Homily

Profession of Faith: Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD'S TIME. We either pay attention to or ignore "clock time" as we play in the summer sun and note the earth's tilt and the lengthening days. We live by time. We reckon time in seconds and minutes and hours, or we use broader chunks like suppertime and summertime. God keeps another sort of time. God speaks to us of "saving time," that is, the time of salvation. This sense of time is called kairos, and this time is always now, always present and available, always revealing, often surprising. This Sunday's readings alert us to the reality and the import of God's time. Ezekiel and the Gospel of Mark remind us that our labor and our plotting and our planning rest in God. For God takes our smallest efforts and makes of them great works. Paul points us to the "harvest" time, urges us to be watchful for its coming, and calls us to recognize that we must spend our time pleasing God.

Chris has shared a brief introduction of himself for us:

I was born on December 19, 1982, in Elmont New York. I was raised in Merrick, New York. I moved to South Carolina and I am a seminarian studying for the priesthood in the diocese of Charleston. I have completed my third year of major studies at St. Vincent de Paul Seminary in Florida. I received my Master's degree in theology and I am working on my Master's of Divinity. I have one year of studies left until ordination and I have been honored by being allowed to live and work here in your parish. Totus Tuus (Summer Program)

JUNE 21-25, 2021

Call the Parish Office for Registration Forms or go to Parish Website: <https://www.ollchapin.org/faith-formation>

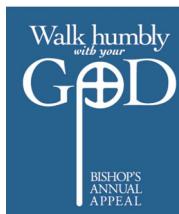

Join us this month for our 30 for 30 prayer campaign as we pray for more vocations within our diocese. Every day at 3:30 p.m. for the 30 days of June, we will pray three Hail Marys and ask that God sends us 30 seminarians. Twice a week, seminarians will lead the prayers on our Facebook and Instagram Live platforms. On the days that won't be streamed, we ask that you continue to pray. Our Lady of South Carolina, pray for us!

Flowers for the Altar

Flowers on the altar this weekend were provided by Bruce & Barbara Thompson in celebration of their Wedding Anniversary; and by Lembe & Anthony Zamcho in celebration of their Wedding Anniversary. Congratulations to all!

Bishop's Annual Appeal Progress: As of 30 April 2021, the BAA has collected almost 2.3 million towards the diocesan goal of 4 million. Our parish has contributed $48,917 in cash and pledges towards our parish goal of $43,060. This represents 113% of our goal from 17% of our registered families. All future gifts and pledges to the BAA will now be shared 50/50 with our parish!

The BAA provides funding for incredible programs and ministries doing critically important work in our diocese. Through charitable, educational, outreach and evangelization efforts, a real difference is being made. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the Appeal if you have not done so already. Our parish family is called to join our diocesan family in this endeavor. All gifts are meaningful and appreciated. Thank you.

BE NOT AFRAID

*You shall cross the barren desert
But you shall not die of thirst
You shall wander far in safety
Though you do not know the way
You shall speak your words in foreign land,
and all will understand
You shall see the face of God and Live!
Be not afraid
I go before you always
Come, follow me and I will give you rest
If you pass through raging waters in the sea,
You shall not drown
If you walk amid the burning flames
You shall not be harmed
If you stand before the power of hell
And death is at your side
Know that I am with you through it all!
Be not afraid
I go before you always
Come, follow me and I will give you rest
Blessed are your poor
For the kingdom shall be theirs
Blest are you who weep and mourn
For one day you shall laugh
And if wicked tongues insult and hate you
All because of me
Blessed, blessed are you
Be not afraid
I go before you always
Come, follow me and I will give you rest*

Lighthouse Catholic Ministry Marriage as Vocation

Throughout the Church's history there has been crisis and confusion over Church teaching. Today, there is crisis and confusion surrounding the Sacrament of Marriage and it is this Domestic Church that calls for our greater understanding and protection.

As Augustine Institute President and Professor Dr. Tim Gray explains, the crisis of marriage presents an immense opportunity, as it encourages us to explore and discover the depth of this mystery, described by Pope Benedict XVI as "a Gospel in itself". When lived faithfully and well, marriage serves as a bold witness to the love and saving power of God.

Allow Jesus to be Lord of your marriage relationship. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are Jul 16-18, 2021 in Beaufort, SC and Jan 28-30, 2022 in NORTH MYRTLE BEACH, SC. Early sign up is recommended. For more information visit our website at: <https://SCMarriageMatters.org> or contact us at applications@scmarriagematters.org or 803-810-9602.
