Today we hear Jesus tell his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem, where he will suffer and be killed and that- guess what?- whoever comes after him must take up his cross and follow him. It must have been quite a shock. This is the first time Jesus told them this. We know what happened nearly two thousand years ago, but the challenge is new for each generation of disciples. Are we willing to take up our crosses? Will we follow? Let our sharing in the Eucharist strengthen us as we take up the cross and follow him.

ABOUT OUR FAITH

Q. Why is the Bible so hard to understand?

A. The Bible is a unique piece of literature, perhaps the most unique in the world. In fact, it is not just one piece. The word Bible derives from a word meaning, “library”. The Bible is a library of seventy-two books, to be exact, dating from ancient times, written and edited by any number of authors, some know, some unknown. It contains, as any library would, a vast array of literary forms and expressions. The Bible covers more than three thousand years of history. Reading and understanding the Bible, and living up to its demands, is indeed a formidable task, one that will probably take us all a lifetime to accomplish.

The first key to understanding the Bible is to note that this is not just the work of human authors; it is the Word of God. We acknowledge the human element of the Bible; the authors’ lived experience, the historical circumstances that form the background of the revelation. But we hold unequivocally that the truth and meaning of the Bible is the inspiration of God. The Catholic view is that God was able to reveal truth through the work of sacred writers.

The Scriptures are layered accounts. They begin with historical facts, which are followed by years of oral tradition, and then end with the author’s final version.

The best way to familiarize yourself with the Scriptures is to find a good Bible study program or group. This will acquaint you with the history of Israel, the times and culture in which the Bible was lived and written, the rich variety of literary forms in the Bible and much more. Enjoy your historical journey.

The greatest disease in the West today is not tuberculosis or leprosy; it is being unwanted, unloved and uncared for. We can cure physical diseases with medicine, but the only cure for loneliness, despair, and hopelessness is love. There are so many people in the world who are dying for a piece of bread, but there are many more people dying for a little love. The poverty in the West is a different kind of poverty— it is not only a poverty of loneliness but also a profound spirituality poverty. There’s a hunger for love, as there is a hunger for God.
~Saint Teresa of Calcutta~

Why There Should Be Silence In Church

The Church says so. Paragraph 45 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) states:

"Even before the celebration itself, it is commendable that silence be observed in the church, in the sacristy, in the vesting room, and in adjacent areas, so that all may dispose themselves to carry out the sacred action in a devout and fitting manner."

Talking in church is disrespectful of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. We are in the House of God, in the Presence of God Himself in the Tabernacle, not in a coffee shop. All our thoughts should be directed to Him.

It teaches disrespect. When children see adults talking, giggling, and laughing in church, especially before, during and after the Holy Mass, instead of in prayer or silent meditation it teaches them that it's OK, thus further eroding respect for the Blessed Sacrament in the next generation. And it's hypocritical for parents to "shush" their children while they themselves continue to talk.

It is the Lord's House, which Jesus taught was "a house of prayer" (Mt 21:13) and thus should be used according to its purpose. It is unholy to turn the Holy House of God into a man-made place of socializing or gossiping. The House of God, where dwells the Real Presence of God, must be treated with ongoing reverence. Talking in Church is a violation of justice against God, for whom we should have reverence.

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION FROM STORMS

God, our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of Our Diocese, pray for us.

Diocesan Prayer for God's Protection in the face of the Coronavirus Pandemic

Loving and gracious God, as in all times, we turn to You and implore Your protection and healing as we face a new threat to our health and peaceful well-being in the coronavirus pandemic before us. Help us to be united with each other and with all of our brothers and sisters around the world affected by this illness. We pray for all those in the medical field who are assisting patients and in the field of science who are discerning a cure, as well as for all government leaders. Remember those who, through this virus, have passed from this life as well as their families in their loss.

At this time of fragile uncertainty, we also humbly implore You to grant us prudence, hope, courage and patience. Dispel from us fear, panic and distrust which disrupt us in spirit to the detriment of our well-being.

We make our prayer in the name of your beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always cured those who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons.

Our Lady, Patroness of our Diocese, Queen of the Apostles and Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us.
Amen.

What Has to Be Added to Suffering?

By Fulton J. Sheen, "Our Grounds for Hope"

What is the extra ingredient in suffering- which when absent prompts a curse and when present becomes a joy?

You must unite your sufferings and sorrows with Christ and see your Calvary as coming from the Hand of God. Our Lord saw the Cup of His Passion as given to Him, not by Judas or Pilate or Caiphas or the people but by His Father: "Shall I not drink the Cup My Father Himself has appointed for Me?" Pain without Christ is suffering; pain with Christ is sacrifice.

It is hard for us to see in the accidents and trials of life, in sickness, in bereavement, in financial loss, in cancerous bodies and leprous limbs, any Divine Purpose. That is why Our Blessed Lord had to take suffering upon Himself, in order to show us that it is the Father's Cup.

*"It is the Lord that speaks...
I, the Fashioner of darkness,
The Creator of light,
I, the Maker of peace,
The Author of calamity.
I, the Lord, am the Doer of All this."
~Isaiah 45:7~*

Every tear, disappointment and grieved heart is a blank check. If we write our name on it, it is worthless. If we sign it with Christ's Name, it is infinite in its value. In prosperity, Christ gives you His gifts; in suffering with faith, He gives you Himself.
