All: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (Strike breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Forty Days and Forty Nights ^{Verses 4, 5}

Hail Mary, full of Grace...

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

As a college student, my prized possession was an after-market car stereo. It was my pride and joy: glorious audio, eye-catching display screen, and multi-disc CD changer. It drained my hard-earned dollars, but it was totally worth it. It drenched me in music everywhere I drove. On Ash Wednesday of my senior year of college, Father Tom, the Jesuit priest at my university said, "Pray for God to tell you what he wants you to sacrifice for Lent." I did. In my heart, the answer came: "Give up listening to your car stereo for forty days." I winced. Not possible, I thought. Can't do it. I made other plans. The next morning, I was stunned to find that my car had been broken into, and my fancy stereo ripped out and stolen. God's command to sacrifice what we love is no joke. This week in Genesis 22, God says: "Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied. Then God said, "Take your son, your only son, whom you love — Isaac — and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you." Believe me, I know. We like to be in control. It chafes us that God sets the terms of what we must sacrifice, and how. But this is no impersonal, tyrannical process. Remember that God uses their names, Abraham and Isaac. God knows each one of us and the precious gifts He commands us to offer. Finally, our sacrifices are for our own good. Do we trust this enough to do what Father Tom asked me to do?

LENTEN CHALLENGE: This week, I dare you to ask God: "What do you want me to give up?" He may ask for that which you love most. It will be something precious to you: time, money, a relationship, a dream, an opportunity. What matters is we trust Him and act sacrificially in line with His command. Whatever we sacrifice will of course come back to us as surely as the Risen Jesus — but that doesn't make it easy. Fr. John Muir ©LPi

Flowers for the Altar

The austerity of the Lenten Season is dictated not only by sorrow for sin, but also by the character of Lent as a time of waiting and anticipation for the coming of the Easter Celebration. In keeping with this anticipation, there will be NO FLOWERS on the altar.

WGK Tom Hrica, Grand Knight, and the Knights of Columbus Council #16903 @ Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church are challenging all Parishioners to give at least 40 Cans or $40 for the 2024 Lenten Season!!

I CAN, YOU CAN, WE CAN

40 CANS FOR LENT

If every registered family (well over 1,000 families at Our Lady of the Lake) gives 40 cans during this Lenten season, our parish would collect well over 24,000 pounds of food for We Care. (Calculation: 40 cans (12 ounce cans) equals 30 pounds of food multiple by 800 families equals 24, 000 pounds of food we can collect for the We Care Food Pantry.)

In the past few years since 2018, the parish Knights have collected around 3,500 to 6,000 pounds during the Lenten seasons. This is short of the potential of 24,000 pounds that we could collect if every parish family donate 40 cans during Lent. This is a small Lenten sacrifice for the good of our community and the poor and needy of our local area. I personally see the need every Wednesday at We Care with many of our own parishioners who volunteer their time at there every week. There is so much need in our local community.

Thank you all for your Grace of Charity for this Lenten sacrifice for the needy and poor of our local community. Vivat Jesus!!! Any questions, please reach out to me, WGK Tom Hrica, Grand Knight of Knights of Columbus Council #16903 @ Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church.
