Catholic Prayers for the Sick

Pastor's Corner.

The first reading on Palm Sunday, from Isaiah 50: 6-7, stated as follows; "I gave my back to those who beat me... My face I did not shield from buffets and spitting... knowing that I shall not be put to shame." It is an indication that Christ, despite his pain, did not run away in the midst of suffering. His vision was clear and he remained resolute until the end. Today, light has overcome darkness with Alleluia choruses. Yes, Alleluia! Christ Is Risen from the dead!

Thus, Easter Sunday offers us a new life. In other words, hope once shattered is renewed in a way that brings courage into a fearful and hopeless situation. Easter is, therefore, about hope in the midst of the despair and devastation of the agony in the garden, in Pilate's house, on the way to Calvary, on Calvary and in the tomb. Now the tomb is empty, He Is Risen! The celebration has begun! We are celebrating the fullness of the reality of the Risen Lord. With courage, the people on the way to Emmaus returned to Jerusalem to bring the good news of the Risen Christ to the disciples. Evangelization began and that is what Easter is all about.

By rising from the dead, Christ justified his words, "Destroy this temple and on the third day, I will raise it up." (John 2:19) Furthermore, St. Paul said, "If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins" (1 Corinthians 15:17). Christ has power over sin and death and beyond the grave. By conquering death, his followers can live in newness of life. The Resurrection of Christ is the foundation of our Christian faith. Easter is the feast of all feasts. Let us rejoice and be glad for this redemptive work of God in Christ.

Happy Easter! Father Theo
