Three Key Themes

This week our nation honors the dream of equal human rights articulated by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. On January 22, we also mark the anniversary of the most egregious violation of human rights through the Supreme Court decision Roe vs. Wade, which permitted the killing of children in the womb. During these days, Christians also observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. These three themes intersect powerfully. We pray that Christians will unite in effective service to all who are deprived of their rights, and bring about a Culture of Life, Justice, and Love. <https://www.priestsforlife.org>

Behold, the Lamb of God!

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." John 1:29

Saint John the Baptist speaks these words about Jesus at the moment that he sees Jesus coming to him in the distance. John knew, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, that Jesus was the "Lamb of God." He knew, by this interior revelation, that Jesus would become the Sacrificial Lamb Who would lay down His life for the salvation of the world. Perhaps John did not know the details of how this would happen, but he didn't need to. He was content knowing this sacred mission of the Messiah, and he was content knowing that Jesus was that Messiah.

Today, as we ponder John's words, we are able to see them more clearly. Jesus is the One Who gave His life on the Cross for the remission of sins. He is the One Whom we now receive sacramentally in Holy Communion as the "Lamb of God." It is His flesh and His blood, poured out for us, that we now consume with the deepest reverence and love.

At Mass, these are the final words spoken by the priest after the consecration and prior to Holy Communion. Every time we participate in the Holy Mass, we relive this moment in which John saw our Lord coming to Him.

As we begin this season of Ordinary Time, we are invited to come to know this Lamb of God more fully through His many teachings, miracles and actions done during His public ministry. In the Liturgy of the Word at every Mass, we are called to unpack these words of John, coming to understand the mystery of the life of Christ more fully. And through our participation in the reception of Holy Communion, we come to know Him Who is the Lamb of God in the most personal and intimate of ways, when we enter into holy union (Holy Communion) with Him.

Reflect, today, upon these very familiar words of Saint John the Baptist. As you do, begin by prayerfully pondering the knowledge that John might have had about Christ the first time he saw Him. Why did John say these words? How fully did he understand their meaning? Did he know that his words would be echoed throughout time? As you prayerfully ponder the interior knowledge that John might have had at that time, try also to reflect upon all that we now know about these holy words. Reflect especially upon the suffering and death of the Lamb of God and the way in which He has transmitted His Saving Sacrifice to us in Holy Communion. What a gift! What a mystery! What a joy! Behold the Lamb of God within your heart, mind and soul, and prayerfully seek to know Him more fully this day.

Glorious Lamb of God, You have come and taken away the sins of the world through the sacrifice of Your sacred life on the Cross. Please help me to understand Who You are and all that You have done for me, especially every time I come to behold You and receive You in Holy Communion. Jesus, I trust in You.

Disciples of Prayer

St. Andrew's Church has established a ministry of prayer,
"St. Andrew's Disciples of Prayer".

If you or a loved one, friend or neighbor, has a need of prayer or, if you have a generous spirit and can spend 5 to 10 minutes a day praying for special intentions, please contact:

Camille at qtcaccl@gmail.com

or

Bob at cobra12220@aol.com

to place someone on the prayer list, or if you are called by the Holy Spirit to pray.

Prayer begins by talking to God, but it ends by listening to Him. In the face of Absolute Truth, silence is the soul's language.
God does not love us because we are valuable.
We are valuable because God loves us. Fulton J.

The Forgiveness Process

Lewis Smedes

When you forgive someone, you do three basic things: First, you surrender your right to get even. If you have been wronged, getting even is the natural impulse, but you resist that impulse.

Second, you revise your caricature of the person who hurt you. When you've been deeply wounded by your spouse, you redraw your picture of that person, making him or her not primarily your husband or wife, but rather "the person who hurt me." so in forgiving, you need to reconstruct that image and see the spouse as a flawed, weak human being—not much different from yourself—who hurt you as much out of weakness as out of ill will.

And third, you revise your feelings. Gradually your feelings of rage are transformed into a desire for that person's blessing and for that person's change.

This is a gradual process, of course. God can forgive in a single swoosh, but we are finite, temporal creatures for whom almost everything takes time.

- ♦ What are some ways you quietly "get even" when your spouse hurts you?
- ♦ How can you handle the hurt more constructively?

772-291-0002 WE ARE HERE TO HELP

When coming to church, we should remember that "People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart" (1 Sam. 16:7). Thus, our first concern is always that we come before the Lord "with clean hands and pure heart" (Ps 24:4). And, if we have sinned, then with contrition and the purpose of amendment.

Nonetheless, we cannot forget that our clothes are important. They send out clear messages about us to others. It is near impossible to dictate proper attire for church. Yet, it can be said with clarity and certainty that the clothes we wear to church should not draw attention to us. Our clothes should always be modest and clean, expressing our respect for the honor and glory of God. God deserves our best!

Simplicity Is More Pleasing ...

I saw myself in some kind of a palace; and Jesus gave me His hand, sat me at His side, and said with kindness, My bride, you always please Me by your humility. The greatest misery does not stop Me from uniting Myself to a soul, but where there is pride, I am not there (Diary, 1563).

February 27, [1938]. Today, I went to confession to Father An. [Andrasz] I did as Jesus wanted. After confession, a surge of light filled my soul. Then I heard a voice: Because you are a child, you shall remain close to My Heart. Your simplicity is more pleasing to Me than your mortifications (Diary, 1617).

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your teaching to St. Faustina that You are always pleased by humility and that simplicity is more pleasing to You than mortifications.

The answer to deep anxiety is the deep adoration of God in front of the Blessed Sacrament.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament In the Chapel M,W,F 8:00am-12:00pm

Thank you St. Andrew Parishioners for coming to adore Jesus in The Holy Eucharist. It is wonderful that so many parishioners are taking advantage of having the opportunity to spend time with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

We are continually looking for people who would be willing to sign up for an hour or more per week. Our goal is to have four adorers on each hour. Extra coverage is especially helpful when someone is out of town, or unable to keep their committed hour during a given week. Each Holy Hour needs at least two adorers. Consider spending an hour a week with Jesus. All are welcome to worship.

If you have never prayed in front of the Blessed Sacrament, we invite you to experience this beautiful tradition.

Our Lord asked, "Could you not stay with me for even an hour?" Is He speaking to you? We can sit with our Lord, pray, praise or meditate on His divine presence. The results of this intimacy are immeasurable. Feel free to bring your Bible, devotional, rosary, or prayer journal. Or, just come as you are, and spend some quiet time with God. Please call the Parish Office 772-781-4415.
