Homily

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

All People: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,

All bow: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All People: For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

All People: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

All People: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Closing hymn #598

Sing a New Song

Hail Mary, full of Grace...

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies. Fr. John Muir ©LPI

We are pleased to announce a Eucharistic Parish Mission with Fr. Jewel Aytona of the Fathers of Mercy. The Mission is scheduled for January 29-February 1, 2024. Fr. Aytona will also give the Homily at all the Masses the weekend of January 27-28. The Mission will begin each night with Confessions/Adoration at 6:00PM followed by a Mission Presentation at 7:00PM and Confessions again at 8:00PM. Please set aside these dates and times now in your calendars so that you and your family may fully participate in this mission.

Quilters Young and Old

Starting February 6th, at 10:30, in St. Ignatius Hall, we will be learning "Basic Quilting". Suzanne Gooch will instruct everyone on different "Quilting Designs" that can be made by hand or machine to make various projects, that can be used in your home. Patterns will be furnished along with all fabrics and materials for that quilting design. There will be a different design each month. Just bring scissors and tape measure to class.

Open to new attendees! Everyone 18 years and older are welcome to join our "Quilting Circle"!

Please pre-register by February 5th, by calling Suzanne Gooch at (803) 941-7051.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes to Frances Mullaney and Family on the recent passing of Terence "Terry" Vail Mullaney, whose Mass of Christian Burial was held at Our Lady of the Lake on January 11, 2024. He will be interred at a later date at the Fort Jackson National Cemetery with Full Military Honors by the United States Marine Corp. Our thoughts and prayers are with Fran, her family and loved ones. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Mass Intentions The Vigil Mass at 5:00PM is offered for the repose of the soul of Terence V. "Terry" Mullaney. The 8:00AM Mass on Sunday is offered as a Missa Pro Populo (Mass for the People). The Mass at 10:30AM is offered for the repose of the soul of John "Jack" G. Corbitt, Sr., at the request of Dona Silverman. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the Extraordinary Form (Traditional Latin) at 1:00PM is offered for the repose of the soul of Richard Dietzen, at the request of Todd & Angela Rickabaugh. The 5:00PM Mass is offered for the repose of the soul Gail Motta.

Respect Life Ministry

Email Maureen at respectlife@OLLchapin.org
if you have any questions or want to be added to the Ministry Email List.

The mission of Our Lady of the Lake Respect Life ministry is to help parishioners understand, value, and become engaged with building a culture that cherishes every human life from conception to natural death. We meet monthly to share a meal and to learn either by video or guest speaker about the wide range of life issues which include but are not limited to: abortion, euthanasia, capital punishment, and biotechnology.

The next Fellowship Night is scheduled for Monday, February 5, 2023, 6:00PM in St. Andrew Hall.

Attention All Women!! Find Joy in the Journey!! Please come to the Belonging Catholic Conference for Women. It is a wonderful day of encouraging spiritual talks and opportunities for prayer and fellowship. The keynote speaker is Sr. Virginia Joy from the Sisters of Life. Besides the keynote addresses, there are many optional workshops and demonstrations, confession, Mass with Bishop Jacques Fabre-Jeune, many vendors representing ministries, Catholic businesses, and Catholic Artisans; a catered box lunch, and a concert with award winning recording artist and songwriter, Marie Miller. Saturday, Feb. 24 at St. Joseph's Catholic School in Greenville, SC. Bring a friend and join us with other women from our state as we all encourage each other to "Find Joy in the Journey."
