THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. - Mt 17:1-2

Homily

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

All People: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,

All bow: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All People: For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Doxology And Great Amen

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him, O
God, Almighty Father, in the Unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, forever and ever.

Hail Mary, full of Grace...

*Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.*

* Communion Rite *

The Lord's Prayer

All People: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

All People: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Sing with All the Saints in Glory

Transfiguration of the Lord

What is Christianity finally about? These days if you ask almost anyone who doesn't know the Bible you'll probably hear an answer like this: "Being a good person" or "following the golden rule." No offense to the golden rule, but our faith is simply much stranger than that. This week's feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a luminous example of this.

Jesus becomes radiantly and overwhelmingly beautiful. The glory of God literally shines forth from his body and even his clothes. Here we see that Christianity is not mainly a moral system, but a relationship with God in Christ, one that finally makes human beings gloriously beautiful. Now we can see our good and bad deeds in a new and de-centered way. Our morality isn't about a heaven or hell scorecard. It's about lives open (or closed) to transfiguration, lives capable of revealing the glory of God in Christ to the world. Spouses, children, friends, co-workers, priests, consecrated women and men, and so on — we are all called to let the beauty of Jesus make our lives beautiful, little by little. His beauty in us is the center of our faith. Father John Muir ©LPI to the Ministry Email List.

Monthly fellowship is open to ALL supporters of life. St. Paul said we should always be ready to give a reason for our hope. We believe that we can change the culture by engaging in conversations about life issues when the opportunities arise, therefore, we must be prepared. Join us to be encouraged and become prepared to build a culture of life.

We wish Father Dennis a very Happy & Blessed Birthday, which he celebrates this Tuesday, August 8th. Please drop in at the 8AM & 10:30AM Hospitality Hours this Sunday and extend him your best wishes. May the Blessing of Almighty God come upon Father Dennis as he celebrates his birthday, that he may enjoy good health and vigor of life, be surrounded by the love of his family and friends, and may he celebrate his birthday for many years to come. Amen!

Our heartfelt sympathy goes to the Luce Family on the recent passing of Chuck Luce. A Mass of Christian Burial was held on July 29th at Our Lady of the Lake and then Chuck was laid to rest by his beloved wife of over 68 years, Dot, in Greenlawn Memorial Park, with Full Military Honors. Chuck and Dot were an integral part of our Parish and faith community, involved in many of OLL Ministries. They will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and their loved ones.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

We are continuing to encourage our parish children to use their envelopes during the summer at Mass. If you have forgotten an envelope or need more, they are available in the Narthex. Children can make a monetary donation or just write something on the envelope; a good deed, a prayer, etc. Father Dennis will hold a basket and invite the children to come forward at the 8:00AM and 10:30AM Sunday Masses.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The God of the Living. "Sic transit gloria mundi," is what they used to say at papal coronations. "So passes earthly glory." Everything is fleeting. Nothing is here to stay. But in reality, some things are forever.

Our actions on earth do have the potential to reverberate in eternity. Everyday Stewardship is a lifestyle that embraces what will last. It is being aware of how our choices and our actions can be received by God, and through His grace, amplified to showcase His glory. Your great-grandparents were married for 60 years. Maybe they shared the greatest love anyone in your family has ever seen, and maybe they raised up a whole family of kids. But they've been gone for a generation now, and no one living remembers the softness in their eyes when they looked at each other. And to read today's Gospel, you might even get the impression that their marriage was nothing more than an earthly whim. Gone. Fleeting. Temporal. This week's readings invite us to contemplate the question: what exactly is immortal? What lasts beyond our earthly sojourn? The seven brothers and their mothers whose martyrdom is told this weekend in Maccabees didn't die for the letter of the law, they died for the One who gave the law. In the same way, a marriage contract does not extend into eternity, but the fruits of a sacrificial love will live forever. Good works, devotion, gratitude, selflessness, graciousness, accountability — these are all of God. He is not God of the dead; He is God of the living — and these are the things that last an eternity. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS, ©LPi Archdiocese of Atlanta is hosting The Way, a healing retreat for female survivors of abuse. The retreat will be held Sept. 22-24 at the Sautee Mountain Retreat in Clarkesville, Georgia. The Way is the path to take to find answers to these and many other questions for which your heart, mind, body, and soul have been searching. This is where your healing journey begins. These three days of guided meditations and prayer crafted around the Stations of the Cross will show you the steps Christ took to overcome dread, confusion, deep hurt, betrayal, and anger not only for his experience of abuse — which culminated in his death on the cross and new life in the Resurrection — but for your abuse as well. You can choose to walk The Way with him, learn his ways, transform your pain and suffering into a new life, the life God has always wanted for you but that the sins of another has disfigured in countless ways. -Sue Stubbs, Retreat Facilitator and Counselor.

The application deadline is Sept. 14. Please contact Sue Stubbs at 404-920-7554 or sstubbs@archatl.com to register.
