Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles

First Reading: Acts 12:1-11
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 34
– The Lord delivered me from all my fears.
Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18
Gospel: Matthew 16: 13-19

Today is the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, the two great apostles. They are also known as the two pillars of the Church. Both died in Rome on different years.

Peter and Paul represent two complementary dimensions of the Church. Peter was an apostle to the Jews and Paul was an apostle to the gentiles or non-Jews. Peter maintains the traditions while Paul represents the drive to adapt, expand and amplify the Gospel. Peter is the centripetal force pulling the Church to the center while Paul is the centrifugal force that reaches to embrace different cultures and peoples with his missionary journeys.

Both Peter and Paul had sinful pasts. It is well known that Peter denied Jesus three times on that fateful night when Jesus was brought to trial before Pilate. Paul, as we find in his letter to the Galatians (Gal 1:13), “went to extremes in persecuting the church of God and tried to destroy it.”

The Church needs both Peter and Paul. Without the centering of Peter, the Church would have been a loose collection of fragmented sects and without the expansive force of Paul, the Church would have stayed as a Jewish group in Jerusalem.

The same is true for us and much truer in regard to our spiritual lives. Peter, through the many bishops of Rome who succeeded him and his present successor, Pope Leo XIV, holds us to the center of Christianity, not only in terms of leadership in the Church but also to the core of our faith which is our relationship with Christ. With Paul, who was a missionary to the gentiles, we gather new insights and understandings of discipleship and of our Lord and even develop new spiritual practices as the seasons of our lives change. Because of Peter and Paul, our ancient faith is not dormant but a living faith.

In today’s Gospel passage, Peter professes his faith in Jesus as “the Christ, the Son of the living God,” while others say that he is John the Baptist, Elijah, Jeremiah or one of the prophets. And Jesus even pointed out that this profession of faith by Peter was not revealed through flesh and blood but a revelation from the heavenly Father.

Jesus speaks of building his Church upon Peter, the Rock, and “the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it”. The Church that Jesus built on Peter is a community of believing disciples built on an unshakeable foundation. This means that it is the Lord who keeps on building his Church. While Peter is the foundation stone, Christ’s followers are the building stones who are in themselves the living stones of the Church.

All of us, Christ’s followers, are the living and building stones of the Church and are mere instruments of Christ in His mission to build up His Church. It is Christ who is the Builder of the Church, and we are just his servants and instruments. Thus, the need to be joined to Him as branches to the vine lest our efforts to be instruments of Christ would be in vain. Furthermore, we are called to open ourselves to God’s grace and this entails using our God-given gifts in order to build up the Christian communities.

Then, when all is said and done, we can say with St. Paul, “The time of my dissolution is near. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” ❖

Cast into the Deep Do You Love Me Nelle Orsburn

As we celebrate the solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, I am reminded of the scene in the gospels when Jesus and Peter were engaged in a compelling and almost uncomfortable dialogue. For Jesus asked Simon Peter three times Simon, son of John, do you love me? And while Peter answered in the affirmative, Jesus persisted in asking a second and a third time. “Peter was distressed that he had said to him a third time” Was Peter reminded that he had denied Jesus three times? With each “yes” that Peter gave, Jesus successively replied, “Feed my lambs”, “Tend my sheep.” and “Feed my sheep.” (cf John 21:15-17)

This passage suggests multiple themes for reflection: Forgiveness and restoration — it was an opportunity for Peter to declare his love three times after having denied Jesus three times; Apostolic leadership — Not only did Jesus accept his declaration, he also commissioned Peter to take care of his flock and feed them; A call to love — And once we have openly said our yes, then God manifests himself and his will which is to love our neighbor. It is interesting to note that Jesus used the words feed and tend, as well as starting the triad with the lamb (young sheep) and going on to sheep.

Recently, at a Bible Study session, I learned that in the original Greek version of John’s gospel, two different words for love were used, “agape” and “phileo.” Agape refers to an unconditional, selfless love while phileo refers to friendship or brotherly love. Thus in the original Greek, the conversation went like this:

Jesus: Peter, do you love [agape] me? Peter: Yes, Lord I love [phileo] you

Jesus: Peter, do you love [agape] me? Peter: Yes, Lord I love [phileo] you

Jesus: Peter, do you love [phileo] me? Peter: Yes, Lord I love [phileo] you Therefore, it appears that in Jesus’ first two questions, he is expecting a kind of love from Peter that is self-sacrificing and unconditional. However, Peter responds and is only able to give a brotherly sort of love, a friendship. By the third question, Jesus asks instead, Peter do you love [phileo] me?

Ideally, our love should be selfless, just as God loves us, sending his beloved Son to take the form of man to bring us back to him; just as Jesus loves us, giving up his life for our salvation. However Peter was not there yet and could only offer the love of a brother, a friend. When Jesus, the third time around, asks for a brotherly love [phileo], I understood that Jesus meets us where we are. Even in our struggles and failures, God does not abandon us. He is there to see us through, to take our hand and lead us as we start again.

This fills us with hope.

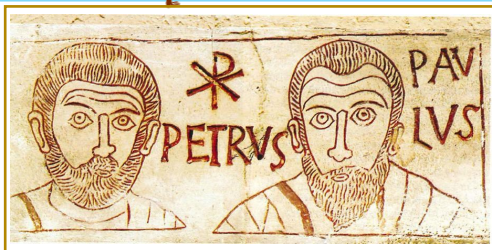

In 2 Corinthians, St. Paul recounted his conversation with God, begging him, ‘... that [the thorn in his flesh] might leave me,’ But then he heard God say, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” (2 Corinthians 12:15). So, if like Peter, we can only say I love [phileo] you, this is the grace of God for that moment.

As we celebrate Saints Peter and Paul today, let us pray for the grace to love in a selfless and unconditional way, ready to die for our neighbor just as Christ died for us. But if we’re not there yet, let us continue to love in the measure of God’s grace for the moment. For His grace is enough for us.❖

From Scripture to life...

Your turn. Who do YOU say he is? How important is that?

Summer and water safety at home

While parents are often hyper vigilant around pools and lakes, drowning can happen at home in an instant, especially with very young children. This summer, watch children around water at home, including buckets, containers, and kiddie pools. Children can drown in as little as an inch of water, so constant supervision is necessary. It's also important to empty water containers as soon as play is done. For more tips about home water safety, visit <https://www.safekids.org/watersafety>.

Archbishop Gomez comments on the protests around Los Angeles

"I am troubled by today's immigration enforcement raids in Los Angeles, and I am praying for our community," Archbishop Gomez said in a statement. "I pray tonight that everyone involved will exercise restraint and calm. "We all agree that we don't want undocumented immigrants who are known terrorists or violent criminals in our communities. But there is no need for the government to carry out enforcement actions in a way that provokes fear and anxiety among ordinary, hard-working immigrants and their families."

A Gifts of the Heart

As of June 2 this year, our pledged amount is a skosh over the half way point to our goal in Together in Mission—$81 to be exact. We are half-way through our 2025 campaign and we need your help. If you have not pledged, PLEASE do so now, and then, of course, fulfill your pledge!

It is important to remember that Together in Mission is a fund set up to give financial assistance to the parishes and schools in need, including our own Lady of Lourdes school. All funds collected are to be used only for these parishes and schools in need. Truly make your gift a Gifts of the Heart!

I Want to Make a Gift of the Heart!

Desde el informe del 2 al 16 de junio, hemos logrado mejoras significativas en nuestra campaña Juntos en Misión 2025, ¡pero aún necesitamos tu ayuda! Has contribuido con 2/3 del objetivo, ¡pero necesitamos que contribuyas con el 33% restante! Si aún no lo has hecho, ¡hazlo ahora y, por supuesto, cumple con tu promesa!

Es importante recordar que Juntos en Misión es un fondo creado para brindar asistencia financiera a las parroquias y escuelas necesitadas, incluyendo nuestra escuela Señora de Lourdes. Todos los fondos recaudados se utilizarán exclusivamente para estas parroquias y escuelas necesitadas. ¡Que su donación sea una verdadera Donación del Corazón!

Verano y seguridad en el agua en casa

Aunque los padres a menudo estén hipervigilantes cerca de piscinas y lagos, un ahogamiento puede ocurrir en casa en un instante, sobre todo con niños muy pequeños. Este verano, vigile a los niños cuando estén cerca del agua en casa, incluyendo cubos, recipientes y piscinas infantiles. Los niños pueden ahogarse en tan sólo un centímetro de agua y por esta razón es importante la supervisión constante. También es importante vaciar los recipientes de agua en cuanto terminen de jugar. Para más consejos sobre la seguridad en el agua en el hogar, visite <https://www.safekids.org/checklist/lista-de-control-de-la-seguridad-en-la-piscina>

Solemnidad de San Pedro y San Pablo, ApóstolesPrimera Lectura: Hechos 12, 1-11*Salmo Responsorial: Salmo 34– El Señor me libró de todas mis ansias.Segunda Lectura: 2 Timoteo 4, 6-8. 17-18*Evangelio: Mateo 16, 13-19

Hoy se celebra la solemnidad de los santos Pedro y Pablo, los dos grandes apóstoles. También se les conoce como los dos pilares de la Iglesia. Ambos fallecieron en Roma en años diferentes.

Pedro y Pablo representan dos dimensiones complementarias de la Iglesia. Pedro fue apóstol de los judíos y Pablo de los gentiles o no judíos. Pedro mantiene las tradiciones, mientras que Pablo representa el impulso para adaptar, expandir y amplificar el Evangelio. Pedro es la fuerza centrípeta que impulsa a la Iglesia hacia el centro, mientras que Pablo es la fuerza centrífuga que abarca diferentes culturas y pueblos con sus viajes misioneros.

Tanto Pedro como Pablo tuvieron un pasado pecaminoso. Todos sabemos que Pedro negó a Jesús tres veces en aquella fatídica noche en que Jesús fue llevado a juicio ante Pilato. Pablo, como leemos en su carta a los Gálatas (Gal 1,13), “llegó a los extremos persiguiendo a la iglesia de Dios y tratando de destruirla”.

La Iglesia necesita tanto a Pedro como a Pablo. Sin el liderazgo de Pedro, la Iglesia habría sido un conjunto disperso de sectas fragmentadas, y sin la fuerza expansiva de Pablo, la Iglesia se habría mantenido como un grupo judío en Jerusalén.

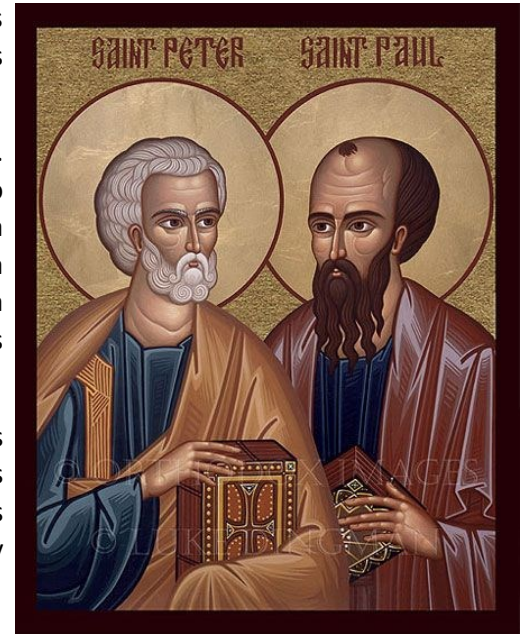

Lo mismo es cierto para nosotros, y mucho más cierto en lo que respecta a nuestra vida espiritual. Pedro, a través de los numerosos obispos de Roma que lo sucedieron y de su actual sucesor, el papa León XIV, nos mantiene en el centro del cristianismo, no solo en términos de liderazgo en la Iglesia, sino también en la esencia de nuestra fe, que es nuestra relación con Cristo. Con Pablo, quien fue misionero entre los gentiles, adquirimos nuevas perspectivas y entendimientos del discipulado y de nuestro Señor, e incluso desarrollamos nuevas prácticas espirituales a medida que cambian las etapas de nuestra vida. Gracias a Pedro y Pablo, nuestra antigua fe no es una fe inactiva, sino viva.

En el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy, Pedro profesa su fe en Jesús como “el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios vivo”, mientras que otros dicen que es Juan el Bautista, Elías, Jeremías o uno de los profetas. Jesús incluso señaló que esta profesión de fe de Pedro no fue revelada mediante carne y sangre, sino una revelación del Padre celestial.

Jesús habla de edificar su Iglesia sobre Pedro, la Roca, y “los poderes del infierno no prevalecerán sobre ella”. La Iglesia que Jesús edificó sobre Pedro es una comunidad de discípulos creyentes, cimentada sobre un fundamento inquebrantable. Esto significa que es el Señor quien sigue edificando su Iglesia. Si bien Pedro es la piedra fundamental, los seguidores de Cristo son las piedras de edificación, siendo en sí mismos las piedras vivas de la Iglesia.

Todos nosotros, los seguidores de Cristo, somos las piedras vivas y edificadoras de la Iglesia, y meros instrumentos de Cristo en su misión de edificarla. Es Cristo quien edifica la Iglesia, y nosotros somos solo sus siervos e instrumentos. De ahí la necesidad de unirnos a Él como sarmientos a la vid, para que nuestros esfuerzos por ser instrumentos de Cristo no sean en vano. Además, estamos llamados a abrirnos a la gracia de Dios, lo que implica usar los dones que Dios nos ha dado para edificar las comunidades cristianas.

Entonces, cuando todo esté dicho y hecho, podremos decir con San Pablo: “Se acerca el momento de mi partida. He luchado bien en el combate, he corrido hasta la meta, he perseverado en la fe”.❖

Pescando en lo Profundo

¿Me Amas?

Nelle Orsburn

Al celebrar la solemnidad de los santos Pedro y Pablo, recuerdo la escena de los evangelios en la que Jesús y Pedro entablaron un diálogo apasionante y casi incómodo. Jesús le preguntó tres veces a Simón Pedro: “Simón, hijo de Juan, ¿me amas?”. Y aunque Pedro respondió afirmativamente, Jesús insistió en preguntar una segunda y una tercera vez. “Pedro se entristeció de que le preguntara por tercera vez”. ¿Recordó Pedro que había negado a Jesús tres veces? A cada “sí” que Pedro daba, Jesús respondía sucesivamente: “Apacienta mis corderos”, “Apacienta mis ovejas” y “Apacienta mis ovejas” (cf. Juan 21,15-17).

Este pasaje sugiere múltiples temas de reflexión: Perdón y restauración – Pedro tuvo la oportunidad de declarar su amor tres veces después de haber negado a Jesús tres veces;

Liderazgo apostólico – Jesús no solo aceptó su declaración, sino que también le encargó cuidar de su rebaño y alimentarlo; Un llamado al amor – Una vez que hemos dicho abiertamente nuestro sí, Dios se manifiesta y manifiesta su voluntad de amar al prójimo. Es interesante notar que Jesús usó las palabras apacienta y cuidar, además de comenzar la tríada con el cordero (oveja joven) y continuar con las ovejas.

Recientemente, en una sesión de estudio bíblico, aprendí que en la versión griega original del Evangelio de Juan se usaban dos palabras diferentes para amor: “ágape” y “phileo”. Ágape se refiere a un amor incondicional y desinteresado, mientras que phileo se refiere a la amistad o el amor fraternal. Por lo tanto, en el griego original, la conversación fue así:

Jesús: Pedro, ¿me amas [ágape]? Pedro: Sí, Señor, te amo [phileo]

Jesús: Pedro, ¿me amas [ágape]? Pedro: Sí, Señor, te amo [phileo]

Jesús: Pedro, ¿me amas [phileo]? Pedro: Sí, Señor, te amo [phileo]

Por lo tanto, parece que, en las dos primeras preguntas de Jesús, esperaba de Pedro un amor abnegado e incondicional. Sin embargo, Pedro responde y solo puede ofrecer un amor fraternal, una amistad. En la tercera pregunta, Jesús pregunta: Pedro, ¿me amas [phileo]?

Idealmente, nuestro amor debería ser desinteresado, como Dios nos ama, enviando a su Hijo amado a tomar la forma humana para traernos de vuelta a él; como Jesús nos ama, entregando su vida por nuestra salvación. Sin embargo, Pedro aún no estaba allí y solo podía ofrecer el amor de un hermano, un amigo. Cuando Jesús, por tercera vez, me pide un amor fraternal [phileo], comprendí que Jesús nos encuentra donde estamos. Incluso en nuestras luchas y fracasos, Dios no nos abandona. Él está ahí para ayudarnos, para tomarnos de la mano y guiarnos en nuestro nuevo comienzo.

Esto nos llena de esperanza.

En 2 Corintios, San Pablo relató su conversación con Dios, rogándole: “...que me librara de [la espina en su carne]”. Pero entonces escuchó a Dios decir: “Te basta mi gracia, pues mi poder se perfecciona en la debilidad” (2 Corintios 12:15). Así que, si como Pedro, solo podemos decir “te amo [phileo]”, esta es la gracia de Dios para ese momento.

Al celebrar hoy a los santos Pedro y Pablo, oremos por la gracia de amar de forma desinteresada e incondicional, dispuestos a morir por el prójimo como Cristo murió por nosotros. Pero si aún no hemos llegado a ese punto, sigamos amando en la medida de la gracia de Dios por el momento. Porque su gracia nos basta. Pero si aún no hemos llegado a ese punto, sigamos amando en la medida de la gracia de Dios por el momento. Porque su gracia nos basta. ❖

STATEMENT ON IMMIGRATION ISSUES BY ARCHBISHOP JOSÉ H. GOMEZ

Statements and actions from the new administration in Washington have caused fear in our parishes, schools, and communities. That is not good for anybody. I pray that our leaders will proceed with restraint and compassion, with respect for the law, and with respect for the rights and dignity of all concerned.

No one wants violent criminals living in our communities. But any enforcement actions should be prudent, and should be matched by immediate action in Congress to fix our immigration system, which has been broken for decades now.

"For Catholics, immigration is not a political issue. It is a matter of our deeply held religious beliefs."

For Catholics, immigration is not a political issue. It is a matter of our deeply held religious beliefs. Jesus Christ commanded us to love God as our Father and to love our brothers and sisters, especially the most vulnerable, and regardless of what country they came from or how they got here. Our love for Jesus compels us to continue our works of love and service in our parishes, schools, and other ministries.

The Catholic Church has long been committed to working with our national leaders for immigration reform that is just and humane. My commitment also continues, and we look forward to working with the new administration and Congress.

In this current moment of uncertainty, the U.S. bishops have provided good practical guidance. We have gathered this guidance and other resources on our website. Please visit: lacatholics.org/immigration/.

May Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of Jesus and Mother of all the peoples of the Americas, keep us close to her Son in this moment. And may she help us to work together as neighbors, in a spirit of unity, to truly become one nation under God.

DECLARACIÓN SOBRE TEMAS DE INMIGRACIÓN

POR ARZOBISPO JOSÉ H. GÓMEZ

Las declaraciones y acciones de la nueva administración en Washington han causado miedo en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y comunidades. Eso no es bueno para nadie. Rezo para que nuestros líderes procedan con moderación y compasión, con respeto por la ley y con respeto por los derechos y la dignidad de todos los involucrados.

Nadie quiere criminales violentos viviendo en nuestras comunidades. Pero cualquier acción coercitiva debe ser prudente y debe ir acompañada de una acción inmediata en el Congreso para arreglar nuestro sistema de inmigración, que ya no funciona desde hace décadas.

Para los católicos, la inmigración no es una cuestión política. Es una cuestión de nuestras creencias religiosas profundamente arraigadas. Jesucristo nos ordenó amar a Dios como nuestro Padre y amar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas, especialmente a los más vulnerables, sin importar de qué país vengan o cómo llegaron aquí. Nuestro amor por Jesús nos obliga a continuar nuestras obras de amor y servicio en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y otros ministerios.

La Iglesia Católica ha estado comprometida durante mucho tiempo a trabajar con nuestros líderes nacionales para una reforma migratoria que sea justa y humana. Mi compromiso también continúa y esperamos trabajar con la nueva administración y el Congreso.

En este momento actual de incertidumbre, los obispos estadounidenses han brindado una buena orientación práctica. Hemos recopilado esta guía y otros recursos en nuestro sitio web. Visite: lacatholics.org/immigration/.

Que la Virgen de Guadalupe, Madre de Jesús y Madre de todos los pueblos de América, nos mantenga cerca de su Hijo en este momento. Y que ella nos ayude a trabajar juntos como vecinos, en un espíritu de unidad, para convertirnos verdaderamente en una nación bajo Dios.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity
enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever. Amen.

What is a Pilgrimage In the Words of Pope Francis

"Making a Pilgrimage to shrines is one of the most eloquent expressions of the faith of God's people... It would be a mistake to think that those who go on a pilgrimage live a spirituality that is not personal but rather of the masses. The reality is that the pilgrim carries within him his own history and faith and the lights and shadows of his own life. Each person carries within his or her heart a special wish and a particular prayer. Those who enter the shrine immediately feel they are at home, welcomed, understood, and supported. Gazing upon the Crucifix or a image of Our Lady, a prayer is offered with tears in their eyes, brimming with faith. A shrine is truly a privileged space to meet the Lord and physically touch his mercy. To confess in a shrine is to have the experience of physically touching the mercy of God " ~ To those engaged in Pilgrimage Work, January 21, 2016

The Christian Pilgrimage is characterized by three signs:

1. "silence [which] allows one to listen, to listen with the heart, and in this way to find, while one walks, through the effort, the answers that the heart is looking for, because the heart asks questions. Indeed, God speaks in silence, like a gentle breeze..."
2. "the Gospel – always have the Gospel in your pocket ...The pilgrimage is made by re-reading the journey that Jesus took, up to the extreme gift of Self. ... when one reads the Gospel, there is someone beside us. It is the Holy Spirit. It is He who makes us understand well what the Gospel does. "
3. "Matthew 25 Protocol": "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Mt 25:40)...doing good, to people who also smaller, the most disadvantaged people. Always do good. Along the way, be attentive to others, especially those who struggle the most, who have fallen, who are in need..." To the Italian pilgrims of the The Way of St James, December 19, 2024.

Every month there are multiple events in and around the Vatican to celebrate the Jubilee. Here are the major events for the Local Pilgrimage Sites

Throughout this Holy Year, a plenary Indulgence in the usual form of the Church will be granted to all the faithful who are truly repentant and detached from any sin and confess their sins sacramentally, receive Holy Communion, pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, and go on a pilgrimage visit to the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels or Mission Basilica San Buenaventura, or perform corporal or spiritual works of mercy.

What is a plenary indulgence?

God never ceases to offer us his mercy. When we sin, an unhealthy attachment to earthly things remains even after the guilt of sin is forgiven. Such attachments can be purified here on earth through an indulgence or in purgatory; this purification is known as the remission of temporal punishment due to sin (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1472).

During the Jubilee, a plenary indulgence - the complete remission of temporal punishment due to sin (CCC,1471) - in the usual form of the Church will be granted to all the faithful who are truly repentant and confess their sins, receive Holy Communion, pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, and perform one of the following:

1. a pilgrimage visit to the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels or Mission Basilica San Buenaventura to pray;
2. participation in a parish mission or study of the documents of the Second Vatican Council or the Catechism of the Catholic Church;
3. corporal or spiritual works of mercy;
4. penitential practices.

Peregrinos de la Esperanza

Recursos para el Jubileo 2025

Oración del Jubileo

Padre que estás en el cielo,
la fe que nos has donado en
tu Hijo Jesucristo, nuestro hermano, y la llama de caridad infundida en nuestros corazones por el Espíritu Santo, despierten en nosotros la bienaventurada esperanza en la venida de tu Reino.

Tu gracia nos transforme en dedicados cultivadores de las semillas del Evangelio que fermenten la humanidad y el cosmos, en espera confiada
de los cielos nuevos y de la tierra nueva, cuando vencidas las fuerzas del mal, se manifestará para siempre tu gloria.

La gracia del Jubileo reavive en nosotros, Peregrinos de Esperanza, el anhelo de los bienes celestiales
y derrame en el mundo entero la alegría y la paz
de nuestro Redentor.
A ti, Dios bendito eternamente, sea la alabanza y la gloria por los siglos. Amen.

¿Qué es una peregrinación? En palabras del Papa Francisco

Peregrinar a los santuarios es una de las expresiones más elocuentes de la fe del pueblo de Dios... Sería un error pensar que quienes peregrinan viven una espiritualidad no personal, sino de masas. La realidad es que el peregrino lleva en sí su propia historia y fe, así como las luces y sombras de su vida. Cada persona lleva en su corazón un deseo especial y una oración particular. Quienes entran al santuario se sienten inmediatamente como en casa, acogidos, comprendidos y apoyados. Al contemplar el Crucifijo o una imagen de Nuestra Señora, se ofrece una oración con lágrimas en los ojos. Un santuario es verdaderamente un espacio privilegiado para encontrar al Señor y tocar físicamente su misericordia. Confesarse en un santuario es tener la experiencia de tocar físicamente la misericordia de Dios, 21 de enero de 2016.

La peregrinación cristiana se caracteriza por tres signos:

1. "El silencio [que] permite escuchar, escuchar con el corazón, y así encontrar, mientras se camina, mediante el esfuerzo, las respuestas que el corazón busca, porque el corazón se pregunta. En efecto, Dios habla en silencio, como una suave brisa..."
2. "El Evangelio: ten siempre el Evangelio en el bolsillo... La peregrinación se realiza releyendo el camino de Jesús, hasta la entrega extrema de sí mismo... Cuando leemos el Evangelio, hay alguien a nuestro lado. Es el Espíritu Santo. Es Él quien nos hace comprender bien lo que hace el Evangelio."
3. "Protocolo Mateo 25": "Todo lo que hicieron con uno de estos hermanos míos más pequeños, conmigo lo hicieron" (Mt 25,40)...haciendo el bien, también a las personas más pequeñas, a las más desfavorecidas. Haz siempre el bien. En el camino, estad atentos a los demás, especialmente a los que más luchan, a los que han caído, a los que están necesitados... A los peregrinos italianos del Camino de Santiago, 19 de diciembre de 2024.

¿Qué es una indulgencia plenaria?

Dios nunca deja de ofrecernos su misericordia. Cuando pecamos, queda un apego malsano a las cosas terrenales incluso después de que la culpa del pecado es perdonada. Tales apegos pueden purificarse aquí en la tierra mediante una indulgencia o en el purgatorio; Esta purificación se conoce como la remisión de la pena temporal debida al pecado (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica 1472).

Durante el Jubileo, se concederá la indulgencia plenaria -la remisión completa de la pena temporal debida por los pecados (CIC, 1471)- en la forma habitual de la Iglesia a todos los fieles que, verdaderamente arrepentidos, confiesen sus pecados, reciban la Sagrada Comunión, oren por las intenciones del Santo Padre y realicen alguna de las siguientes acciones:

1. una visita de peregrinación a la Catedral de Nuestra Señora de los Ángeles o a la Misión Basílica de San Buenaventura para orar;
2. participación en una misión parroquial o estudio de los documentos del Concilio Vaticano II o del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica;
3. obras de misericordia corporales o espirituales;
4. prácticas penitenciales.

Pilgrimage to the Holy Doors in Rome

We're halfway through the Jubilee Year. A special gift and devotion is to make a pilgrimage and pass through the Holy Door. In this 2025 Jubilee there are only 5 designated Holy Doors that were opened—and they are all in Rome. Here are a couple of opportunities to make the Pilgrimage to Rome, led by priests who are familiar to us as they have served at our Lady of Lourdes to celebrate the Mass or at the Penance Service.

GIFTS of the HEART 2025 ANNUAL APPEAL

Sharing God's Overflowing Love

TOGETHER IN MISSION

Since the 16th century, the Church has assigned special devotions to each month of the year to help the Church grow closer to God. Last month, we shared how May is a special month dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. This June, we are invited to deepen our devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a heart overflowing with compassion and love.

Living Out Love

Gabby, a volunteer in a parish supported by Together in Mission, lives out the love that Christ wants to give all of us. Every Sunday evening, she teaches RCIA to guide others into the Church. Her time, faith, and knowledge are Gifts of the Heart that she shares each week. By teaching RCIA, Gabby is empowering men and women to receive Christ's overflowing love.

Entrust Your Gift to the Sacred Heart

Maybe your Gift of the Heart looks like Gabby's, offering time and sharing our faith. Or maybe this summer, it means making a gift to Together in Mission so others like Gabby can keep serving our faith communities.

Your generosity enables underserved parishes to continue offering RCIA programs, youth ministries, catechesis programs, and sacramental preparation classes within their faith communities, drawing souls closer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Will you please make a Gift of the Heart this June in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus?

Yes I Want to Make a Gift of the Heart!
