Hello Father,

"This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it." (Psalm 118:24). Lord, thank You so much for all the blessings You have provided in my life, especially those people who have been so very vital in my life of recovery.

Gracious Heavenly Father, Your Word says that You will always guide me. You do not leave me wandering through life, but You are with me during every moment of every day. You will satisfy my needs when I feel frustrated and you will strengthen me when life makes me weary. Help me to follow Your ways as You lead me into a life of fruitfulness and joy.

I thank You for the guidance of the people whom You placed in my life. Please continue to direct my path to cross with people who will help me grow in character and help me focus on my spiritual progress, and help me to live one day at a time.

I also pray, please, lead me to the people who can benefit from my experience, strength, and hope. Dear God, connect me with people whom I can help and, with the influence of Your Holy Spirit, draw them into a close, personal relationship with You.

I know this is gonna be a great day, because You made it so. Amen.
