Homily

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

All People: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,

All bow: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All People: For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

All People: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

All People: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Hail Mary, full of Grace...

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week's gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, "Render therefore to Caesar the things are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime. What's a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God's all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus' words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn't God — but he is indeed God's. Father John Muir ©LPi

On First Saturday, November 4th, after the 12 noon Mass, the Parish will hold the Annual Visit to Our Lady of the Lake's Cemetery in honor of All Souls Day. This is a special day the Church sets aside for the faithful to visit a cemetery and to remember the Faithful Departed. Your deceased loved ones and friends need not be buried in the Parish Cemetery to come and remember them.

Throughout the month of November beginning on November 2nd, the Parish will offer prayers and Masses for all the Faithful Departed. Envelopes can be found in your OSV Envelope Sets or special envelopes marked "All Souls Day" can be found on the Offertory Table in the Narthex. Parishioners can use them to include the names of their deceased relatives and friends. Once completed, place in the Collection Basket. These envelopes will stay on the altar for the month of November.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes to Suzanne Gooch & Family on the passing of Vaughn Gooch. A Memorial Service was held on October 21, 2023 at the Parish. Vaughn chose to donate his body to the University of South Carolina School of Medicine for educational purposes. Although he may be gone physically, he leaves us all with the memories of his humor and laughter. An interment service will be held at the Parish once his remains have been returned to the Family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Suzanne and her loved ones.

Spiritual Book Club will meet Monday, November 6 at 12:30 PM in Saint Andrew Hall. During October we will be reading Champions of the Rosary by Donald H Calloway, MIC. All are welcome to attend. For further information please contact Linda Spencer LRS47@SC.RR.COM

Please join Our Lady of the Lake's Quilting Circle on Tuesday, November 7th at 10:00AM to learn how to make this "3-D Christmas Pot Holder" by parishioner, Libby Larson. Materials will be furnished. Please call Suzanne Gooch at (803) 941-7051 to pre-register by November 6th.

Respect Life Ministry

Email Maureen at respectlife@ollchapin.org
if you have any questions or want to be added to the Ministry Email List.

The mission of Our Lady of the Lake Respect Life ministry is to help parishioners understand, value, and become engaged with building a culture that cherishes every human life from conception to natural death. We meet monthly to share a meal and to learn either by video or guest speaker about the wide range of life issues which include but are not limited to: abortion, euthanasia, capital punishment, and biotechnology.

Monthly fellowship is open to ALL supporters of life. St. Paul said we should always be ready to give a reason for our hope. We believe that we can change the culture by engaging in conversations about life issues when the opportunities arise, therefore, we must be prepared. Join us to be encouraged and become prepared to build a culture of life.

Our ministry has an e-mail list - open to all that want to keep up with local events. To join the email list or for other questions: Call Deacon Greg or Maureen 803-932-6032
