American Martyrs Mission Statement

We, the diverse Catholic family of American Martyrs, are spiritually centered in the Word and the Eucharist. Our warm, welcoming community creates an atmosphere for a wonderful faith experience as we gather at the table of the Lord to help each other grow in Christ and live according to His teachings. Inspired by the faith and an example of our patrons, the North Americans Martyrs, and the Blessed Mother, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we work together to spread the message of Jesus to all.

My Side of the Altar

Dear People of God, A Blessed Father's Day to all Dads and to all men who love in a Fatherly way! This Father's Day weekend coincides with the official start of summer later this week. Spring is "sprung" and we jump start into summer season. I also hope summer "jump starts" the Mets to the 2025 World Series! As a way to lighten summer, I share with you vignettes. Enjoy ... ponder ... smile ... and pass it on

What is a Grandparent? (Taken from papers written by class of 8-year-olds)

- ◆ Grandparents are a lady and man who have no little children of their own. They like other people's.
 - A grandfather is a man grandmother.
 - Grandparents don't have to do anything except be there when we come to see them. They are so old they shouldn't play hard or run. It is good if they drive us to the store and have lots of quarters for us.
 - When they take us for walks, they slow down past things like pretty leaves and caterpillars.
 - They show us and talk to us about the color of the flowers and also why we shouldn't step on "cracks."
 - They don't say, "Hurry up."
 - Usually grandmothers are fat, but not too fat to tie your shoes.
 - They can take their teeth and gums out.
 - Grandparents don't have to be smart.
 - They have to answer questions like "Why isn't God married?" and "How come dogs chase cats?"
 - When they read to us, they don't skip. They don't mind if we ask for the same story over again.
 - Everybody should try to have a grandmother, especially if you don't have television, because they are the only grown-ups who like to spend time with us.
 - They know we should have snack-time before bedtime and they say prayers with us every time, and kiss us even when we've acted badly.
 - A 6-year-old was asked where his Grandma lived. "She lives at the airport, and when we want her we just go get her. Then when we're done having her visit, we take her back to the airport."

And ponder these "Pearls of Wisdom" not written by children!

- ◆ If you're too open-minded, your brains will fall out.
 - Artificial intelligence is no match for natural stupidity.
 - My idea of housework is to sweep the room with a glance.
 - It is easier to get forgiveness than permission.
 - If you look like your passport picture, you probably need the trip.
 - Bills travel through the mail at twice the speed of checks.
 - Men are from earth. Women are from earth. Deal with it.
 - No man has ever been shot while doing the dishes.
 - A balanced diet is a cookie in each hand.
 - Middle age is when broadness of the mind and narrowness of the waist change places.
 - Opportunities always look bigger going than coming.
 - Junk is something you've kept for years and throw away three weeks before you need it.
 - Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again.
 - By the time you can make the ends meet, they move the ends.
 - Thou shall not weigh more than thy refrigerator.

AND ALWAYS REMEMBER: Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away. Pray. Pray. Pray. Trust in God — always know faith is a gift from God —and live life for others one day at a time rooted in the Lord Jesus Christ. And go to Mass as a family! Happy Father's Day and

... A safe and blessed summer to all, Fr. Peter

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

June 15, 2025

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

Wisdom was born before the earth was made.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 8:4-9

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

We boast of our afflictions.

Gospel Reading: John 16:12-15

Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit of truth will guide us.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

The Most Holy Trinity

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH

The word trinity occurs nowhere in scripture, but the doctrine of the Trinity is basic to everything Christians believe. How did the church come to believe that the one God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit? This complicated story is an example of the church being taught by the Spirit of truth.

In today's first reading we hear that Wisdom is God's craftsman, helping execute God's plan for creation. The text is not about a helper god; it is an imaginative portrayal of Wisdom being both of God and external to God. We could say that Wisdom is God's self-gift poured into creation, a sign that God loves creation, delights in it, and (in Genesis chapter 1) pronounces it good.

This is the most colorful Biblical portrayal of something of God that is given to creation, but there are others. In Isaiah 55:10-11, God's Word (like the rain and snow) is sent down from heaven to do God's will on earth, not returning until it is accomplished. God's Word, like Wisdom, is also linked to creation, since in Genesis chapter 1, God creates by speaking, repeating Let there be . . . until the work is done.

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH

John's Gospel begins, In the beginning was the Word . . . and the Word was God; John later adds the Word became flesh (John 1:14). This is more than poetic imagery. Here John makes a very bold claim. The prophets proclaimed God's word, but Jesus is God's Word—coming from God to us who are not God. It took more than two hundred years before a universal Council declared that Jesus was . . . true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father . . . Slowly, the church was working toward a doctrine of the Trinity. The doctrine doesn't explain the Trinity, but it does express the incomprehensible mystery of the God whose love overflows into the glories of creation, the messiness of our human condition, and the Spirit of truth that still guides the Church today. *Copyright (c) J. PILGRIMS OF HOPE: TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

THIS IS THE HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today's readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Traveling Madonna within our Parish of American Martyrs Rosary Society

The purpose of this Virgin Mary statue is to bring the graces of Fatima and Our Lady's message of peace and hope.

The Rosary Society has been passing the statue of Mary through the parish. In this difficult time, as we pray for peace, anyone interested please call Margaret Reyes at 718 217-7110.

In these unsettled times, praying the Rosary is important.

Please join us on the first Sunday of the month at 10 o'clock to pray as a group.

All welcome to host the statue!

St. Michael the Archangel

Pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other.

Pray the prayer together with your entire family after dinner, for your prayers may just be what is needed to protect you, your family and your Church. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

Dear Archangel Michael,
I call upon you in this moment of need, asking for your protection and guidance.

As the powerful warrior of God,
I trust in your ability to defend me from all harm and danger. I ask that you wrap me in your divine light, shielding me from any evil that may come my way.

Father's Day Mass Remembrance

During the week of June 15th the Mass will be offered for the intentions of our living and deceased fathers.

If you would like to have your father remembered in these masses please place your Father's Day envelope in the collection this weekend.

If you do not receive envelopes in the mail there are extra envelopes in the back of each church.

The Presentation of The Gifts at Mass

Before Mass each day the gifts of bread and wine are placed at the break of American Martyrs. If you are at Mass and the mass is being celebrated in memory of a loved one please feel free to sit near the gifts and bring them to the altar, where they will become the Body and Blood of Christ. If you are at Mass and no one gets up to bring the gifts to the altar, please feel free to bring them to the altar yourself. This is a parish celebration and we are all parishioners.

Getting to Know the Trinity

As difficult as it is to understand the Holy Trinity, I am amazed that Jesus even bothered to tell us about the Father, the Spirit, and himself. As if his own life, his teachings about God's love, his miracles, his death and resurrection were not enough, he told us something about God that we never would have imagined: There are three Persons in one God. It is also something we cannot completely comprehend. So instead of trying to explain it, let's look at what it means for us believers.

One thing it shows is that God wants to be known by us. Since theologians and spiritual writers have been helping us do that for almost two thousand years, it may not seem like a big deal. But in ancient times, people expected their gods to be mysterious and hidden. Many cultures thought that you could control a spirit or god if you knew its name. So knowing anything about the inner life of a god would be huge. But our God is the only God, whom no one can control. God sees us not as a threat but as beloved children. Just as a couple falling in love wants to know everything about each other, so God wants to be known by those whom God loves. That leads to my second point.

The Trinity also shows us that "God is love" (1 John 4:16) because the three Persons are united in one God. The Persons of the Trinity already love each other perfectly, so God shares that love with us. God calls us to be united in love with God and with each other. Remember that God knows us perfectly and still loves us. How many of us would want another person to know everything about us? Yet knowing our weaknesses and our sins does not hurt God's love for us. On the contrary, our weaknesses allow God to help us by answering our prayers or inspiring someone to come to our assistance. God permits us to sin, knowing that we can experience divine love in forgiveness. We may not be able to grasp the full meaning of the Holy Trinity, but knowing that God shares this with faithful people helps us to love God even more. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Are There Any Good Movies To Watch???

Movies, music, television, and the Internet are the main sources of entertainment for your children. There is a lot of inappropriate material that their eyes and ears can pick up, so talk with your children about what is appropriate entertainment for them. If you are worried about what your children could be seeing or hearing, take advantage of parental blockage systems on your cable and internet systems.

It is vitally important that we are constantly vigilant-that we always observe the behaviors of those who interact with children. And we must always communicate our concerns to the appropriate parties When children exhibit dramatic behavioral changes, adults must find out what caused the changes. Being aware of what's happening with our children means talking to, listening to, and observing them-at every opportunity. Thoughts of Floater and Smitty

Floater: I may not be the prettiest or the richest, but let me tell you something, I'm also not the smartest.

Smitty: I hate hotel towels, so thick and fluffy, I can't even close my suitcase.

Floater: I got myself a seniors' GPS. Not only does it tell me how to get to my destination, it tells me why I wanted to go there.

Smitty: Last night I had a horrifying dream that Disco was actually making a comeback. At first I was afraid, I was petrified.

Floater: Kids these days are soft. I'm pretty sure I died once when I was 7 and my dad made me walk it off.

Smitty: Am I perfect? No. But am I striving to be a better person everyday? Also no.

Floater: My wife said our new neighbor always kissed his wife when he goes to work, why don't I do that? I asked, "How can I?" I don't even know her.

Smitty: You don't realize how old you are until you sit on a beach chair and then try to get up.

Floater: Sometimes I feel old, but then I realize my sisters are older!

Smitty: Banks should do a better job of keeping their ATMs filled. This is the fifth one I've been to that says insufficient funds.

Floater: I hate it when I'm singing along to a song and the artist gets the words wrong.

Smitty: I'm at the age where I appreciate a nice handrail.

Floater: I accidentally rubbed ketchup in my eyes. I now have Heinzsight.
