pastor's message Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 30, 2022

Dear friends in Christ, the liturgy of the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C continues the theme of Jesus being the fulfillment of the prophesied Messiah. This weekend we continue to read from the gospel of Luke about the declaration of Jesus himself as the anticipated Messiah prophesied by the prophet Isaiah more that 500 years from the time of Jesus' birth. By this time the people of Israel have been in serious anticipation of the coming of the Messiah foretold from of old. When Jesus said after reading the book of the prophet Isaiah in the synagogue at Nazareth, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing", he basically declared himself as The One who is being referred to by this prophecy.

This scripture passage was known to all the Jews as referring to the Messiah. They saw clearly that Jesus was actually claiming to be the Messiah. The whole synagogue was stunned. He had grown up in their midst. He was the carpenter's son, the one they used to see weekly in this same synagogue. Why in the world would a local man come up with such a bizarre claim?

We are privileged because we know already why. We read in the gospel of Luke how Jesus when he got baptized at the river Jordan, the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in the form of a dove and a voice from the heavens said, "You are my beloved Son, and in you I am well pleased" (Lk. 3: 21-22). Through this scripture passage we know that Jesus' public ministry had begun. He was openly declared as the anointed servant of God, the Christ!

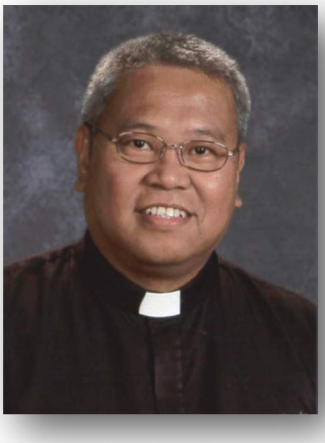
How were the Nazarenes supposed to have any understanding of this? He looked like a madman for them who is claiming equality with God! To them he was simultaneously insulting his hometown, his people, his country Israel, and God. Understandably they exclaimed, "He is out of his mind!"

When Jesus tells them that neither Elijah nor Elisha, two great prophets of Israel, could work their miracles in Israel, but went elsewhere to do them, they got angry and pull him out to a cliff to throw him off, planning to kill him. He escaped somehow but now the ball was in motion. This scene forecasts his remaining life. First loved and accepted, then led to his death. Thus, the saying, "No prophet is accepted in his own native place."

In the coming months we will see him carry out all of this. What will he do? We will find out. No, we already know. He will be faithful to his claim as the Messiah. He will end up dead on the cross. Let us be ready to follow him.

mensaje del parroco Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

30 de enero, 2022



Queridos amigos en Cristo, la liturgia del Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Año C, continúa con el tema de que Jesús es el cumplimiento del Mesías profetizado. Este fin de semana continuamos leyendo del evangelio de Lucas sobre la declaración del mismo Jesús como el Mesías anticipado profetizado por el profeta Isaías a más de 500 años del nacimiento de Jesús. En este momento, el pueblo de Israel ha estado en seria anticipación de la venida del Mesías predicho desde la antigüedad. Cuando Jesús dijo después de leer el libro del profeta Isaías en la sinagoga de Nazaret*: "Hoy se cumple este pasaje de la Escritura en presencia de ustedes"*, básicamente se declaró a sí mismo como Aquel a quien se refiere esta profecía.

Este pasaje de las Escrituras era conocido por todos los judíos como una referencia al Mesías. Vieron claramente que Jesús en realidad estaba afirmando ser el Mesías. Toda la sinagoga estaba atónita. Él había crecido en medio de ellos. Era el hijo del carpintero, al que veían semanalmente en esta misma sinagoga. ¿Por qué demonios se le ocurriría a un hombre local una afirmación tan extraña?

Somos unos privilegiados porque ya sabemos por qué. Leemos en el evangelio de Lucas cómo Jesús cuando fue bautizado en el río Jordán, los cielos se abrieron y el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre él en forma de paloma y una voz de los cielos dijo: "Tú eres mi Hijo amado, y en vosotros tengo complacencia" (Lc 3, 21-22). A través de este pasaje de las Escrituras sabemos que el ministerio público de Jesús había comenzado. ¡Él fue declarado abiertamente como el siervo ungido de Dios, el Cristo!

¿Cómo se suponía que los nazarenos tenían alguna comprensión de esto? ¡Parecía un loco para ellos que está reclamando la igualdad con Dios! Para ellos estaba insultando simultáneamente a su ciudad natal, a su pueblo, a su país Israel ya Dios. Comprensiblemente, exclamaron: "¡Está loco!".

Cuando Jesús les dice que ni Elías ni Eliseo, dos grandes profetas de Israel, pudieron hacer sus milagros en Israel, sino que fueron a otro lugar a hacerlos, ellos se enojaron y lo tiraron a un precipicio para tirarlo, planeando matarlo. Escapó de alguna manera, pero ahora la pelota estaba en movimiento. Esta escena pronostica su vida restante. Primero amó y aceptó, luego lo llevó a la muerte. De ahí el dicho: "Ningún profeta es acepto en su propia tierra".

En los próximos meses lo veremos llevar a cabo todo esto. ¿Que hará el? Vamos a averiguar. No, ya lo sabemos. Él será fiel a su pretensión como el Mesías. Terminará muerto en la cruz. Estemos listos para seguirlo.
