A Warm & Welcoming Family of Catholic Faith

Fourth Sunday of Lent

For God so loved the world that he gave his only son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

-John 3:14

JOY

For most of the culture today, it appears that joy is elusive.

Turning to entertainment, impurity, drugs, sports, relationships, shopping, or whatever else – all in the hope of finding deep soul satisfaction.

Perhaps it is the confusion that joy is an emotion – a desire to find continual happiness – and thus always on the search for the next emotional high.

But the only way we are going to experience joy is when we realize the source of it is not in circumstances, situations, or emotions. The source of joy is God Himself. He is the fullness of joy.

Psalm 16:11 tells us “You [God] make known to me the path of life; in Your presence there is fullness of joy; at Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.”

We must remember that the fullness of joy is found in the presence of God ... and we won't find it anywhere else.

Paul tells us in Galatians that joy is a fruit of the Spirit (5:22). Joy is not something we produce or whip up – joy is something that comes as a natural outflow of having the Spirit of God residing within us. When we are IN Christ and He is IN us, we find the fruit of His Spirit being produced within us.

Regardless of circumstance, situation, or trial – we can have joy within our lives because we set our gaze on Christ and declare our trust in Him, no matter what we face. It was from a prison cell that Paul commands us to “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice!” (Philippians 4:4).

Again, joy is not about emotions, feelings, circumstances, or trials – it is about a steadfast trust in our God amidst the difficulties.

FAITH FORMATION CORNER

REJOICE ALWAYS

Always be glad because of the Lord! I will say it again: Be glad. Always be gentle with others. The Lord will soon be here.

Don't worry about anything, but pray about everything. With thankful hearts offer up your prayers and requests to God. Then, because you belong to Christ Jesus, God will bless you with peace that no one can completely understand. And this peace will control the way you think and feel. Finally, my friends, keep your minds on whatever is true, pure, right, holy, friendly, and proper. Don't ever stop thinking about what is truly worthwhile and worthy of praise. You know the teachings I gave you, and you know what you heard me say and saw me do. So follow my example. And God, who gives peace, will be with you.

(Philippians 4.4-9)

The Apostle Paul knew plenty about hardship (beatings, imprisonment, riots, shipwrecks) yet he calls us to be people who rejoice and celebrate 'always'. How? By not worrying and by not being anxious. How? By bringing all our circumstances to God in prayer. Jesus also gives similar advice in Matthew 6.25. Paul doesn't stop with prayer and trust in God, but goes on to encourage us to set our mind on good things. This is the way to joy – a pervasive sense of well-being.

Are you worried and anxious today? Can you release these things to God in prayer and then ask him to help you set your mind on him and give you peace?
