Fr. Tim's Tidbits

Last week I had the privilege of con-celebrating a funeral Mass at Resurrection of our Lord Catholic Church in Pocahontas with Fr. Collison, native son of Boone. He may move a bit slower now, but still has that wry sense of humor, characteristic smile and gracious attitude. His ministry remains the same: bringing solace and hope to those grieving (so evident at the Mass last Saturday), welcoming to parishioners and visitors alike, guiding the congregation with a spirit of faith, and celebrating the Eucharist as a privilege. In his seventieth year, of the last graduating class of Ryan Catholic High School, Fr. Collison's ministry reminds us of the blessing of faith shared within our homes and family life; and God's continued calling of others within our Boone County Catholic Community toward religious life and ordained ministry.

Each person called by God to serve will bring forth their own personality, characteristics, abilities and gifts to share with others who are seeking the hope and presence of God in their lives. Vocations awareness commenced last week, but such should always be encouraged within families by our Christian values, our generosity and the prayers shared within your homes. We have eight seminarians presently in formation, taking the risk of following God's call—and their heart—to someday serve the parishes and people of our diocese. Their comments in the recent edition of the Lumen highlighted not just faith but enthusiasm and a personal comfort with the decision to respond to God's calling. Not always easy. Whatever one's vocation, God's calling—single life, marriage, religious life or ordained ministry—may we nurture and support family members and friends to walk the path faith provides.

In the affirming words of Pope Francis on the World Day of Prayers for Vocations: Vocation arises in this way, thanks to the art of the divine Sculptor who uses his 'hands' to make us go forth from ourselves and become the masterpiece that we are called to be. The word of God, which frees us from self-absorption, is especially able to purify, enlighten and recreate us. So let us listen to that word, in order to become ever more open to the vocation that God entrusts to us! And let us learn to listen also to our brothers and sisters in the faith, for their advice and example may help disclose the plan of God, who shows us ever new paths to pursue."

As Christians, we do not only receive a vocation individually; we are also called together. We are like the tiles of a mosaic. Each is lovely in itself, but only when they are put together do they form a picture. Each of us shines like a star in the heart of God and in the firmament of the universe. At the same time, though, we are called to form constellations that can guide and light up the path of humanity, beginning with the places in which we live. This is the mystery of the Church: a celebration of differences, a sign and instrument of all that humanity is called to be.

For this reason, the Church must become increasingly synodal: capable of walking together, united in harmonious diversity, where everyone can actively participate and where everyone has something to contribute. . . In every vocation we are met by the gaze of God, who calls us. Vocation, like holiness, is not an extraordinary experience reserved for a few. Just as there is a 'holiness of the saints next door,' so too there is a vocation for everyone, for God's gaze and call is directed to every person."

A special thank you to the chairs of Sacred Heart's Parish Supper, and the many volunteers who contributed their time and efforts. As with all gatherings, profits is secondary to the grace of community, Christian hospitality, and the sharing of our time and presence—a Christian endeavor. Such is witnessed and present at our funeral luncheons whether at St. Malachy, St. John church or Sacred Heart: a sincere Christian hospitality through the efforts of individuals offering their time and faith as hosts to parishioners and visitors alike. Thank you for sharing your time and faith.

In response to the first line of our gospel passage—"Some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings"—the words of Ann Frank gives us pause: "Human greatness does not lie in wealth or power, but in character and goodness. People are just people, and all people have faults and shortcomings, but all of us are born with a basic goodness."

God Bless, Fr. Tim

For our Veterans: "The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here." (Abraham Lincoln)

Parent's Day Out

Hey, mom & dad, mark your calendars for Saturday, Dec. 3rd as we are hosting a Parents Day Out event for all Boone County Catholic parents. This is a free event for children of all ages. Register your kids by clicking here. <https://forms.gle/KK4RBppnHqUw2pkW6>

Prayer Partners Needed

Please contact Megan Ulrich if you would like to be matched with one of our second graders who will be receiving First Reconciliation & First Communion this year. All you have to do is pray for them! dre@shboone.com (515)432-1971.

Sacred Heart Youth Choir Nov. 20th

All kids 6th grade and older are invited to sing in our youth choir at Mass on Sunday, November 20th. Please arrive at 9am for a quick practice in the parish hall conference room. Contact Monica Pearson with questions 515-432-1971.

Sacred Heart Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus would like to thank everyone who attended the Knights of Columbus Memorial Mass on Sunday November 13 at the 10 am Mass. This was a special Mass to celebrate the life of the Knights of Columbus who have passed away in the last year especially Tom Rose.

Christmas Help

Could your family use some extra help this year? Do you know a family who may have a need? If so, please email Deb at the Parish Offices at development@shboone.com. We will provide full confidentiality with this information.

St Malachy Holy Hour

Next Ascension Parish Holy Hour: Sunday, November 13, 4:45-5:45 pm at St. Malachy's. Adoration, Rosary, Evening Prayer. All are welcome. Contact Deacon David La Mar: deacondavidlamar@gmail.com

Fall Food Drive

Calling all Boone County Catholics! This November we will once again be holding a county-wide food collection throughout the entire month. Please bring non-perishable food items and place them in the baskets located near the church exits at all three of our church locations. The items donated at each location will stay within those communities to help those in need. Ogden parishioners can leave their donations in the church entrance. Thank you in advance for supporting those in need this holiday season.

Parish Pork Loin Dinner On Sunday, Nov. 13th

We will be serving a pork loin dinner (catered by Lidderdale Country Store) at Sacred Heart in Boone. Dinner will be served from 11 - 1 pm and costs $10 for adults & $5 for kids (11 & under). There will be a basket silent auction. Bids will be accepted until 1 pm. You do not need to be present to win.

Wreath Across America

This Christmas we will be placing wreaths at the headstones of our Military Veterans buried at Sacred Heart Cemetery and at the Ogden Cemetery. Last year we placed over 300 wreaths to honor these men and women. If you would like to sponsor a wreath the cost is $15. You will find envelopes on the table in the lower Narthex marked Wreaths Across America. If you would like one for Ogden Cemetery please mark Ogden on the envelope. Wreaths will be placed at the cemetery on Dec. 17th following a short program and a blessing of the wreaths.

Fall Harvest Feast at St. Malachy's

The religious ed & parish family is invited to join in a soup supper on, November 16 from 5:30-6:30 pm in Hansen Hall. Please follow the sign up link on the St. Malachy RE section of the parish website to sign up to bring something if you are able. All are welcome!

(4 mile radius of Madrid or 795 calling area. Thank you so much for all of the generosity you all have shared.

Thanksgiving Mass Times

November 23 - Noon at Sacred Heart and 5:30 pm at St. Malachy. November 24 - 8:00 am at Sacred Heart and 9:15 am at St. John.

Sacred Heart School

During our All Saints Day Mass

Fr. Tim venerated statues and windows of the Saints we have in the church with incense, as a way of remembering their good works. Before we ended Mass, Fr. Tim also blessed all of us as we are part of the Communion of Saints on Earth because we all have the potential to become Saints in heaven. On Thursday, we held a Prayer Service for All Souls Day. Families were able to submit names of people they loved who have passed away. Those names were read aloud as a part of our service.

Prayer Buddies

met after our All Saints Day Mass to create Gratitude Journals for the month of November. Students will take time during the month of November to record things they are grateful for in their lives. We also took some time to make cards for our friends at Westhaven and Eastern Star.
