American Martyrs Mission Statement

We, the diverse Catholic family of American Martyrs, are spiritually centered in the Word and the Eucharist. Our warm, welcoming community creates an atmosphere for a wonderful faith experience as we gather at the table of the Lord to help each other grow in Christ and live according to His teachings. Inspired by the faith and an example of our patrons, the North Americans Martyrs, and the Blessed Mother, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we work together to spread the message of Jesus to all.

American Martyrs Celebrates the Sacraments

Penance: Every Saturday at 3pm—3:45pm (Also at anytime convenient upon request)

Baptisms: Parents must speak to Deacon Stan one month in advance before the scheduled date.

Sacrament of the Sick Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament is available for any baptized Catholic who is seriously ill or suffering the effects of advanced age. Please call the rectory to make an appointment for a priest to come to the home, or call anytime for a sudden illness. If serious surgery is scheduled, call to arrange for the anointing before you enter the hospital.

Pastoral Care to the Homebound : We are concerned about parishioners who are homebound and would like to receive the Eucharist, the Sacrament of Reconciliation or the Anointing of the Sick. If you are homebound, or if you know someone who is unable to come to Mass, please do not hesitate to contact the parish office at (718) 464-4582. Visits will be happily arranged for you.

Holy Matrimony : Call the Parish Office for information and appointment with a priest at least six months prior to the date you wish.

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I look forward each year to the last week of January, when we observe National Catholic Schools Week. As the parishes of Holy Family & American Martyrs, we recognize the value of Catholic education and support our families and school in educating our young people so they can reach their full potential. We acknowledge the vital role of the school faculty, staff and volunteers in this effort. And we celebrate our students as they learn about their faith and the skills, they need in the 21st century.

This week's theme continues to build upon Catholic Imagination as we ignite the spark in the hearts of our little ones which is the ability to see, hear and believe what others cannot. Holy Family Catholic Academy has been a vital part of our community since 1953.

Building upon the great legacy of Father Carey and the Sisters of St Joseph who first established our wonderful school over seventy years ago, today we continue building a firm foundation for the future. While Catholic Education as witnessed in previous generations has continued to change, one thing that has been consistent since the time of Father Carey and the Sisters of St. Joseph is that the core of Holy Family Catholic School remains a place LOVE. This is something that I have encountered since my arrival at Holy Family.

So please come and see the spirit of sacrificial love offered by our school parents and faculty and witness the pure and innocent love of the young minds and hearts of our school children as they encounter Jesus Christ in one another, in the classroom and in the Sacraments.

Please visit our school! It's a great opportunity for all of us to see what our students are accomplishing and thank the faculty, staff and volunteers who give so much of themselves to educate our children.

I extend a special invitation to our American Martyrs families to come visit our school, meet our faculty, and prayerfully consider a Catholic education for your child. We would be honored to welcome you and share the joy and mission of our school community. If any parent is interested in receiving more information regarding our Catholic Academy or touring the school, I know Ms. Kelly and the school staff will be willing to assist you any way possible. Please call 718-969-2124 or email the school office at holy-faminfo@aol.com

As the spiritual father of this Partnership Family, I want to offer the same opportunity to our children that was given to me, an environment where one can be known, cared for and loved, by the teachers, classmates, and parish community. Today, at the 10:30am Mass we will open up our Catholic Schools Week celebration. There will be many festivities throughout the week.

Our Catholic schools are part of our future as a Church and a nation. May God bless them and all who contribute to the important work they do on behalf of the children of our parish and parishes across the country.

Sincerely in Christ,

My Side of the Altar

Dear People of God,

Our new year is well underway. Christmas Day and the clock striking midnight to begin 2026 may feel like “months ago” to some people. As we continue the winter season, take a moment to reflect upon these great wisdom thoughts. During these cold, dark days of winter, we all need a spiritual lift to carry us through to the brighter, warmer days of spring.

How to Stay Young, Happy, and Healthy

Throw out nonessential numbers. This includes age, weight, and height. Let the doctor worry about them. That is why you pay him/her.

Keep only cheerful friends. The grouches pull you down. If you really need a grouch there are probably a few dozen of your relatives to do the job.

Laugh often, long and loud. Laugh until you gasp for breath. Laugh so much that you can be tracked in the store by your distinctive laughter. The tears happen.

Endure, grieve, and move on.

The only person who is with us our entire life is ... ourselves. Surround yourself with what you love, whether it is family, pets, keepsakes, music, plants, hobbies ... whatever. Your home is your refuge.

Cherish your health. If it is good ... preserve it. If it is unstable, improve it. If it is beyond what you can improve ... get help.

Don't take guilt trips. Go to the mall, the next county, a foreign country, but not guilt. Tell the people you love that you love them at every opportunity.

Remember ... Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.

Keep learning. Learn more about the computer, crafts, gardening, whatever. Just never let the brain idle. Enjoy the simple things.

When the children are young ... that is all you can afford. When they are in college ... that is all you can afford. When they are grown, and you are in retirement that is all you can afford!

And may I add - PRAY...PRAY...PRAY!

And we can all use a good laugh...

A retiree in Florida phones his daughter in New Jersey and says, “Honey, I have bad news for you. Your mother and I have decided that 52 years is enough. We’re calling it quits and getting a divorce.”

His daughter yells, “Are you crazy? What the heck are you saying? We’re not going to let you do that!”

The father says, “No, we’ve had enough. We’re getting tired of the same old routine and looking at each other every day. I don’t want to talk about it, so call your brother in Detroit and let him know.” And the father hangs up on his daughter.

Panic-stricken, the daughter phones her brother and drops the bomb about their Mom and Dad.

“No way, no WAY!” shouts the brother. “This will NOT happen! Stay by the phone. I’ll talk to them and handle this. I’ll call you back as soon as possible!”

The brother phones his father and says, “Dad, Sis just told me you’re getting a divorce. That’s CRAZY! No way we’re going to let this happen to you and Mom.

We’re both booking planes tonight and flying down to Florida in the morning to sort this out. Listen, don’t do anything till we get there, and you hear me out!

Promise me, Dad. Don’t do anything!”

The old man agreed. He turned his cell phone off with a smile and then said to his wife, “Ok, it’s all arranged, sweetheart. The kids will be here tomorrow for your birthday and, best of all, they’re buying their own plane tickets!”

Winter blessings, Fr. Peter

Jesus begins to preach in Galilee and calls his first disciples. (shorter form Matthew 4:12-17)

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday, January 25, 2026

First Reading: Isaiah 8:23-9:3

The people in darkness have seen a great light.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 27:1,4,13-14

The Lord is our refuge, our light, our salvation.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:10-13,17

Paul urges the community at Corinth to be united as people baptized in Christ's name.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 4:12-23

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel describes the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. In the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke (called the Synoptic Gospels), Jesus' public ministry begins after his baptism by John the Baptist and after his retreat to the desert where he was tempted by the devil. When Jesus returns from the desert, he hears that John has been arrested.

The first part of today's Gospel places Jesus' ministry in the context of the writings of the prophet, Isaiah. Matthew wants to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of the prophecies given to the people of Israel, and he refers to Isaiah to do so. Isaiah says that the Messiah will begin his ministry in Galilee, the land of the Gentiles. When Jesus begins to preach in Galilee, Matthew points to his ministry as a fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy, proof that Jesus is the Messiah.

When Jesus called his first disciples, the Gospel tells us that the fishermen (Peter and Andrew, James and John) dropped everything to follow Jesus immediately. Yet this Gospel tells us little about the prior experience that the fishermen had of Jesus. Did they know him? Had they heard him preach? What kind of person must Jesus have been to invoke such a response? We can imagine that Jesus was a powerful presence to elicit a response as immediate and complete as these first disciples gave.

The Gospel concludes with a description of the ministry that Jesus begins in Galilee. Jesus inaugurates the Kingdom of God with his work. He teaches in the synagogue and preaches the kingdom. His ability to cure people's diseases and illness is a sign of the kingdom. In Jesus' ministry, we already begin to see the Kingdom of God among us.

A Journey to Divine Mercy with St. Faustina

American Martyrs cordially invites you to A Journey to Divine Mercy with St. Faustina, in video and discussion format.

Our focus this year will be on prayer. Not the type of prayer you may be familiar with but the type of prayer that called the Saints to the depths of contemplative communion with our Lord:

- “Prayer is still a little-known means; however, it is the most effective way to re-establish peace in our souls because it allows us to get ever closer to God’s love.”
St. Maximilian Kolbe

- “When it is well done, it moves the Divine Heart and makes Him always more inclined to grant our requests.” St. Padre Pio
- “Great is the power of prayer – a queen, as one might say, has free access always to the King, and able to obtain whatever she asks.”
St. Therese of Lisieux
- “Give me a man of prayer and he will be capable of everything. He may say with the apostle, ‘I can do all things in him who strengthens me.’” St. Vincent de Paul
- “For whatever the virtue you see, pray. And pray in this way” by reading in the Book of Life, that is, in the life of the One who is God and man, Jesus Christ.” St. Angela of Foligno

The Purgatorial Society enrolls a deceased loved one in 12 monthly Masses (starting on the month of enrollment) offered on the First Sunday of every month at the 10:30am Mass.

Out of respect & courtesy for our Liturgy and for your fellow parishioners, we ask that you please SILENCE your cell phones in church.

Thank you!

PLEASE BE MINDFUL!

When entering American Martyrs please be mindful that many people are praying.

If you wish to greet someone do so in quiet tones so as not to disturb another's prayer time.

Be Vigilant of Child Abuse at all times!

It is vitally important that we are constantly vigilant that we always observe the behaviors of those who interact with children.

And we must always communicate our concerns to the appropriate parties. When children exhibit dramatic behavioral changes, adults must find out what caused the changes.

Being aware of what's happening with our children means talking to, listening to, and observing them-at every opportunity.

The Presentation of The Gifts at Mass

Before Mass each day the gifts of bread and wine are placed at the break of American Martyrs. If you are at Mass and the mass is being celebrated in memory of a loved one please feel free to sit near the gifts and bring them to the altar, where they will become the Body and Blood of Christ. If you are at Mass and no one gets up to bring the gifts to the altar, please feel free to bring them to the altar yourself. This is a parish celebration and we are all parishioners.
