Mark 15:39

A PREVIEW OF HOLY WEEK

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week and previews its themes and events. Today's liturgy begins with the commemoration of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. The Roman Missal gives three options for how this can be done, the most elaborate of which begins with the priest, ministers, and the entire assembly outside. The Gospel account of the entry is read, after which palms are blessed and distributed. Then everyone enters the church in procession, singing songs or psalms. However, the joy is temporary; the Passion narrative recounts how, after an intimate meal with his disciples a few days later, Jesus is arrested, tortured, crucified, and buried. The reading from Isaiah is one of four Suffering Servant songs, while the psalm likewise gives voice to the suffering of the innocent. The reading from Philippians affirms the Incarnation as God's embrace of the entire human situation, including suffering and death.

SUFFERING . . .

It may be Palm Sunday, but the Passion is far more prominent in today's liturgy, which invites us to follow Jesus from his triumphant entrance into Jerusalem to his crucifixion and burial. It simply overflows with the sorrow and intimacy that will be dominant themes in Holy Week.

The first reading from the book of Isaiah gives voice to the suffering of an innocent person—perhaps a prophet—or the people as a whole. The refrain for the Psalm is Jesus' cry from the cross (Mark 13:14), a cry of absolute, existential loneliness. The great kenotic (emptying) hymn in Philippians provides a stunning portrait of Jesus' ultimate emptying, simultaneously intimate and cosmological.

. . . AND INTIMACY

All four Gospels have a Passion narrative. While there is agreement on the main events—an intimate meal shared by Jesus and the disciples, betrayal by Judas, prayer in Gethsemane followed by Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion—each Gospel has unique variations that give it a particular meaning or tone. In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus is anointed by an unnamed woman in the house of Simon the leper. All the Gospels have Jesus being anointed by a woman, but only Mark puts this scene just before the Last Supper. Jesus says the anointing is preparation for his burial; it is as if the woman could see a prophet's suffering in Jesus' life and feel it in his presence. Moved by compassion, she empties her jar of expensive nard on his head, pouring out her love in a profoundly intimate act. Perhaps she will also join the women who witness the crucifixion from afar (Mark 15:40–41), after the Twelve seem to be long gone.

Palm Sunday invites us to follow Jesus through the rest of Holy Week. By moving us to feel the injustice and the suffering endured by Jesus, this week's liturgies and devotions present us with those same choices. Perhaps, like the unnamed woman, we can open ourselves to others' suffering and respond with love and compassion. Or perhaps, like the Twelve, we will be conspicuous by our absence.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

For the Palm Sunday Gospel, we return to the Gospel according to Mark. The account of the Passion takes up nearly one-third of Mark's entire Gospel and, of all the evangelists, he is the one who presents the details most graphically. He depicts the humanity of Jesus most intensely, describing his sufferings thoroughly. Mark portrays Jesus as a complete fulfillment of the "Suffering Servant" of Isaiah, the obedient, humble slave dying on a cross of whom Paul speaks in Philippians. But it is important to remember that we call this "Holy Week" and not "sad week" or "suffering week," for each of the readings today, even the lamentations of the psalm, end in the promise of the strength and hope that is granted by God to those who faithfully give of themselves in love. As we enter into this week through these readings, we must reflect deeply on the sufferings of Jesus, but still be confident in the joy of risen, eternal life that awaits all of us who faithfully walk with him through these days.

Last year at this time, the Diocese was livestreaming Holy Week and Easter Sunday Masses from the Chapel of the Holy Family at the Pastoral Center for the Faithful! How blessed are we that those of us that are able will be back in the pews in person at Our Lady of the Lake for the Holiest of Days this Year! Schedule for Holy Week is posted on our website, www.ollchapin.org, on our Face Book page, and in Father Dennis' Constant Contact email. The Schedule can also be found in the Narthex.

It is too early to let our guard down! PLEASE, continue to wear a mask (especially while in church or at church functions), observe safe distancing and be prudent in going out. Hopefully the ongoing vaccination program will soon bring an end to this pandemic. Please continue to pray for all those who are battling Covid-19 and for all those who have died and their families. Remember to use Sign-Up Genius to attend Masses or Services at OLL. If a Mass or Service is full and you are not signed up or arrive late you may not be allowed into the Church!

Lent has begun and the needy of our community is still in need of non-perishable food. What a great time to give at least 40 cans for Lent !!

Our parish goal is 5,000 pounds during these next 40 days. Last year, we raised over 6,000 pounds.

You can also give a monetary donation and the Knights will purchase the nonperishable food for you. There are envelopes and deposit box in the display in the Narthex. There are food bins in the Narthex and the Vollkommer Bell Tower in the church and a bin in the Family Life Center. Please pray and consider this little sacrifice by giving nonperishable food and cans for the needy.

Congratulations to

Saam Paul Sadeghi

Bishop's Annual Appeal Progress

As of March 10, 2021, the BAA has collected almost 1.43 million dollars towards our diocesan goal of 4 million. Our parish has contributed $39,642.97 in cash and pledges towards our goal of $43,060. This represents 15% participation with 129 of 854 families.

The BAA provides funding for incredible programs and ministries doing critically important work in our diocese. Through charitable, educational, outreach and evangelization efforts, a real difference is being made. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the Appeal if you have not done so already. Our parish family is called to join our diocesan family in this endeavor. All gifts are meaningful and appreciated. (Pledge cards are available on the Offertory Table in the Narthex.) Thank you to all who have completed a Pledge to the 2021 Bishop's Annual Appeal (BAA) for the Diocese of Charleston! It is never too late to make a pledge! If you have not made a pledge please do so today. Thank you.

Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed! Amid crisis, scandal, and confusion in the modern world, where does the good news of the Resurrection and God's endless mercy fit in? In these three homilies—on The Easter Vigil, Divine Mercy Sunday, and Pentecost—priest and pastor Fr.

Brian Larkin shares stories and insights, including some from G.K. Chesterton, George Weigel, St. John Paul II, St. Faustina Kowalska, and the Old and New Testaments. Let us proclaim the joy, hope, and mission of every Christian, to love and serve a God “who never tires of forgiving” and “who knows His way out of the grave.”

FAMILY HOMEBOUND

MINISTRY

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Do you have a family member who is sick or homebound that cannot attend Mass and receive the Eucharist? Why don't you think of becoming an Extra Ordinary Minister of Holy Communion for the sick and homebound. Taking this training will equip you to become part of this Ministry so you can also help others. Also, if you know someone that is homebound and would like to receive the Eucharist that is not in your family, please call Deacon Jim at 704-246-9034.

In late 2020, OLL tried to start a Beautification Ministry. Our call for volunteers unfortunately went unanswered, so we are trying again now that spring is about to be upon us. Don't be overwhelmed by its name. The first focus would be the four little flower pots near the entrance to the administration building. Keep those flower pots filled with seasonal flowers or plants, and watered. If we can get this ministry off the ground, then phase 2 might be to look at the lovely weedy area in front of the statue of Mary. If you like to make things pretty, to get dirt under your fingernails: contact stewardship@ollchapin.org

Do you have a family member, neighbor or an acquaintance that could use a friendly voice from one of our Outreach Ministry volunteers? Our new phone-based church ministry, "Friendly Voices" objectives are to:

- Establish a phone buddy system for those needing a friendly voice;
- Check on the wellbeing of our church family and offer prayers and assistance where we can; and
- Create a greater sense of parish community and fellowship.

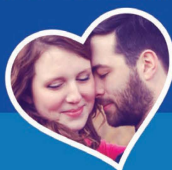

If you know of someone who might benefit from a friendly voice or if you'd like to volunteer to serve in this ministry, please contact us: stewardship@ollchapin.org.

Spiritual Book Club will meet Monday, April 5 at 12:30 in Saint Andrew Hall to discuss "Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist" by Brent Pitre. We will be following the Parish social distancing guidelines. All are welcome to attend. For further information please contact Linda
