JANUARY 31, 2021
FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD'S AUTHENTIC VOICE

Who speaks for God? How can we determine which are authentic, authoritative expressions of God's intentions, and which are false? Today's readings explore the question of authority in distinct ways. In Deuteronomy, Moses prepares the people of Israel for his coming death, indicating that God will raise up a new prophet to guide them. Mark describes Jesus as God's authentic voice, by the authority of his teaching and the authority he commands over an unclean spirit. In both, authority comes directly from God. Authority comes from an intimate relationship with God and with God's people. God's spokesperson is one who teaches, protects, and heals the people loved by God. As always, there is great need today for leaders in our communities who radically trust God to work through them. Let us pray that each person who performs in a role of leadership may speak for God with an authentic voice.

RESCUE FROM BONDAGE

Uniquely in the Gospel of Mark, Jesus' public ministry begins with a direct confrontation with an unclean spirit. Today's Gospel passage reflects a recurring theme in Mark, that Jesus' coming is part of a cosmic battle between God and evil forces. It was commonly believed that many spirits were present in the world, and some sought to control human beings. Mark asserts that in Jesus, God has come to rescue humanity, to free us from every form of bondage.

In today's passage, the unclean spirit does not surrender power quietly. After complaints, convulsions, and screams, the spirit finally departs. As we may witness in own experience, that which binds us—fear, injustice, resentment—often departs only after a mighty struggle. Confronting anything "unclean" in our hearts, our institutions, or our society often involves a long journey toward freedom. May we sustain our efforts and our trust in God, during these long struggles.

PROPHETS IN DAILY LIFE

Moses assures Israel of God's continued presence by promising a new prophet. Like Moses, the prophet will be raised up directly by God. But how to distinguish a true prophet from a false one? Many claim to speak for God. The task is complicated by the fact that often, true prophets make waves, cause trouble, and disturb how things are normally done. Many simply don't want to hear what God is saying, because it threatens their privilege, comfort, or sense of identity.

Like the Israelites in today's reading, it can be hard for us to bear the voice of God. For God calls us out of all the ways we avoid opening our hearts to God and to others. And so, God raises up surprise prophets in daily life. These are all the people and events who summon us to fuller maturity in love and in faith. We are called upon to always be ready for the prophetic word that may emerge from God's surprises.

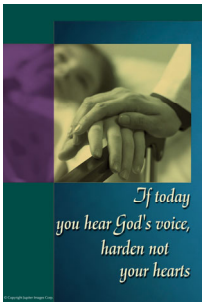
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time



FALSE PROPHETS, TRUE PROPHETS. In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God. The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

YOUR DONATIONS MAY BE PLACED IN THE PULL-OUT CABINET BIN IN VOLLKOMMER BELL TOWER ON ANY DAY OF THE WEEK, BUT ESPECIALLY ON CARE & SHARE SUNDAY!

By the way, Chapin Baptist was the leading church contributor with 13,023 lbs...but we were second and far ahead of 3rd place Lake Murray Presbyterian with 8400 lbs. Many thanks for your generosity!

Flowers on the altar this weekend were provided by Don & Mary Moore in loving memory of Joe & Therese Brannigan, and, by the Sharpley Family in honor of Bob Sharpley as he celebrates his 75th Birthday.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!! The 2021 Book to sign up for ALTAR FLOWERS can be found on the credenza in the Vollkommer Bell Tower. Sign up to commemorate a special occasion, as a memorial to a loved one's passing, or simply to help adorn the altar.

Column Submitted by Stewardship Council

Many parishioners have shared greatly of their treasure with Catholic Charities of the Midlands through donations in the Vollkommer Bell Tower. These have included jackets, pants, socks, blankets, comforters, gloves and shoes among other things. These donations go to two main communities; the men and women being released from prison, as well as homeless men and women. Here is a note sent to one of our parishioners, but it is truly meant for all parishioners at OLL.

> "During these trying times, it has been such a blessing to receive your faith filled offering to our Restorative Justice Ministry. As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, we had to make major changes in how we are providing supports to the men and women who are reentering society. Your devoted offering has been a blessing to those who were in need of personal care items, emergency housing due to possible exposure, and transportation back to their families. Please know that each and every person served has expressed great appreciation. Blessings to you and your family in this new year."

Mr. Gilbert Nikita Grimball, Program Specialist for Restorative Justice Ministry, RENEW, Esther's Journey, 1427 Pickens Street, Columbia SC 29201

If you would like to make a donation, please make your payable to Catholic Charities of the Midlands. If you would like it to go to the Prison Ministry, please indicate that in the memo line of your check. The address is just above this paragraph. YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE! Recidivism rates in SC are about 30%. That rate among those served by Catholic Charities is 3%. Please give generously!!

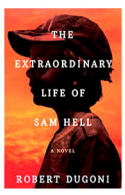
Lighthouse Catholic Ministry
Living Our Faith

Highly involved Catholics can spend so much time learning about the faith and the history of the Church that it can become more of a hobby than a way of life. Each one of us is called to live our faith in this specific time, in these specific moments. In this talk, Jeff Cavins shares how he has come to see that Jesus wants us to surrender every bit of our own comfort to follow Him. There are many fans of Jesus in this world, but we are called to be His disciples. As a young adult, Jeff left the Catholic Church and became a Protestant Pastor for 12 years. After returning to the Catholic Church, he became a nationally known speaker who has helped thousands come to a clearer understanding of Scripture and our Faith.



Spiritual Book Club will meet Monday, Feb 1 at 12:30 in St. Andrew Hall to discuss "The Extraordinary Life of Sam Hell" by Robert Dugoni. We will be following the Parish social distancing guidelines. All are welcome to attend. For further information please contact Linda Spencer at lrs47@sc.rr.com or (803) 732-3201.

Volunteers of Every Kind are Needed and Welcome

Those with layout design or basic photo editing skills, proof-readers and detail folks, Google Drive users, and people who can simply share enthusiasm for the Directory with others by phone or in-person. We have assignments to fit anyone's schedule. Want to help or to find out more? Contact Christine at Directory@OLLChapin.org or call 978-758-9384.

Let's put names with faces to grow a welcoming and friendly community at Our Lady of the Lake! Do you already have a family picture you'd like to use for the Parish Directory? Great! We'll tell you how to send it along to us in an upcoming bulletin and email.
