TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT November 29, 2020

First Reading — We are the clay and you, O Lord, are the potter: we are the work of your hands (Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7).

Psalm — Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved (Psalm 80).

Second Reading — God is faithful; by God you were called to fellowship with the Son (1 Corinthians 1:3-9).

Gospel — Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. (Mark 13:33-37).

Entering the Season of ADVENT.....

This past year has been a stressful and difficult time for all of us as we wait for COVID-19 to pass.

Waiting and hoping are strong themes in Advent. We wait with anticipation and look to Christmas as we celebrate God with us. Even with all the restrictions, difficulties, stress and grief at the loss of loved ones, as Christians we hold that God has truly come among us, Emanuel. God has come into our world, past, present and future. Even though we are restricted from gathering as a faith community, this time of Advent can be used to embrace the God with us, to deepen our awareness of our sense of community and make time to pray and welcome the Lord into our lives as we wait for Christmas time.

Each of us in our way is invited to use this time of Advent to come home to our God. To discover again the God who is with us in all our frailty, our messiness, our ambiguities, the God who is here for us with all our anxieties and stress with COVID-19.

As you wait for Christmas, recover again for yourself that sense of God with you and where he is leading you.

Thank You

“The Christmas Project 2020”

Dea Gladys,

I am so delighted to enclose a check in the amount of $17,790. This generous gift is a testimony to the caring community of San Agustin.

I want to acknowledge and thank Joey Romeo who promoted and encouraged our parishioners to consider donating in this way to the Christmas Project this year. I am so thankful to all our parishioners who responded so generously.

Blessings to you and the many workers and their families who you will help and support this Christmas time.

With every good wish,
Fr. Seamus O'Brien
