Imitation of the Holy Family

The Holy Family models for us what family life should exemplify. It is a school of virtue for both parents and children. There we find God, and learn how to connect with God and with others. The family is where love is freely given without self-interest. It is where we learn to love, to pray and to practice the gift of charity. Pope John Paul II has said, "The family, more than any other human reality, is the place in which the person is loved for himself and in which he learns to live the sincere gift of self" (Nov. 27, 2002).

We should ask ourselves if our own families model that of the Holy Family. We need to be open to God's grace to value the positive and to accept our mistakes — and to be willing to rectify them. Parenting is a very challenging responsibility and at times errors are made despite the best intentions. Recognizing this, children should trust their parents and never forget that parents want only what is best for them.

Which leads us to what may be the most important family virtue, forgiveness. Living so intimately within the family nucleus naturally gives rise to unpleasant situations where someone is apt to be offended. St. Paul knew this when he told us to "bear with and forgive one another." The health of our family may depend on how quickly we learn to forgive without harboring feelings of resentment.

No family can thrive and grow without constant work. Even the material details that take time and effort are essential to keeping the family strong. Everyone has to pull together for the good of the family, even to the point of putting ahead of our own needs and ambitions the happiness of other family members, setting aside our own selfish desires.

It is also important to pray as a family, especially the holy rosary. Prayer will help us to intensify our closeness with each other and to learn to forgive.

During this Year of the Eucharist it is essential to discover the relationship between the Eucharist and family life. Pope John Paul II wrote, "In the eucharistic gift of charity the Christian family finds the foundation and soul of its communion and its mission"

(Letter on the Family, No. 57). — Excerpted from The Holy Family models what family life should be, Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

February 13th - Feast of Blessed Brother James Miller

A native of Stevens Point and a De La Salle Christian Brother and missionary, Brother James Miller was gunned down while repairing a wall at the school where he worked in Huehuetenango, Guatemala on February 13, 1982.

He was declared a martyr and beatified by Pope Francis on December 7, 2019. He stands as an example of fidelity to the Gospel and humble and fearless service on behalf of the poor and the vulnerable.

Special Event Here at St Matthew's Church

Fri, March 10th at 6:30pm

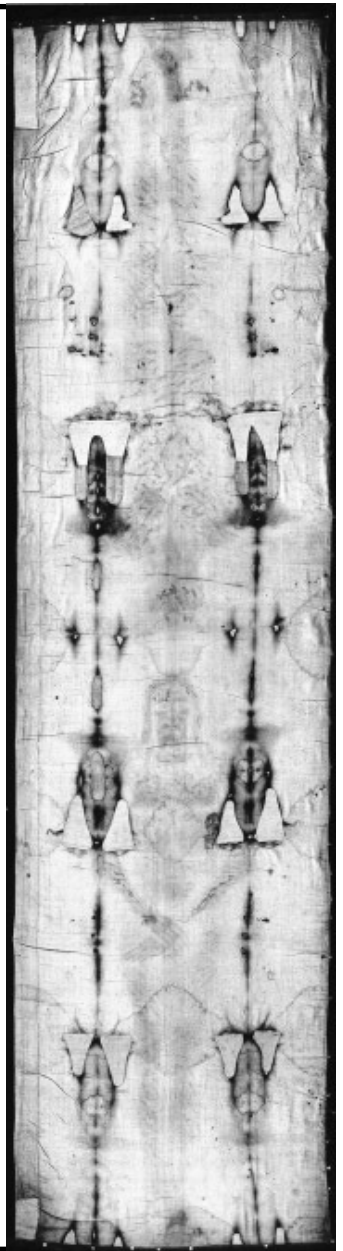

Sat, March 11 after 4:30 pm Mass

Sun, March 12 after 12:00 pm Mass

The Shroud of Turin is a centuries old linen cloth that bears the image of a beaten and crucified man. A man that millions believe to be Jesus of Nazareth. Is it really the cloth that wrapped His crucified body, or is it a medieval forgery, a hoax perpetrated by some clever artist? Modern science has completed hundreds of thousands of hours of intense research on the Shroud. It is, in fact, the single most studied artifact in human history. We now know more about it than ever before.

Tony Cherniawski is an expert on the Shroud of Turin and has traveled the USA sharing his knowledge. Tony will give three presentations here at our parish on March 10 at 6:30 pm, on March 11 right after our 4:30 pm Mass, and on Sunday, March 12 immediately after the 12:00 pm Mass. You will be able to learn more about this precious relic and see an exact replica of the Shroud for yourself.

We hope you are able to join us for one of Tony's presentations.

Stewardship: "the careful and responsible management of something entrusted to one's care."

Today's readings challenge us to reflect on the true state of our hearts regarding stewardship. Do we think of stewardship as something we take care of once a year? Simply ticking off boxes on a commitment card — or do we embrace it as a spirituality and way of life that allows us to grow in conformity to Christ every day?

Our first reading, from the book of Sirach, teaches that our good God has given us the freedom to make this choice. "Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him."

Stewardship helps us live out the fundamental choice to put God first. It is not meant to be a mere external exercise that we participate in on an occasional basis. Instead, it is intended to embrace a way of life, a life that involves a continuous conversion of heart.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus illustrates the difference between an external observance of the law and a true conversion of heart, saying, "You have heard that it was said... you shall not kill... But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment." Our Lord is asking us not only for exterior acts but also for a genuine change of heart. This means seeing everything as a gift from Him for His glory and the good of others.

Let us examine the state of our hearts. Are we putting God first and embracing a way of life that involves a continuous conversion of heart? The choice is ours.

VOTE: February 21 Wisconsin Supreme Court Election May Determine Abortion Law

The Wisconsin spring primary election will be held on Tuesday, February 21st. The highest stakes are for a new seat on the Wisconsin Supreme Court, and the outcome may well determine whether the current state statute that prohibits abortion will remain standing or be struck down. The Associated Press underscored this in a story titled, "Abortion front and center in Wisconsin Supreme Court race." To read that story and for links to learn more about the candidates for the State Supreme Court and other races, visit diolc.org/social-concerns.

Eucharistic Revival - A Minute with Jesus

Jesus wants us to know He is continually with us.

Oftentimes, our mind begins to wander at Mass because we only see bread and wine. What contributes to our distractions is the bombardment of noise and images in our mind that come through our physical senses (hearing, seeing). Therefore, we are much less attuned to the world of the spirit and the much deeper spiritual realities that are right here, all around us.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week:

"Jesus, help me to learn to be quiet and reveal to my heart the truth the Eucharist is really You present under the appearance of bread & wine."

This week, read about Jacob in the desert, who was very much afraid, and came to realize that God was present right there with him. As with Jacob, we can say as we pray before the Blessed Sacrament, "Surely the Lord is in this place, and I did not know it." (Genesis 28:10-17)

Circle of Joy - Important Note

In the last few months we have received several anonymous donations of cash or SCRIP cards of various amounts. It is the donors right to remain anonymous, but on behalf of the persons we've helped in various ways we want to publicly thank you for each and every dollar donated. We appreciate your generosity.

As all of us know and are feeling the results of inflation, it is doubly challenging for those on very low incomes. We continue to stretch dollars for the needy as far as we can. Thank you to all donors, anonymous & otherwise for all your donations which are all tax deductible.

NOTE: When submitting checks to us, please make them out to "WAUSAU WEST SIDE CIRCLE OF JOY" which is the official title of our Chapter of the Circle of Joy. There are 8 chapters in Marathon.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

Questions regarding donations or anything else may be directed to Karen @ 715-642-3717 or Lou @ 715-848-4177.

WE ARE THE HANDS OF YOUR CHARITABLE HEARTS.

Parents: Equipping you to navigate conversations with your kids around today's issues.

Take a look at www.Axis.org, which is a faith-based organization dedicated to helping parents and kids have meaningful conversations about important topics. Parents and their teens live in the same home in the same zip code, but they are from different cultures because they come from different generations. At Axis, they try to help you speak the same language. No matter where you are on your parenting journey, the Axis community is a place for you. Whether you are facing a tough conversation with your child and don't have the words to begin, or you're getting a jumpstart on the teenage years ahead, Axis is for you. Join us as we parent together from elementary to high school and beyond.

Information regarding hospitalizations

We check the hospitals to learn who may be there, but sometimes parishioners do not show up on the list.

PLEASE CALL THE OFFICE 715-842-3148 if you are admitted and/or if you would like to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick before surgery.
