held pride of place. It is the longest and most systematic unfolding of the apostle's thought, expounding the gospel of God's righteousness that saves all who believe; it reflects a universal outlook."

Paul's Letter to the Romans is in fact the longest of his letters in the New Testament (Romans is more than 7,000 words; that is much shorter, of course, than the shortest Gospel, Mark, which is still more than 11,000 words.) However, as stated by the Bishops, the Letter to the Romans explained in a more detailed way Paul's theology and spirituality than any other letter.

Regardless the length, today's reading contains a statement with which many of us are familiar, but which has great meaning: "If God is for us, who can be against us?" The significance of that is that if we are on the side of righteousness, which should be a major goal of our Lenten experience, there should be nothing to threaten us.

We understand that we will be judged. Paul's point is if we are judged "not guilty" by God, who can bring an additional charge with any merit? Or, if Jesus is our advocate, promoting our benefit, then who can condemn us? This is the time to place our trust in God, and in His love.

This weekend, look for the display in the Narthex for the Knights of Columbus Council 16903. They will be accepting your generous donation of canned goods, cereal, pasta and other non-perishable food items to help restock the shelves of We Care Center after Mass during the Lenten Season. Please consider donating one can of food and/or $1 for each day during Lent in service to others. The Knights will contribute an additional $100 to the We Care Center for the first $500 donated. This program is a reminder of the penance we are called to perform as we prepare for the Passion of Christ. Please consider donating.
