There's a big difference between human hope and Christian Hope. Human hope thinks I can handle it myself. Christian Hope is based on Christ's promises,
His fidelity to us. With God,
all things are possible.

“... the Holy Spirit does not speak to a soul that is distracted and garrulous. He speaks by His quiet inspirations to a soul that is recollected, to a soul that knows how to keep silence. If silence were strictly observed, there would not be any grumbling, bitterness, slander, or gossip, and charity would not be tarnished. In a word, many wrongs would not be done. Silent lips are pure gold and bear witness to holiness within.”

Saint Faustina Kowalska of the Blessed Sacrament

Feelings of Insignificance

Philip Yancey

My wife, Janet, used to direct a church-related ministry to senior citizens in Chicago. Her days were full of adventure and people. Meanwhile I would stare at a computer screen in search of the perfect word. The daily regimen of a writer is not what you'd call glamorous. The vast difference in our lives used to bother me. I tended to feel that what I did was somehow less valuable, less worthy.

But I have come to see that the differences between us—in personality, outlook and daily routine—actually represent a great strength. Janet provides me with a new set of eyes into the world. My own faith is tested as I hear of her attempts to bring hope to the lives of those who have so little. On the other hand, I can offer Janet calmness, reflection and balance.

The New Testament uses the image of a human body to illustrate the Church. A body composed of many members with many gifts can accomplish far more than a one-celled organism. The same principle applies to marriage. I marvel at the difference in temperament that allows Janet to deal with situations that would probably drive me crazy. I have learned to see her work as a part of my own outreach. By serving her, and offering a listening ear, I can strengthen her and thus help assure that her vital, work will continue.

- ◆ List five differences between you and your spouse in personality, outlook and daily routine.
- ◆ How do these differences make your marriage more balanced and complete?

Scripture passages to reference and provide further insight into this weekend's devotion:

Saturday: Proverbs 25:11

Sunday: Romans 14:1; James 4:4-7

"Dear children! Today I call on you to read the Bible every day in your homes and let it be in a visible place so as always to encourage you to read it and to pray. Thank you for having responded to my call." October 18, 1984

"A nation always gets the kind of politicians it deserves. If a time ever comes when the religious Jews, Protestants and Catholics ever have to suffer under a totalitarian state, which would deny to them the right to worship God according to the light of their conscience, it will be because for years they thought it made no difference what kind of people represented them in Congress, and because they abandoned the spiritual in the realm of the temporal." ~Ven. Fulton Sheen, The Catholic Hour, 1947

Election Prayer for Life

O God, we acknowledge you today as Lord,
Not only of individuals, but of nations and governments.

We thank you for the privilege
Of being able to organize ourselves politically
And of knowing that political loyalty
Does not have to mean disloyalty to you.

We thank you for your law,
Which our Founding Fathers acknowledged
And recognized as higher than any human law.

We thank you for the opportunity that this election year puts before us,
To exercise our solemn duty not only to vote,
But to influence countless others to vote,
And to vote correctly.

Lord, we pray that your people may be awakened.
Let them realize that while politics is not their salvation,
Their response to you requires that they be politically active.

Awaken your people to know that they are not called to be a sect fleeing the world
But rather a community of faith renewing the world.

Awaken them that the same hands lifted up to you in prayer
Are the hands that pull the lever in the voting booth;
That the same eyes that read your Word
Are the eyes that read the names on the ballot,
And that they do not cease to be Christians
When they enter the voting booth.

Awaken your people to a commitment to justice
To the sanctity of marriage and the family,
To the dignity of each individual human life,
And to the truth that human rights begin when human lives begin,
And not one moment later.

Lord, we rejoice today
That we are citizens of your kingdom.

May that make us all the more committed
To being faithful citizens on earth.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thoughts on Aging

Remember when Jesus returned to His hometown of Nazareth? They rejected Him! They confined Him to their past experience of Who He was, just a boy growing up in their hometown. But for Christ, and for us, we are not determined by our past. God's mercy and love make us new. Change, new life, is always possible. Be open to that in yourself, and welcome and affirm it in others as well. God is alive—while we draw breath, He continues to bring us new life. <https://mycatholic.life/>

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend our diocese will have a second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). The CCHD has served diverse communities across the United States for more than 50 years by empowering local leaders to advocate for jobs and educational opportunities, for affordable health care and housing access, and for the rights of vulnerable communities.

Twenty-five percent of the donations collected next weekend, Nov. 12-13, will stay in our diocese and directly benefit poor and marginalized individuals. Working in partnership with Catholic Charities, the Diocese of Palm Beach makes the funds available to small, grassroots, local and neighborhood efforts that empower the poor as stakeholders and decision makers in order to change their communities. We know that 38 million people live in poverty across the United States. Our diocese is blessed with many small, dedicated, grass-roots efforts that work to improve the conditions of the more than 260,000 individuals in our diocese who live in poverty. Your support of this important collection empowers them and helps create meaningful change.

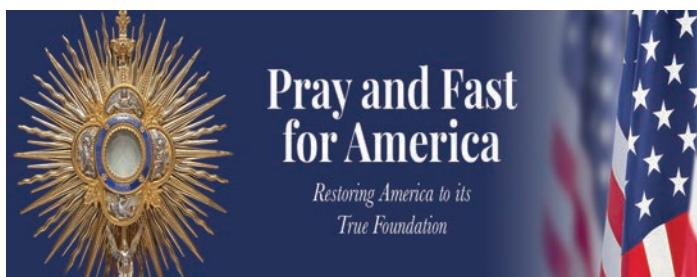

Your spiritual and financial support of the CCHD is an act of solidarity with our brothers and sisters in need. May God bless you with every grace and may our Blessed Mother always intercede for you.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

When we give thanks it is easy when we receive something we want, and much less so when we don't receive what we'd been hoping for. But St. Paul writes, "In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thess 5:18). We need to look for, and be grateful for, God's gifts even in difficult times or when we're dealing with something unexpected. Gratitude must be more than a feeling, so we can take steps to building grateful hearts. We can start by deliberately listing things for which we can be thankful, making us aware of God's Providence in our lives. And we can bring that gratitude into our prayer.
