Homily

Profession Of Faith (Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

Hail Mary, full of Grace...

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

CONVERSATION WITH GOD.
Prayer is our focus this weekend. In the Gospel, Jesus gives his disciples, and us, the Lord's Prayer, which we have cherished through the centuries. The first two words encompass much about our faith—unity among all Christians (Our), and a sense that we are in a deeply bonded relationship with God (Father). In Genesis, we see Abraham in conversational prayer, in his creaturely humility before his Creator, seeking mercy and compassion for the innocent. The psalm is a lyrical prayer of thanksgiving and praise for the God who answered the sincere prayers of a people who had called out for help, showing them mercy. In Luke's Gospel, the disciples want to pray like Jesus, with the same intimacy—to experience God as Abba in the depths of their being. Do we try to talk to God? Do we listen for answers? This relationship is always a work in progress.

There will be a FREE WILL OFFERING

Our transition to Flocknote from Constant Contact has begun! We will be using Flocknote to enhance parish communications by enabling a uniform and effective two-way communication within the parish and its ministries. In addition to receiving parish notices (such as From the Pastor's Desk update, the Weekly Reminder, Blood Drive announcements, and other notices), parishioners will be able to join specific ministry groups, allowing them to communicate directly within their chosen groups.

As we begin this process you may, for a short time, receive emails from the parish from both Constant Contact and Flocknote. If you have not yet logged into Flocknote for the first time you may find it by either reading Father Dennis's From the Pastor's Desk emailed this past Wednesday or:

- Text: OLLCHAPIN to 84576 from your phone;
- Click on link in browser: ollchapin.flocknote.com

When you have logged into your Flocknote account you will want to do some amazing things. You will be able to: Subscribe or unsubscribe from Flocknote's Weekly Reminder and From the Pastor's Desk.

- Subscribe or unsubscribe from one or more of multiple ministries in the parish.
- Choose whether to receive email or text messages from Our Lady of the Lake's Flocknote system. You can even manage this choice for individual ministries within the parish!
- Choose to comment on an email (If this option is made available by the sender).
- Update and maintain your contact information as well as that of your household members.
- Subscribe or unsubscribe to The Catholic Miscellany, the Diocesan Newspaper.

And much more...!

Please note that you have already been added to the Weekly Reminder and From the Pastor's Desk groups. Also, you may currently receive more than one email from the parish if you have multiple email addresses in our files. You can update all of this once you log into your account.

Our Parish Staff and volunteers are being trained in Flocknote. Please keep us in your prayers! It is a steep learning curve so kindly be patient with us. Flocknote does allow unlimited note senders-so every parish ministry and group can set up their own email/text list with admins and note senders.

Please Keep in Your Prayers

SENT TO FATHER DENNIS THANKING THE PARISH'S SEW BLESSED MINISTRY

Thank you much

My mother was recently at Newberry Hospital for a fairly complicated stomach surgery. She is nearly 80 years old and needless to say, we were all very apprehensive and worried about her having such a procedure at her age. While we were waiting for her to be called back for pre-op, I noticed the basket of the seat belt cushions that were in the waiting area. I selected one for her and brought it over to her chair. You see, my mom hates seat belts b/c she says they cut in to her shoulder! That small gesture from your church along with the prayer on the enclosed card touched our hearts and gave her comfort on this very difficult day. I would like to say thank you so very much for this kindness and your outreach to the community. In these trying times, a message from our Lord and Savior is exactly what we need more of. Thank you & God Bless for your ministry and outreach to the community. You touched our hearts! With love, Robert Aman & Georgia Aman

South Carolina Catholic Conference

The Public Policy Voice of Faithful Catholics in the Palmetto State

The South Carolina Catholic Conference has launched a site dedicated to pro-life, pro-family organizations and ministries in the Palmetto State. Its name, bornforthis.life, takes inspiration from St. Joan of Arc's message, "We were born for a time such as this."

This website is designed to be a resource hub for mobilizing Catholics in the new pro-life era. We were born for this era, and it is time for us to engage. Our mission is to save souls and to care for those around us. We will support all those in need of love and care in our communities, especially those who have been affected by the practice of abortion.

We pledge to stand in the gap to support women, children and families with life-affirming resources. We want every child, every woman and every family to be supported in their dignity as a child of God.
