PASTOR'S CORNER.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When I look at the history of the Church of the Most Holy Name of Jesus (Holy Name), I am always short of words for the enthusiastic spirit of our founding fathers and mothers. The people who crossed the Cumberland river on Christmas Eve in 1854, to make their intentions known to the late Bishop Miles, about having a church across the river in the area known as Edgefield (now East Nashville). Once this permission was granted they began gathering together as a body of Christ. The light they started still burns today.

We continue to consolidate on the baton handed over to us by our ancestors in faith, while sharing our faith within the community and beyond through our sacrificial giving of time, talent, and treasure. With the changing nature of Nashville and East Nashville, in particular, we will continue the work of evangelization with focus on our young men and women who will eventually continue sharing the faith after us. Our mission as a vibrant, welcoming community of faith has not changed. Our unification through liturgical participation and service to our neighbors also remains the same. We are grateful that, as a diverse community, we share who we are under the same roof and with the same cup. This is proof of the example of fellowship like the early Christians and I hope you and your family will join in this fellowship.

Meanwhile, my dear friends, in the next few weeks we will be hearing about our "Consolidating the Past, Sharing the Faith through Sacrificial Giving" program. This program reminds us of our history; the contributions of our fathers and mothers when this ground became a parish church. For the work of evangelization to continue and to fulfill our mission, I ask each of you to prayerfully consider how you can help the church with your time, talent, and treasure. Next Sunday you will be hearing from Deacon Bob while we launch this program on February 17 and 18. Together we can do better and spread the gospel across East Nashville.

God bless, Fr. Theo

Throat Blessing. At the end of the Masses this weekend, Father Theo and Deacon Bob will bless throats for the feast of St. Blaise, which was February 3.

Mardi Gras Pancake Breakfast (February 11).

The hospitality committee is hosting a pancake breakfast next Sunday from 9-10:30am in the auditorium. This is a free meal, however, donations are welcome.

Ash Wednesday (February 14). Masses will be at 8am and 6pm. Please save the date.

Lenten Stations of the Cross. Every Friday during Lent, beginning February 16. A light, meatless dinner will be served each week, in the auditorium, beginning at 5:15pm. Stations will begin at 6pm.

Job Opening: Parish Secretary. Holy Name is now accepting resumes for the parish secretary staff position. For a job description, please visit our parish website. Resumes may be emailed to holynamechurchnashville@comcast.net or sent via USPS to 521 Woodland Street, Nashville, TN 37206.

Tennessee Register. In years past, February was annual renewal month for our diocesan newspaper. However, the diocese will soon "sunset" the paper as we have known it. NashvilleCatholic.org has been created for a better online experience. Print papers will still be made available. Currently the rate remains $29 per year, so you may continue to subscribe, just be aware that changes are coming. To sign-up online, <https://tennesseeregister.com/subscription-form/>
