A Warm & Welcoming Family of Catholic Faith

In the days to come we'll all be asked "Are you ready for Christmas? We know what that means – Do you have your gifts? Have you made your gathering plans? Have you baked your goodies? And more. But we know what the question should mean deep within: Am I preparing to celebrate the birth of Christ, by deeper prayer, silence, reflection, reading, etc.? We contemplate the First Coming of Jesus as Savior and anticipate his promised Second Coming. Below are a few practical ways we've edited from federalist.com to observe the holiness of the season in our everyday lives:

Pray More!

Attend devotions, or weekday Mass, if possible, pray the rosary, Angelus, etc.

Add Sacred Music to Your Life

Get some CDs to play on the way to work, school, or elsewhere. Download Advent hymns to play quietly as you eat supper together. Have you heard the saying that "Repetition is the mother of all learning"? Maybe your family could switch your usual music choices to seasonal hymns and learn them together.

Attend Advent Services

Attend a special Advent service or an Advent event – such as our Women's Morning of Reflection on December 3rd and our creche blessing and Holy Stroll kickoff on December 2nd.

Read an Advent Series as a Family

Look in the Bulletin for Advent recommendations from FORMED, our Parish's free subscription to the best Catholic content.

Remember Your Neighbors

Deliver a dish to a sick or elderly neighbor or sign up to make a meal for Dorothy Day Hospitality House (contact Meg Reilly, mbreilly28@gmail.com). Reach out to those who may be alone in these holy days with a call, email, note or visit.

Encourage Thankfulness

With the material overemphasis for Christmas, spend Advent paring down toys and clothes and share with those who don't have enough. Pick an ornament off our Giving Tree and share your good fortune with those less fortunate.

Give Forgiveness a Try

Make a call, extend an olive branch. Let go of old hurts and resentments and offer them up for the glory of God and a fresh start this Christmas.

Wait to Start Christmas (and celebrate the 12 Days after).

Consider delaying the Christmas decorations until more toward the end of Advent. Decorating for Advent and waiting to pull out the Christmas items is a way to not rush Christmas or overlook Advent. It's certainly counter-cultural!

We pray that this Advent will be a time of true spiritual awakening and renewal for you and your family as you prepare to celebrate the birth of the Savior of the World!

GRATITUDE

Jesus said in reply, “Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” Luke 17:17-18

Happy Thanksgiving weekend! Though Thanksgiving Day is not specifically a Catholic holy day, it certainly goes hand in hand with our life of faith. Spiritually speaking, we all know that gratitude is central to the Gospel message. Thanksgiving Day presents us with the perfect opportunity to look at this particular aspect of our faith. We are called to be eternally and deeply grateful. How grateful to God are you?

Perhaps we all struggle in various ways with gratitude. It's fair to say that we will never be grateful enough until we are perfected in Heaven. But, for now, it's important to look at gratitude and to try to let it increase in our souls.

First, we will never be grateful unless we see clearly all that God has done for us. It's so easy in life to focus in on all the struggles we face and, as a result, to get down, depressed, frustrated and even angry at times. What's far more challenging is to look beyond the crosses and burdens we face each day to see the abundance of grace and mercy given to us by our Lord. Unless we see that mercy and grace, we will struggle greatly with authentic gratitude.

So during this Thanksgiving Day weekend, reflect upon this simple question: Do I see all God has done for me? Do I see His abundance of mercy alive in my life? The Gospel passage above reveals that Jesus healed ten lepers, but only one of the ten returned in gratitude. Are you like one of the nine who failed in gratitude? If so, you most likely struggle with seeing all the true and abundant blessings from God. If you can humbly admit you struggle with total gratitude, you will have taken the first step to seeing more clearly and the first step to fostering the deeper gratitude you ought to have. Being grateful means you see the truth clearly. Be open to that truth and God will change your life as He fills you with joy! catholic-daily-reflections.com

Job Details: Assisting with household chores such as bathing, dressing, cooking, laundry, driving, and light cleaning

FAITH FORMATION CORNERCome Lord Jesus, Come!

Advent looks to the future. It looks toward Christmas, but even more, toward the coming of Christ again. Because Advent is about the future, it is also about hope.

Today, when we think about the future, it can be very depressing: global warming, terrorism, war, economic uncertainty, sickness, old age, death.

But the message of Advent is one of hope -- salvation is at hand! Justice will triumph. Peace will be established. The downtrodden will be raised up. How our world need justice, peace & hope!

There are plenty of signs of hope in our world. Think of the millions of people who try to make the world a better place with a smile, a kind word, and a helping hand. Think of the countless tender mercies shown to each of us by our Lord, pushing us forward, to hope on.

Advent is about the coming of the Lord. Will we let Him into our hearts and hands so that we continue His work of compassion and love, of justice and peace? This can only happen if we are open to hope and the Holy Spirit.

The Scripture readings during Advent are full of hope. They are an antidote to the cynicism and despair so prevalent in our age. Reading the daily Scripture readings is a wonderful way to nourish your spirit at any time of the year, but especially during this season of joyful expectation.

ELEMENTARY

There will be no class on Nov 27th / 29th for Thanksgiving break.

Our next Parents Night for Elementary Parents will be Tuesday, Dec 6th at 7pm in the CHURCH. Join us for drinks & dessert, a prayerful reflection with our clergy, opportunity for confession, and a special advent gift! (There are no elementary classes Dec 4/6.)

SPEAKER SERIES

Witness To Faith

ROBERT ROYAL

DECEMBER 13

7:00 PM - SCHOOL HALL

Robert Royal, Monsignor Royal's brother, will tell of the almost numberless witnesses to the faith in recent years – the martyrs of the 20th and 21st centuries. His book "Catholic Martyrs of the 20th Century" was written to mark the Church's Jubilee 2000 celebration called for by Pope St. John Paul II to enter the third Christian millennium. Bob's publisher has asked him to revise and update his book as new martyrs and information about them have come to light. This will be an inspiring evening for all.
