A Warm & Welcoming Family of Catholic Faith

PENTECOST

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.

They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Acts 2:1-4

SUNDAY

The Holy Spirit in the Daily Lives of Christians

The Spirit is that Paraclete (a Greek word that is translated as Counselor, Comforter, Helper, Encourager, or Enabler), Who quietly works in us and through us every day behind the scenes in the basic activities of our lives and the lives of the people around us. He is there in all his fullness wherever people worship and pray in the name of Jesus. When we believe and trust in Jesus we have that Faith through the Holy Spirit's work in us, filling us with Himself and His Gifts. The Holy Spirit leads us to turn away from our sinfulness and reassures us that we are still loved in spite of our sin, and that Jesus died on a cross just for those moments when we rebel against God's way. He confronts us and urges us to take a good look at ourselves and where we are heading, to make a U-turn, to leave the old behind and try something new. He's not afraid to challenge us and stretch us to go and do things for Christ – things we have never done before or ever imagined ourselves doing. He's the One Who says to us, "Stop being so self-focussed. Stop looking into yourself all the time and being depressed by what you see or fool yourself into thinking that what you see in yourself is enough to get you through! Look up, look away, look to Jesus and let Him turn your around; let Him take control!" "The feast of Pentecost celebrates the unseen, immeasurable presence of God in our lives and in our Church – the ruah that animates us to do the work of the Gospel of the Risen One, the ruah that makes God's will our will, the ruah of God living in us and transforming us so that we may bring His life and love to our broken world. God "breathes" His Spirit into our souls that we may live in His life and love; God ignites the "fire" of His Spirit within our hearts and minds that we may seek God in all things in order to realize the coming of His reign." (Connections).

FAITH FORMATION CORNER

Christians Should Be in the World but Not of It

BRIDGEPORT— “Christians should be in the world but not of it.” With the pandemic receding and many people returning to in-person Mass for the first time in a year, Bishop Frank J. Caggiano said we are living in a moment of unique challenge and opportunity to bring Christian love into the world.

The bishop said “after this long 15-month winter we have endured together,” we should act in a conscious and intentional way to bring the vibrant, authentic Christian witness of love back into the world.

In the spirit of re-opening and returning to the world, he will begin visiting parishes throughout the diocese to personally welcome people back to Church.

“We will be welcoming people by name back home to church, a reassuring, merciful, uniting presence in their lives and a golden opportunity in this new spring time to bring the message of Christ’s love to those reluctant to go back to church and to a waiting world,” he said.

The bishop said now is the time to contemplate what it means to be Christian because we are about to freely return to a crowded and busy world of friends, parties, sporting events and other activities.

“These are all good things,” he said, but we must not lose sight of the fact that this is an important juncture in which we must also bring our faith back into the world as witnesses of Christ’s love.

“Christians are very much in the world. We have become members of the world and that is a good thing provided that we do not become of the world. How do you and I become members of a diverse society and yet remain faithful to who we are, so they will know we are Christians?”

The Gospel of John has a simple answer for us, he said, but it’s not a matter of how we might dress or outwardly identify ourselves, “but the love we have in our hearts, and our courage to show it to our neighbors whether known or unknown in simple acts of kindness or heroic acts of courage.”

He challenged the faithful not to lose this opportunity, so that people “should know by our manner we are Christians in the very sum total of our lives. Kindness should not be random but always our way of life. Forgiveness is not the exception.”

RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE

The Holy Spirit lives within us!

How beautiful is the thought that the Holy Spirit lives within us! Saint Paul reminds of this fact when he asks, “Do you not know that you are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you?” (1 Corinth 3:16). It is the Holy Spirit who develops our intimacy with God. “God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts crying, ‘Abba! (Father!)’” (Gal 4:6). “God’s love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit Who has been given to us” (Romans 5:5). “No one can say, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ except by the Holy Spirit” (1 Corinthians 12:3). Moreover, we know that it is the Holy Spirit Who teaches us to pray (Romans 8:26). By the power of the Spirit, we also know the Lord Jesus through his Church. Pentecost Sunday is the birthday of the Church. It is the Holy Spirit who enlivens, enlightens, guides, and sanctifies the Church. The Psalm refrain for this Sunday’s Responsorial Psalm (Ps 104) says it so well: “Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.” www.vaticannews.va

This week we celebrate St. Philip Neri, the Apostle of Rome. To a Rome ravaged by war and wearied by the decadence of the Renaissance popes, St. Philip Neri came as an unlikely reformer.
