The Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 11, 2018

Today is the Fourth Sunday of Lent

COMMUNAL RESPONSIBILITY.

The people of God forgot the covenant and flouted God's laws. They did not listen to the prophets among them, who spoke for God in warning them. Prophets are sent from God to remind us why we are here, but they are often, even in our own time, mocked, disregarded, and mistreated rather than thanked and listened to. The book of Chronicles tells the results of these sins: the destruction of the temple and all of Jerusalem, murder, mayhem, and finally exile to a foreign land. Why are these stories in the Bible? Just to inform us of what happened to our ancient forebears? What good would that be unless there were a message and a warning for us as well? Are we people who follow the teachings of God, who obey the words of Christ in the second covenant in his blood? Or do we continue to wreak works of darkness and violence? We are reminded by these readings that we will be judged as a people, not just as individuals.

We wish Deacon Malcolm a very Happy & Blessed Birthday which he celebrates on March 15th. Please join us in wishing him many happy returns! The parishioners at the Stations of the Cross on Friday, March 9th, surprised Deacon Malcolm with a birthday cake.

Flowers for the Altar

Flowers on the altar this weekend were provided by Bruce & Barbara Thompson in loving memory of their mothers, Inez F. Thompson and Muriel Jancovic; by Dot Luce in honor of Chuck Luce as he celebrates his 87th Birthday; and, by Paul & Dawn LaRosa in honor of their son, Sam LaRosa, as he celebrates his 17th Birthday.

Laetare Sunday is the popular name for the Fourth Sunday in Lent. Laetare means "Rejoice" in Latin, and because it is the midpoint of Lent Laetare Sunday has traditionally been viewed as a day of celebration, on which the austerity of Lent is briefly lessened. The purple vestments and altar cloths of Lent are set aside, and rose ones are used instead. Flowers, which are normally forbidden during Lent, may be placed on the altar.

EASTER LILIES can be ordered this weekend! The cost is $12.00 each. Please help us adorn the altar for our first Easter Celebration in our beautiful new Sanctuary. See Memorial Sheet insert to place your orders.

The SECOND COLLECTION for March 24-25, 2018
is for Catholic Relief Service (American Overseas Appeal)

Black and Indian Home Missions: $1,049.00
Many thanks!!

Lighthouse Catholic Ministry The New Manna

Biblical Jews adhered to the Leviticus (17:11) prohibition against the drinking of blood. Yet in 1Corinthians (10:16), Paul casually states "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ?"

The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" How is it that the first Jewish Christians so quickly came to believe in the real presence of the Eucharist? Dr. Brant Pitre uses the Hebrew Scriptures and Jewish tradition to frame the actions of Jesus at the Last Supper, and to provide a fresh look at the heart of Catholic practice ~ the Eucharist. By taking us back to the Jewish roots of our faith, Dr. Pitre gives us a powerful lens through which to see anew the bread of the presence, the manna, the Last Supper, and ultimately the meaning of the Eucharist.

(CDs & Books can be found in the Vollkommer Bell Tower and in the lobby of the Parish Offices Complex).

Catholic Charities of the Midlands is in need of warm men's clothing to restock the Clothing Closet shelves. There has been a huge need lately due to the cold weather. There is a specific need for larger clothing such as XL and 2XL - long sleeve shirts, sweaters, sweatshirts, light jackets, and coats. Donations can be dropped off in the Vollkommer Bell Tower in the middle drawer (right side) of the wooden cabinet. Donation receipts are available by calling/texting Cathy at 803.945.4449 or emailing chood@charlestondiocese.org. Thank you and God bless you!

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." Do we really need a more powerful reminder of the importance of Lent and Easter than that?

That verse (from John 3:16) has become very popular in modern culture, to the point that we see it often at athletic events. When the University of Florida played for the national college football championship in 2009, quarterback Tim Tebow did not wear the regular eye black under his eyes. Under his right eye it said "John" and under his left eye it said "3:16." God sends us messages all the time, if we listen and are attentive.

Tebow did not have a remarkable professional career, but he was the quarterback of the Denver Broncos against the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2012 playoffs. The Broncos won, and in that game Tebow passed for 316 yards; his completed passes averaged 31.6 yards; perhaps the key play in the game came on third down and 16; the TV ratings for the game were 31.6%.

That is not the important aspect, however. What is important is that the truth of that statement is so simple; nevertheless, it is difficult for us to completely grasp its significance. The truth is that God loves us, no matter what we are or what our attitude toward God is. The world that God gave His Son to save is our world. We are the children of God.

This Lenten season is a time to see that and accept it as truth.

This weekend, look for the display in the Narthex for the Knights of Columbus Council 16903. They will be accepting your generous donation of canned goods, cereal, pasta and other non-perishable food items to help restock the shelves of We Care Center after Mass during the Lenten Season. Please consider donating one can of food and/or $1 for each day during Lent in service to others. The Knights will contribute an additional $100 to the We Care Center for the first $500 donated. This program is a reminder of the penance we are called to perform as we prepare for the Passion of Christ. Please consider donating.
