NATURE'S BEAUTY

Our responsorial psalm today is a beautiful song of the joy of the Earth, putting forth its bounty and rejoicing in its fruitfulness. We are filled with joy when we see images of the earth blooming. So many people describe their experience of God's presence in their appreciation of nature's beauty. This alone is good reason to protect the beauty and wholeness of nature. "You have visited the land and watered it, / greatly have you enriched it. / God's watercourses are filled; / you have prepared the grain" (Psalm 65:10). Sadly, we do many things to destroy nature, even though it belongs ultimately to God and to all people: "[A]ll creation is groaning in labor pains even until now" (Romans 8:22).

YOU HAVE CROWNED THE YEAR WITH YOUR BOUNTY

"My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it" (Isaiah 55:11). Nature and people rejoice at these words, for they not only describe the beauty and fruitfulness of nature's gifts, which "shout and sing for joy" (Psalm 65:14), but profess a profound truth. This truth is that God's word is living and effective; that is, it accomplishes what it says. When God speaks a word of comfort or correction, what is said is done in its fullness.

THE SOWER SOWS THE SEED

Haven't we all wondered sometimes which kind of ground we are as the seed falls? Do we spring up with joy, but then wither because the word has not taken root in us? Are we so tied up in worry and concern for material wellbeing that the word is choked off in us with cares? Or are we the rich soil on which the word of God falls, bearing rich fruit in our lives and making the lives of others better? We are probably all of these at one time or another in our lives. As we concern ourselves with these thoughts, we can hope that we are or are becoming the rich soil of open souls, open to God's effective word in us. If we are devoted to God, we ask God for help to be the souls who are receptive to God's word every day.

There are those who "shall indeed hear but not understand . . . look but never see. Gross is the heart of this people" (Matthew 13:14-15). They shall not be converted and healed. But those who concern themselves with the things of God "see what you see" and "hear what you hear" (Matthew 13:16) and rejoice in God's wonderful gifts on this Earth. Blessed are those who are the good soil who hear the word of God and keep it.

Statement from Bishop Robert E. Guglielmone regarding the death of George Floyd and rioting in our communities

CHARLESTON, SC - The Most Reverend Robert E. Guglielmone, Bishop of Charleston, released the following statement in the wake of the death of George Floyd and the riots occurring across our country:

“The Catholic Church of South Carolina grieves with our community about the events leading up to these riots taking place around our state and our country. We acknowledge the hurt of the African American community. We pray for those who have been harmed, and that the anger and frustration be lessened with time and reflection. We must step back and learn from history that these vengeful mobs do nothing but elicit a flash of negative attention resulting in resentful distraction from a cause that requires systemic change.

“To our family in Christ, we cannot minimize the fact that there is blatant racism and injustice in our country, and change must come. In order to make that change, however, we must unite in our efforts. There is no other way, but peace. Peace is an ethic for people of all faiths. We know that over 2000 years ago the authors of the Bible recorded the accounts of a man who changed the world. Jesus Christ did not do so, however, by commanding armies, and engaging in warfare. He taught his followers about love and mercy; that we must love God first and we must love our neighbors as ourselves. Christians are called to follow those teachings today and to sacrifice the ways that impede love and mercy. We must sacrifice our prejudices, ignorance, hostility, apathy, and all that halts us from truly loving our neighbors as ourselves.

“In the days ahead, I urge all people to refrain from bickering in social media, and step away from petty arguments. We need to join in solidarity and seek reconciliation as we continue to heal from injustice in our society. Opinions and misinformation are not the answer to our problems. Prayer is. Education is. Empathy is.

“Young people, I call on you to take the lead and show us how to effect change. Take Our Lord’s message of mercy out into the streets and show people how to welcome it into their hearts and homes. Show the world what it is to change the world peacefully through reason and open communication, by linking arms and teaching us to love God first.

“Let us pray for George Floyd and his family. Let us pray for those who are victims of racism. Let us pray for those who are suffering because of the riots. Let us pray for peace, justice and respect for all life.”

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD'S WORDS. Each day we are bombarded with thousands of words. From the moment our clock radios click on in the morning, until the last moment of the day when the television is turned off or someone bids us "good-night," our life is filled with words. Some words that we hear bring news that leaves us feeling low.

Some words lift our spirits. Many of the words we hear are trying to get us to buy something. Some words are hurtful. Today the Church focuses our attention on hearing the word of God. Are God's words just more of the same—part of the endless stream of words that flow into our ears each day? The challenge today is to allow God's word to inspire us in new ways so that our outlook and attitudes align themselves more closely with the heart and mind of Christ Jesus.

Sometimes there is a prayer in a song that we haven't thought about when humming along. Let's try this one by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

YOU'LL NEVER WALK ALONE

When you walk through a storm

Hold your head up high

And don't be afraid of the dark

At the end of a storm

There's a golden sky

And a sweet silver song of a lark

Walk on through the wind

Walk on through the rain

Though your dreams be tossed and blown

Walk on, walk on

With hope in your heart

And you will never walk alone

You'll never walk alone

Although God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Trinity are not mentioned, we know the author's intent. You may at times feel alone, but if you trust in God, give Him your problems, sorrow, and fear. He will help those who believe in Him.

Please take a moment to give a few dollars to the needy by contributing to the poor box on the left hand side of the large, wooden double doors. Those less fortunate will thank you!

Lighthouse Catholic Ministry

Meet Teresa

Listen and learn about this Mystic, Doctor of the Church, and True Reformer. Perhaps she will provide inspiration for us to bring positive change to our Holy Mother Church through the power of prayer. Dr. Christopher Blum, Academic Dean of the Augustine Institute, unfolds the inspiring life of St. Teresa of Avila and her important role in the Catholic Reformation. He shares how, after having already been a nun for twenty years, she had a radical transformation in her own life and then went on to become one of the most powerful forces for bringing about conversion and positive change in the history of the Church.

Respect Life Ministry

Now that the ministries are holding monthly meetings again (with guidelines), the Respect Life Ministry will meet on Monday, August 3, 2020 @ 6:00 pm in either St. Andrew Hall or in the Library on the 2nd Floor of the Family Life Center. Rosary for Life will still be held either virtually or at Planned Parenthood on August 15th which is an abortion Saturday. Please join us for this powerful rosary, either virtually or in person at Planned Parenthood, 2712 Middleburg Drive, Suite 107, Columbia, SC 29204. Please email us at RespectLife@OLLChapin.org with any questions or to sign up for ZOOM.

We have uploaded Meditations for the Rosary in Times of Crisis, courtesy of director of the Family Life Office for the Diocese of Charleston. These are beautiful and include all four sets of mysteries. Click on the QR Code with your SmartPhone.

You do not need to be an active member of the Respect Life Ministry to be on our email list. If you want to be informed of upcoming activities, events, prayer novenas and prolife legislative alerts. Please E-mail Maureen & Deacon Greg at RespectLife@OLLChapin.org to join our list or with any questions regarding the Respect Life Ministry. For our full collection of resources and a schedule of activities and events, please visit <https://ollchapin.org/respectlife>. Meditations for the Rosary can also be found on the website.

As Parish Ministry activities begin to resume, we ask parish leaders to please email parish.life@ollchapin.org, with your proposed plans. Be sure to review the GUIDELINES (found on the website at www.ollchapin.org, Father's Constant Contact Email or the Weekly Reminder) for safe ministry meetings.

We Care serves as a hub of community outreach, especially in times of crisis. Despite many closures, we are open and ready to serve! We have adapted our service model to serve by drive thru only to best ensure safety for both clients and our volunteer staff. Since implementing the drive-thru just a week ago, we have served well over 300 people! These clients are those most desperate for our help, who would not have enough to eat, whose lights may be turned off, without us. It is more important than ever that we stay open to serve those most in need. In the coming weeks and months, we anticipate that client volume will continually increase as layoffs and financial strain worsen. We are committed to meeting those expanding needs, even as we face the inevitability of reduced donations, particularly with churches unable to meet. We know that families and businesses are under tremendous pressure; in fact our understanding of that weight is a deeply important reason for cancelling the golf tournament. We also know that we are extraordinarily blessed by a very giving community and therefore request that if you are looking for a way to help in the crisis that you remember We Care and the vital work we are continuing to do. Donations are most thankfully received through our website www.chapinwecare.org or can be mailed to We Care at PO Box 491, Chapin SC 29036.

For Workers and People Who Are Unemployed

God of Creation, the work of human beings is a participation in your continuing work of creation.

Watch over those who are working under difficult or dangerous conditions, Help them stay safe.

Extend your support and care to those who have lost—or will lose—a job, Help them and their families to persevere.

Inspire people who are discovering innovative ways to address pressing needs. Help all who turn new ideas into practical realities.

Help all of us to contribute to the common good to the best of our ability, through Christ our Lord.

AMEN.
