Pentecost Sunday

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 104

— Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7.12-13

Gospel: John 20:19-23

We have arrived at the conclusion of the Easter Season. It's Pentecost Sunday. It's the third event in the mystery of the resurrection. When Jesus rose from the dead, he ascended into heaven and the Holy Spirit was given to the Church. With this feast, we celebrate the birthday of the Church because on that first Pentecost Sunday, the infant Church was launched on its course and took on its missionary role.

Why is it called the birthday of the Church? During that first Pentecost day, the Jews were celebrating the commemoration of the arrival of the people of Israel at Mt. Sinai. There, Moses met God and received the ten commandments for his people. It was on that day that the Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles and Peter took the lead to speak on behalf of the apostles and about 3,000 were converted that very day. Hence, that first Pentecost is celebrated as the birthday of the Church.

Scripture tells us that while the apostles were at prayer with Mary in the upper room, suddenly, there was a roaring wind and the Holy Spirit descended on them in the form of tongues of fire. He gave the timid and frightened men the courage to rush into the street and fearlessly preach the word of God to friend and foe alike.

Pentecost is a special day in the Easter season for the Universal Church. If for the Jews, that day commemorated the arrival of the people of Israel at Mount Sinai where Moses went up the mountain, met God and received the law or ten commandments for his people, then by telling us that the apostles received the Spirit on Pentecost Day, the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles is teaching us that, for Christians, the Spirit has substituted the old law with a new law, the law of the heart, the life of God in us that is capable of spontaneously producing the works of God. So, the first reading is telling us that what we are and what we do as Christians should be guided by the law of the Spirit which is the law of the heart, the law of love. It is this law from within that leads us to do good.

Today, we recall the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples who started to act as Church, as a community of believers in the Lord Jesus. It is our celebration as a Church in the parish of Our Lady of Lourdes as it is for all parish Churches. This parish is one faith community that has journeyed as a parish for decades marked by the richness of its diverse cultures and traditions, of different races and ethnic backgrounds and from different parts of the globe celebrating together one faith, one baptism, one God. These elements make this day especially meaningful for us.

In this faith community marked by diversity in cultural composition and language, we are called to worship, we are called today to celebrate the Eucharist, a celebration of life with Christ in the Holy Spirit. What happened as a historical event more than 2,000 years ago is now an experience of the awesome and overpowering presence of God, of being Church and acting as Church in our times and through the future. Our Church is an experience of being brothers and sisters and children of one same Father in faith speaking different languages with one accent and that one accent is LOVE. For the miracle of Pentecost is not so much to speak the languages of others without accent but to be able to hear our own language through the accent of others. And because of this, we have always heard our Church leaders telling us not to be so concerned about whether this country is made up of citizens, immigrants or undocumented because before God -- and to be Church and to function as Church where the Holy Spirit is present --all of us are immigrants going the same way to the true citizenship somewhere in heaven. Thus, there should be no more slaves and free men, no black, brown, red, white and yellow because we are now God's children recognizing each other, willing to listen to the language of love. Amen. ❖

Cast into the Deep Mother of God and our Mother Nelle Orsburn

“ We fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection... Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies...” These are a couple of lines from the prayer that Pope Francis gave us to pray after the Rosary in the time of the pandemic. I love saying that... Mother of God and our Mother.

Tomorrow, Monday, the day after Pentecost, we will celebrate the Memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church. It is a newish feast since it hasn't been 10 years since Pope Francis instituted it as a feast to honor Mary in the Liturgical calendar. It is not, by any means, a new title for Mary. As early as the 4th century, there has been reference to her as the Mother of the Church. More recently, Saint Paul VI as well as Saint John Paul II have called Mary, Mother of the Church. At the foot of the Cross, Jesus looked at His mother and at John, the disciple whom he loved and said, “Woman, behold your Son” and to John, “behold your mother.” It was then that Mary became the Mother of all the living.

It makes sense that the feast of the Mother of the Church comes a day after Pentecost. She was with the Apostles in the Upper room at the original Pentecost which is considered the birthday of the Church. And we can just imagine that she mothered the disciples who were waiting for the promised Advocate especially since Jesus had entrusted them all to her maternal love.

So in what way is Mary our Mother, the Mother of the People of God, the Church? The Catechism of the Catholic Church in Paragraphs 963 – 975 enlightens us on the Motherhood of Mary with regard to the Church. “Mary's role in the Church is inseparable from her union with Christ and flows directly from it.” Furthermore, in her Assumption, when she “fully participates in her Son's Resurrection,” we anticipate our own resurrection. Finally, she is our Mother by the order of grace. By the grace of God, she uttered her “Yes” and cooperated in the “...Savior's work of restoring supernatural life to souls.”

Reflecting on these truths leads to a consideration of the qualities of a mother.

Like a mother, Mary intercedes for us. Maybe some of us have experienced asking Mom to help us make our case with Dad, perhaps when we wanted to borrow his car in our youth. We make the same request of our Mother, Mary, “Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God the Father of Mercies.” It is not unusual that we begin or end our prayers saying, “through Christ our Lord and through the intercession of Mary.”

Another quality that is typical of mothers is as someone who nurtures her child, cares for him and helps him grow. Mother Mary nurtures us by urging us closer to her son, Jesus Christ and reminding us of the Father's love for us. In her many apparitions Mary always had a message to impart. Our Lady of Lourdes, as well as Our Lady of Guadalupe, brought the message that God is love and He loves us as we are. Our Lady of Fatima urged us to pray, do penance and make reparation. Always, Mary leads us to Jesus. Even the rosary which she asked us to pray daily, is a meditation on the Gospel life of Jesus.

A mother also serves as a model for her children to emulate. Mary, from her immediate and joyful “yes” at the annunciation shows us how to say our own yes to God's will. Mary is our model of Faith and Love. As Jesus has commanded us to love God and to love one another, we can look to Mary at the Wedding at Cana who took the initiative to love the wedding couple and asked Jesus to take care of the wine problem. As we celebrate Trinity Sunday today, we are reminded to live in Trinitarian relationships, i.e., to love unconditionally like the Father and to welcome love and love back like the Son. The fruit of this reciprocal love is the spirit of joy, of peace and of light. I sometimes imagine Mary in Ephesus with John to whom Jesus entrusted his mother. Did John come home from a day of preaching and talk to Mary about his day? Mary would have listened with complete attention, empty of all thought except what John was saying. The light of the Spirit born out of their reciprocal love may even have reminded him of a detail that he needed to include in his first or second letter.

As we inch closer to the end of the month of May, this month of Mary, let us honor Mary, Mother of God and our Mother. “This very special devotion . . . differs essentially from the adoration which is given to the incarnate Word and equally to the Father and the Holy Spirit, and greatly fosters this adoration.” (CCC 971) Let us seek her protection and her intercession. Let us heed her message to draw ever closer to her Son, Jesus Christ and to believe in God's love. ❖

Papal intentions for May

That everyone might have food

To pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoiding wasting food and to ensuring that everyone has access to quality food.

Por una alimentación para todos. Oremos para que cada uno, desde los grandes productores hasta los pequeños consumidores, se comprometa para evitar el desperdicio de alimentos y que todos tengan acceso a una alimentación de calidad.

Daily Meditations with Pope Francis

TRUE CHRISTIANS

But can't we make Christianity a little more human –they say–without the cross, without Jesus, without renunciation? In this way we would become like Christians in a pastry shop, saying: what beautiful cakes, what beautiful sweets! Truly beautiful, but not really Christians!

For today, attend Mass or spend some time contemplating the Cross in front of a crucifix in your home. Take time to imagine the depth of Jesus' suffering. Do not sugarcoat it in your mind. Jesus assumed the burden of our sins and died on the Cross so we could be saved and follow his example of love.

Meditaciones diarias con el Papa Francisco

VERDADEROS CRISTIANOS

Pero, ¿acaso no podemos hacer que el cristianismo sea un poco más humano — dicen algunos—, sin la cruz, sin Jesús, sin la renuncia? De este modo, nos convertiríamos en cristianos de pastelería, diciendo: «¡Qué pasteles tan hermosos, qué dulces tan bellos!». Verdaderamente hermosos, ¡pero no realmente cristianos!

Para hoy: asista a Misa o dedique un tiempo a contemplar la Cruz frente a un crucifijo en su hogar. Tómese un momento para imaginar la profundidad del sufrimiento de Jesús. No lo edulcore en su mente. Jesús asumió la carga de nuestros pecados y murió en la Cruz para que nosotros pudiéramos ser salvados y seguir su ejemplo de amor.

The tradition of dedicating the month of May to Mary began in the 13th century. The naming of May as Our Lady's Month was an attempt to replace the pagan festivals and to turn them into the worship of the True God and veneration of Mary, the mother of Jesus.

“Para los católicos, la inmigración no es una cuestión política. Es una cuestión de nuestras profundas creencias religiosas”.

“Porque así como el cuerpo es uno y tiene muchos miembros y todos ellos, a pesar de ser muchos, forman un solo cuerpo, así también es Cristo.”

La tradición de dedicar el mes de mayo a María comenzó en el siglo XIII. La designación de mayo como el Mes de Nuestra Señora fue un intento de sustituir las festividades paganas y transformarlas en la adoración al Dios verdadero y en la veneración de María, la madre de Jesús.

The Franciscan Jubilee Year

Pope Leo XIV has proclaimed a Franciscan Jubilee Year — from January 10, 2026, to January 10, 2027 — to mark the 800th anniversary of the passing of St. Francis of Assisi. The Holy Father invites all Christians to follow Francis' example of holiness, a life that was simple and essential, open to peace, fraternity, and respect for creation.

A plenary indulgence, under the usual conditions: sacramental confession, reception of Holy Communion, prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father, and detachment from sin, may be obtained for oneself or for the souls of the faithful departed.

This grace is open to all the faithful who make a pilgrimage to any Franciscan church or shrine dedicated to St. Francis. The faithful are encouraged to spend time in prayer and meditation at a pilgrimage site, and then concluding with the Our Father, the Creed, and invocations to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Clare, and all the Saints of the Franciscan Family.

In the San Fernando Region, these are the designated public Pilgrimage sites:

- Poverello of Assisi Retreat Center
1519 Woodworth Street, San Fernando, California 91340
- Provincial House & Chapel (Glory to God) 13367
Borden Avenue, Sylmar, California 91342
- Mother Gertrude Balcazar Home
11320 Laurel Canyon Boulevard, San Fernando,
California 91340
- Poor Clare Missionary Sisters
13026 Angeles Trail Way, Kagel Canyon, California
91342

The elderly, the sick, and the homebound may also receive the indulgence by uniting themselves spiritually to the Jubilee and offering their prayers and sufferings to God.

May this Holy Year deepen our love for Jesus Christ, strengthen our care for creation, and renew our commitment to peace.

Prayer to St. Francis

(in this Jubilee Year of St. Francis of Assisi)

Saint Francis, our brother, you who eight hundred years ago went to meet Sister Death as a man at peace, intercede for us before the Lord.

You recognized true peace in the Crucifix of San Damiano, teach us to seek in Him the source of all reconciliation that breaks down every wall.

You who, unarmed, crossed the lines of war and misunderstanding, give us the courage to build bridges where the world raises up boundaries.

In this time afflicted by conflict and division, intercede for us so that we may become peacemakers: unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ. Amen

MEMORIAL DAY

REMEMBERING & HONORING ALL WHO SERVED

The parish office as well as the school office will be closed this Monday, May 25, to commemorate Memorial Day, a day to remember those who lost their lives while defending our country

La oficina parroquial así como la oficina de la escuela estarán cerradas este lunes 25 de mayo para conmemorar el Día de los Caídos, un día para recordar a quienes perdieron la vida defendiendo nuestro país.

Divine Mercy Pilgrimage

Fr. Rolly is leading a Divine Mercy Pilgrimage to Central and Eastern Europe from May 19-31. He is traveling with 2 busloads of pilgrims. They arrived in Krakow and already enjoyed a guided tour of the Wawel Cathedral (shown in the photos below). On Wednesday, They visited the Divine Mercy Shrine in Lagiewniki where they prayed at the tomb of St. Faustina. Then on to the birthplace of St. John Paul II. The next day, they drove to Auschwitz for a visit to the concentration camp, a very sad place to visit. They will then proceed to Prague, Austria to visit the Infant Jesus of Prague, to Croatia and the Czech Republic to drop by Medjugorje.

Let us continue to pray for their safety and for many graces.

In the meantime, Let us welcome Fr. Andy Bangilan III who is here at OLL to say the Masses and hear confessions in Fr. Rolly's stead as Dn Mar and Dn Ramon hold down the fort.

Domingo de PentecostésPrimera Lectura: Hechos de los Apóstoles 2, 1-11*Salmo Responsorial: Salmo 104– Envía tu espíritu, Señor, y renueva la faz de la tierra.Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios 12, 3-7. 12-13*Evangelio: Juan 20, 19-23

Hemos llegado al final del Tiempo Pascual. Es el Domingo de Pentecostés, el tercer acontecimiento del misterio de la resurrección. Cuando Jesús resucitó, ascendió al cielo y el Espíritu Santo fue dado a la Iglesia. Con esta fiesta, celebramos el nacimiento de la Iglesia, porque en aquel primer Domingo de Pentecostés, la Iglesia naciente inició su camino y asumió su misión.

¿Por qué se le llama el nacimiento de la Iglesia? Durante aquel primer Pentecostés, los judíos conmemoraban la llegada del pueblo de Israel al Monte Sinaí. Allí, Moisés se encontró con Dios y recibió los Diez Mandamientos para su pueblo. Fue ese día cuando el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre los apóstoles, y Pedro tomó la iniciativa para hablar en nombre de ellos; aproximadamente 3000 personas se convirtieron ese mismo día. Por lo tanto, aquel primer Pentecostés se celebra como el nacimiento de la Iglesia.

Las Escrituras nos dicen que mientras los apóstoles oraban con María en el cenáculo, de repente, un viento rugiente los envolvió y el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre ellos en forma de lenguas de fuego. Les infundió a aquellos hombres tímidos y asustados el valor para salir corriendo a la calle y predicar sin temor la palabra de Dios tanto a amigos como a enemigos.

Pentecostés es un día especial en el tiempo pascual para la Iglesia Universal. Si para los judíos ese día conmemoraba la llegada del pueblo de Israel al Monte Sinaí, donde Moisés subió a la montaña, se encontró con Dios y recibió la ley o los Diez Mandamientos para su pueblo, entonces, al decirnos que los apóstoles recibieron el Espíritu en Pentecostés, la primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles nos enseña que, para los cristianos, el Espíritu ha sustituido la antigua ley por una nueva ley, la ley del corazón, la vida de Dios en nosotros, capaz de producir espontáneamente las obras de Dios. Así pues, la primera lectura nos dice que lo que somos y hacemos como cristianos debe guiarse por la ley del Espíritu, que es la ley del corazón, la ley del amor. Es esta ley interior la que nos impulsa a hacer el bien.

Hoy recordamos la efusión del Espíritu Santo sobre los discípulos que comenzaron a actuar como Iglesia, como comunidad de creyentes en el Señor Jesús. Es nuestra celebración como Iglesia en la parroquia de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes, al igual que para todas las parroquias. Esta parroquia es una comunidad de fe que ha recorrido un camino durante décadas, marcada por la riqueza de sus diversas culturas y tradiciones, de diferentes razas y orígenes étnicos, y de distintas partes del mundo, celebrando juntos una sola fe, un solo bautismo, un solo Dios. Estos elementos hacen que este día sea especialmente significativo para nosotros.

En esta comunidad de fe, marcada por la diversidad cultural y lingüística, estamos llamados a adorar, estamos llamados hoy a celebrar la Eucaristía, una celebración de la vida con Cristo en el Espíritu Santo. Lo que sucedió como un evento histórico hace más de 2000 años es ahora una experiencia de la impresionante y abrumadora presencia de Dios, de ser Iglesia y actuar como Iglesia en nuestros tiempos y en el futuro. Nuestra Iglesia es una experiencia de ser hermanos y hermanas e hijos de un mismo Padre en la fe, hablando diferentes idiomas con un solo acento, y ese acento es el AMOR. Porque el milagro de Pentecostés no es tanto hablar los idiomas de otros sin acento, sino poder escuchar nuestro propio idioma a través del acento de otros. Y debido a esto, siempre hemos escuchado a nuestros líderes de la Iglesia decirnos que no nos preocupemos tanto por si este país está formado por ciudadanos, inmigrantes o indocumentados, porque ante Dios —y para ser Iglesia y funcionar como Iglesia donde el Espíritu Santo está presente— todos somos inmigrantes que vamos por el mismo camino hacia la verdadera ciudadanía en algún lugar del cielo. Por lo tanto, no debería haber más esclavos y hombres libres, ni negros, morenos, rojos, blancos y amarillos, porque ahora somos hijos de Dios que nos reconocemos unos a otros, dispuestos a escuchar el lenguaje del amor. Amén. ❖

Pescando en lo Profundo Madre de Dios y nuestra Madre Nelle Orsburn

"A ti acudimos, Madre de Dios y Madre nuestra, y bajo tu protección buscamos refugio... Madre de Dios y Madre nuestra, ruega por nosotros a Dios, Padre de misericordias..." Estas son algunas líneas de la oración que el Papa Francisco nos dio para rezar después del Rosario en tiempos de pandemia. Me encanta decir eso... Madre de Dios y Madre nuestra.

Mañana, lunes, día después de Pentecostés, celebraremos la Memoria de la Bienaventurada Virgen María Madre de la Iglesia. Es una fiesta relativamente nueva, ya que no han pasado 10 años desde que el Papa Francisco la instituyó como fiesta para honrar a María en el calendario litúrgico. No es, de ninguna manera, un título nuevo para María. Ya en el siglo IV, se la ha llamado Madre de la Iglesia. Más recientemente, San Pablo VI y San Juan Pablo II también la han llamado Madre de la Iglesia. Al pie de la Cruz, Jesús miró a su madre y a Juan, el discípulo a quien amaba, y dijo: "Mujer, ahí tienes a tu Hijo" y a Juan: "Ahí tienes a tu madre". Fue entonces cuando María se convirtió en la Madre de todos los vivientes.

Tiene sentido que la fiesta de la Madre de la Iglesia se celebre un día después de Pentecostés. Ella estuvo con los Apóstoles en el Cenáculo durante el Pentecostés original, considerado el nacimiento de la Iglesia. Y podemos imaginar que cuidó con amor maternal a los discípulos que esperaban al Abogado prometido, especialmente porque Jesús los había encomendado a todos a su amor maternal.

Entonces, ¿de qué manera es María nuestra Madre, la Madre del Pueblo de Dios, la Iglesia? El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, en los párrafos 963-975, nos ilumina sobre la Maternidad de María con respecto a la Iglesia. "El papel de María en la Iglesia es inseparable de su unión con Cristo y emana directamente de ella". Además, en su Asunción, cuando "participa plenamente en la Resurrección de su Hijo", anticipamos nuestra propia resurrección. Finalmente, ella es nuestra Madre por orden de gracia. Por la gracia de Dios, ella dio su "Sí" y cooperó en la ... "obra del Salvador de restaurar la vida sobrenatural a las almas".

Reflexionar sobre estas verdades nos lleva a considerar las cualidades de una madre.

Como una madre, María intercede por nosotros. Quizás algunos de nosotros le hemos pedido a mamá que nos ayude a convencer a papá, tal vez cuando queríamos pedirle prestado su auto en nuestra juventud. Hacemos la misma petición a nuestra Madre, María: "Madre de Dios y Madre nuestra, ruega por nosotros a Dios Padre de las Misericordias". No es raro que comencemos o terminemos nuestras oraciones diciendo: "Por Cristo nuestro Señor y por la intercesión de María".

Otra cualidad típica de las madres es la de nutrir a su hijo, cuidarlo y ayudarlo a crecer. La Madre María nos nutre acercándonos a su Hijo, Jesucristo, y recordándonos el amor del Padre por nosotros. En sus numerosas apariciones, María siempre tenía un mensaje que transmitir. Nuestra Señora de Lourdes, al igual que Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, nos trajo el mensaje de que Dios es amor y nos ama tal como somos. Nuestra Señora de Fátima nos exhortó a orar, hacer penitencia y reparar nuestros pecados. María siempre nos guía hacia Jesús. Incluso el rosario, que nos pidió rezar diariamente, es una meditación del evangelio sobre la vida de Jesús.

Una madre también sirve de modelo para que sus hijos la imiten. María, con su inmediato y gozoso "sí" en la Anunciación, nos muestra cómo dar nuestro propio sí a la voluntad de Dios. María es nuestro modelo de fe y amor. Como Jesús nos mandó amar a Dios y amarnos los unos a los otros, podemos fijarnos en María en las Bodas de Caná, quien tomó la iniciativa de amar a los novios y le pidió a Jesús que se ocupara del problema del vino. Al celebrar hoy el Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad, recordamos vivir en relaciones trinitarias, es decir, amar incondicionalmente como el Padre y acoger el amor y amar de vuelta como el Hijo. El fruto de este amor recíproco es el espíritu de alegría, de paz y de luz. A veces me imagino a María en Éfeso con Juan, a quien Jesús le confió a su madre. ¿Acaso Juan regresaba a casa después de un día de predicación y le contaba a María cómo le había ido en su día? María lo habría escuchado con suma atención, absorta en lo que Juan le decía. La luz del Espíritu, nacida de su amor recíproco, incluso pudo haberle recordado algún detalle que debía incluir en su primera o segunda carta.

Al acercarnos al final del mes de mayo, este mes de María, honremos a María, Madre de Dios y Madre nuestra. "Este culto [...] aunque del todo singular, es esencialmente diferente del culto de adoración que se da al Verbo encarnado, lo mismo que al Padre y al Espíritu Santo, pero lo favorece muy poderosamente" (CIC 971). Busquemos su protección y su intercesión. Prestemos atención a su mensaje de acercarnos cada vez más a su Hijo, Jesucristo, y de creer en el amor de Dios. ❖

HOUR FOR
love

OUR MISSION DURING THIS TIME FOR love

...is to provide a lifeline for underserved parishes and schools across the Archdiocese of Los Angeles that would otherwise struggle to meet their most urgent and vital financial needs.

Catholic Schools

A Lifeline for Catholic Classrooms

Seventy-nine Catholic schools stand as living witnesses to Christ's love - places where families find belonging, where teachers serve as missionary disciples, and where children discover their purpose in God's plan.

Your gifts to Together in Mission help ensure that the doors of our schools stay open to all who seek a Catholic education. In doing so, it sustains communities of hope and faith where the next generation of saints and scholars is being formed each day.

"Without the financial support of Together in Mission, we would not be able to provide the level of assistance we currently offer, ensuring our mission remains accessible."

—Evangeline Garay, Principal at Immaculate Conception STEM Academy

Parishes

Where the Gospel Lives and Nurtures Faith and Service

Keeping parish doors open means more than worship. It means offering refuge: feeding the hungry, welcoming the lonely, and supporting families in need. Twice a month, Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church in Jefferson Park, Los Angeles, opens its parish hall to more than 100 families. Along with groceries, families take home the reassuring support of their parish community. Such acts of love reflect that Christ is alive in His Church today.

"The hour for love means helping people and giving to others in need. It is a blessing to serve others through our mini-kitchen."

—Yvette, St. Theresa Mini-Kitchen Parish Volunteer, Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church

The Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

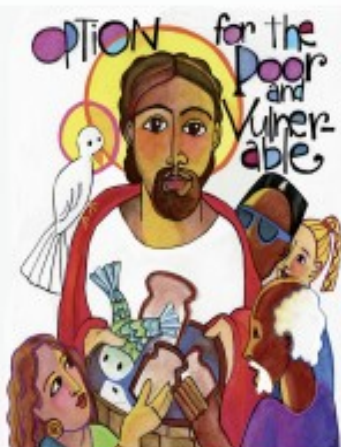

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society – in economics and politics, in law and policy – directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community.

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

A basic moral test is how our most vulnerable members are faring. In a society marred by deepening divisions between rich and poor, our tradition recalls the story of the Last Judgment (Mt 25:31-46) and instructs us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

Solidarity

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters keepers, wherever they may be. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

Save Your Pull Tabs for Us

You can make a difference in the lives of the families at the Pasadena Ronald McDonald House. A small, yet significant way companies, schools, organizations, families and individuals can become involved is to "pull" for the Pasadena Ronald McDonald House.

Anyone can collect Pull Tabs and bring them to the large container at the back of the church or give them to an OLL student or member of the Catholic Daughters.

We collect tabs of all sizes from soda cans, Cat and dog food cans, food cans, etc.

FUN FACTS:

It takes 1,267 pull tabs to make a pound
1 million pull tabs, laid end to end, is 16 miles long
1 million pull tabs, when recycled, will provide a nights lodging for 25 families at the Pasadena Ronald McDonald House!

One tab on its own may not be worth much, but if we all "pull together" we can make a difference!

STATEMENT ON IMMIGRATION ISSUES BY ARCHBISHOP JOSÉ H. GOMEZ

Statements and actions from the new administration in Washington have caused fear in our parishes, schools, and communities. That is not good for anybody. I pray that our leaders will proceed with restraint and compassion, with respect for the law, and with respect for the rights and dignity of all concerned.

No one wants violent criminals living in our communities. But any enforcement actions should be prudent, and should be matched by immediate action in Congress to fix our immigration system, which has been broken for decades now.

"For Catholics, immigration is not a political issue. It is a matter of our deeply held religious beliefs."

For Catholics, immigration is not a political issue. It is a matter of our deeply held religious beliefs. Jesus Christ commanded us to love God as our Father and to love our brothers and sisters, especially the most vulnerable, and regardless of what country they came from or how they got here. Our love for Jesus compels us to continue our works of love and service in our parishes, schools, and other ministries.

The Catholic Church has long been committed to working with our national leaders for immigration reform that is just and humane. My commitment also continues, and we look forward to working with the new administration and Congress.

In this current moment of uncertainty, the U.S. bishops have provided good practical guidance. We have gathered this guidance and other resources on our website. Please visit: lacatholics.org/immigration/.

May Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of Jesus and Mother of all the peoples of the Americas, keep us close to her Son in this moment. And may she help us to work together as neighbors, in a spirit of unity, to truly become one nation under God.

*Archbishop Jose H Gomez

DECLARACIÓN SOBRE TEMAS DE INMIGRACIÓN

POR ARZOBISPO JOSÉ H. GÓMEZ

Las declaraciones y acciones de la nueva administración en Washington han causado miedo en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y comunidades. Eso no es bueno para nadie. Rezo para que nuestros líderes procedan con moderación y compasión, con respeto por la ley y con respeto por los derechos y la dignidad de todos los involucrados.

Nadie quiere criminales violentos viviendo en nuestras comunidades. Pero cualquier acción coercitiva debe ser prudente y debe ir acompañada de una acción inmediata en el Congreso para arreglar nuestro sistema de inmigración, que ya no funciona desde hace décadas.

Para los católicos, la inmigración no es una cuestión política. Es una cuestión de nuestras creencias religiosas profundamente arraigadas. Jesucristo nos ordenó amar a Dios como nuestro Padre y amar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas, especialmente a los más vulnerables, sin importar de qué país vengan o cómo llegaron aquí. Nuestro amor por Jesús nos obliga a continuar nuestras obras de amor y servicio en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y otros ministerios.

La Iglesia Católica ha estado comprometida durante mucho tiempo a trabajar con nuestros líderes nacionales para una reforma migratoria que sea justa y humana. Mi compromiso también continúa y esperamos trabajar con la nueva administración y el Congreso.

En este momento actual de incertidumbre, los obispos estadounidenses han brindado una buena orientación práctica. Hemos recopilado esta guía y otros recursos en nuestro sitio web. Visite: lacatholics.org/immigration/.

Que la Virgen de Guadalupe, Madre de Jesús y Madre de todos los pueblos de América, nos mantenga cerca de su Hijo en este momento. Y que ella nos ayude a trabajar juntos como vecinos, en un espíritu de unidad, para convertirnos verdaderamente en una nación bajo Dios.

*Arzobispo José H Gómez
