The Sacrament of Reconciliation is one of the greatest gifts that Christ and his Church have offered us. It is a living testimony to His Divine Mercy. Yet it is often most difficult for us sinners to receive because we are afraid. Opening our hearts to Christ in Reconciliation forces us to come to terms with our guilt, shame, pride, and doubt. That's why, remembering that Christ sent his disciples out in pairs, we can help our brothers and sisters by accompanying them to the threshold of Reconciliation.

ACTIVE PARISHIONER STATUS

We receive many request for parishioners to be godparents or sponsors for the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation and to rightfully enjoy the number of services offered at St. Andrew. Part of the request is to be able to verify that a person is an "Active member" of St. Andrew. An "Active member":

- * Is properly registered on the parish rolls for at least 6 months
 - * Faithfully attends Mass on Sundays and Holy Days
 - * Participates in parish activities/ministries when possible
 - * Uses the envelope system for donations.
- These are the main factors that will be considered in making the determination.

What's it like being a priest these days

It is sometimes sitting in a folding chair listening to your school kids singing Christmas songs.
It is sometimes standing by a bedside of person drawing their last breath in this life.
It is sometimes being amazed that you are holding the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ at Mass.
It is sometimes feeling totally unworthy to do so.
It is sometimes being in the pulpit wondering if anyone is listening.
It is sometimes being in the pulpit being very aware that people are listening.
It is sometimes being the strong one in a room full of grieving people.
It is sometimes resting your head on your steering wheel trying to collect yourself after such moments.
It is sometimes the joy of a baptism.
It is sometimes the sorrow of a funeral.
It is sometimes eating a great meal at a parishioner's house.
It is sometimes getting to the end of the day trying to remember if you've eaten anything today.
It is sometimes the joy of helping the prodigal son come home.
It is sometimes the sorrow of watching a defiant prodigal son leave. It is sometimes the hours of prayer which keep you afloat.
It is sometimes the pain of scandal which drags you down.
It is sometimes getting up and knowing you are stepping on to a battlefield.
It is sometimes moments of incredible grace.
It is sometimes moments walking in the valley of death.
It is sometimes being respected. It is sometimes being scorned.
It is sometimes speaking words of comfort.
It is sometimes speaking unwelcome words calling people to conversion.
It is sometimes being praised for your service.
It is sometimes being called every name in the book for telling the truth. Lived correctly, it is always about being a servant in Persona Christi.
It is difficult but rewarding.
It is constant call to give witness.
It is willingly being the poster child for being countercultural.
It is about dying to self intentionally every day.
It is about making God's grace available as much as possible.
It is not for the thin-skinned or faint of heart.
It is not for the worldly and ambitious.
It is not a job or career.
It is a way of life.
I would have it no other way.

Daily Prayer

What is it that makes your soul beautiful? Prayer. What is it that keeps you from sin? Prayer. What is it that fills you with hope? Prayer. What is it that leads you on the road to holiness? Prayer. Prayer is the key to all things. Without prayer, each and every day, you are directionless in life and are left to your own wisdom and ability, which is a frightening state to find yourself in (See Diary #146).

Do you pray? Not just every so often, at Sunday Mass or before meals. But do you truly pray every day? Do you spend moments alone speaking to God from the depths of your heart and let Him speak back to you? Do you allow Him to initiate a conversation of love with you every day and throughout the day? Reflect, today, upon your habit of prayer. Reflect upon whether you can honestly say that your daily conversation with God is the most important conversation you have each day. Make this a priority, the number one priority, and all else will fall into place.

Lord, I know my prayer life is weak. I know I need to give more attention to my daily conversation with You. Help me to form a strong habit of prayer, each and every day, so that this life of prayer will become the guiding light of my life. Jesus, I trust in You. <https://divinemercy.life>
