Remember, dear Lady of LaSalette, true Mother of Sorrows, the tears which thou didst shed for me on Calvary; be mindful also of the unceasing care which thou dost exercise to shield me from the justice of God; and consider whether thou canst now abandon thy child, for whom thou hast done so much. Inspired by this consoling thought, I come to cast myself at thy feet, in spite of my infidelity and ingratitude. Reject not my prayer, O Virgin of reconciliation, convert me, obtain for me the grace to love Jesus Christ above all things and to console thee too by living a holy life, in order that one day I may be able to see thee in Heaven. Amen.

A Prayer for Our Priests We thank you, God our Father, for those who have responded to your call to priestly ministry. Accept this prayer we offer on their behalf: Fill your priests with the sure knowledge of your love. Open their hearts to the power and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Lead them to new depths of union with your Son. Increase in them profound faith in the Sacraments they celebrate as they nourish, strengthen and heal us. Lord Jesus Christ, grant that these, your priests, may inspire us to strive for holiness by the power of their example, as men of prayer who ponder your word and follow your will. O Mary, Mother of Christ and our mother, guard with your maternal care these chosen ones, so dear to the Heart of your Son. Intercede for our priests, that offering the Sacrifice of your Son, they may be conformed more each day to the image of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anyone interested in attending the OCIA Program for the 2024-2025 year, please call the office for more information. Classes are every Wednesday @ 6pm
All adults are welcome to attend!

Many people have said that what draw them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. As we reflect on recognizing Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread, think for a moment whether there is someone you could invite to Mass and to explore what else the Catholic faith might hold for them. Divine Mercy Sunday & Novena

Divine Mercy is a feast day celebrated on the second Sunday of Easter, which falls on April 27th, 2025. This celebration was instituted to honor God's mercy and compassion, revealed through the life and mission of Jesus Christ. In preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday, a 9 day novena is prayed, beginning on Good Friday. Each day of the novena has a different intention that is dear to the Heart of Jesus. The novena is intended to bring these souls to the "ocean of mercy" and to beg God for the graces needed for their salvation and well-being.

Day 1 Good Friday, April 18th: All mankind, sinners

Day 2 Holy Saturday, April 19th: The souls of priests and religious

Day 3 Easter Sunday, April 20th: All devout and faithful souls

Day 4 Easter Monday, April 21st: Those who do not believe in God and those who do not yet know Jesus

Day 5 Easter Tuesday, April 22nd: The souls who have separated themselves from the Church

Day 6 Easter Wednesday, April 23rd: The meek and humble souls and the souls of little children

Day 7 Easter Thursday, April 24th: The souls who especially venerate and glorify His mercy

Day 8 Easter Friday, April 25th: The souls who are detained in purgatory

Day 9 Easter Saturday, April 26th: The souls who have become lukewarm

Join us Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27th

Confession will start @ 2pm

Chaplet & Adoration starting @ 3pm

In the 1930's, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her Diary. St. Faustina's Diary records 14 occasions when Jesus requested that a Feast of Mercy (Divine Mercy Sunday) be observed.

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me. ...It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the First Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy.

-St. Faustina, Diary, no.699

Jesus encouraged the devotion to His Divine Mercy through three principle means: the image of Divine Mercy, the Feast of the Divine Mercy, and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is often prayed during the novena. This novena and the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday are intended to help individuals and communities deepen their understanding of God's mercy and to encourage them to trust in His love and forgiveness.
