24th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Catechetical Sunday

Peter approached Jesus and asked Him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." Mt 18:21-22

Saint Matthew, the first-century tax collector turned apostle who chronicled the life and ministry of Christ in his Gospel, is celebrated by the Church today, September 21. Although relatively little is known about the life of St Matthew, the account he wrote of Christ's ministry (traditionally considered to be the first of the four Gospels) is of inestimable value to the Church, particularly in its verification of Jesus as the Messiah.

Eastern Catholics and the Orthodox churches celebrate St Matthew on November 16, along with St Fulvianus, a prince who is recorded in some traditions as converting from paganism after Matthew's martyrdom.

The Gospel accounts of Mark and Luke, like Matthew's own, describe the encounter between Jesus and Matthew under the surprising circumstances of Matthew's tax-collecting duties. Jewish publicans, who collected taxes on behalf of the Roman rulers of first-century Judea, were objects of scorn and even hatred among their own communities, since they worked on behalf of the occupying power and often earned their living by collecting more than the state's due.

Jesus most likely first encountered Matthew near the house of Peter, in Capernaum near the Sea of Galilee. The meeting of the two was dramatic, as Matthew's third-person account in his Gospel captured: "As Jesus passed on," the ninth chapter recounts, "He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the customs post. He said to him, 'Follow Me'. And he got up and followed Him."

Matthew's calling into Jesus' inner circle was a dramatic gesture of the Messiah's universal message and mission, causing some religious authorities of the Jewish community to wonder: "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" Jesus' significant response indicated a central purpose of His ministry: "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

A witness to Christ's resurrection after death, as well as His ascension into heaven and the events of Pentecost, Matthew also recorded Jesus' instruction for the apostles to "go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

Like 11 of the 12 apostles, St Matthew is traditionally thought to have died as a martyr while preaching the Gospel. The Roman Martyrology describes his death as occurring in a territory near present-day Egypt.

Both the saint himself, and his Gospel narrative, have inspired important works of religious art, ranging from the ornate illuminated pages of the Book of Kells in the ninth century, to the Saint Matthew Passion of J.S. Bach. Three famous paintings of Caravaggio, depicting St Matthew's calling, inspiration and martyrdom, hang within the Contarelli Chapel in Rome's Church of St Louis of the French.

Reflecting on St Matthew's calling, from the pursuit of dishonest financial gain to the heights of holiness and divine inspiration, Pope Benedict said in 2006 that "in the figure of Matthew, the Gospels present to us a true and proper paradox: those who seem to be the farthest from holiness can even become a model of the acceptance of God's mercy and offer a glimpse of its marvelous effects in their own lives."

Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows

O Holy Virgin, in the midst of all your glory, we ask you not to forget the sorrows of this world. Cast a look of pity upon all who struggle against life's difficulties, and who cease not to feel all its bitterness. Have pity on all who have been separated from those they love. Have pity on the lonely and friendless. Pardon the weakness of our faith. Have pity on those whom we love. O Holy Mother, show a mother's compassion toward the sorrowful and those who tremble under life's afflictions. Give them hope and peace.

Amen

The Hateful Things We Hug Tight

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

At the end of "Lord of the Rings: Return of the King," Gollum fights with Frodo for possession of the One Ring. He wins the fight, but in doing so topples over the edge of the mountain ledge, falling into the cavernous fires of Mount Doom. As he falls, we see him smile, and clutch the ring to his chest. He is happy. He has won what he spent his life pursuing.

It is only in the last millisecond before his face slips below the lava that we see his eyes widen in terror as he realizes the truth: the thing he clutches to his heart is the thing that killed him. In choosing the ring, he chooses death.

Sin, and the fallen nature of this world, makes us addicted to something that kills us.

Like any addiction, it is a vicious cycle. The less we forgive, the more hardhearted we become ... and the less we seek forgiveness ourselves.

What breaks the cycle? Reconciliation with God — or, Confession, as we call it. In fact, it does more than break the cycle. It turns it backward. Not only does it detoxify our souls of sin, it weakens our addiction to sin's effects — anger, vengeance, unforgiveness. The confession of evil works, is the first beginning of good works, said St Augustine.

Ultimately, I view our whole human life as a struggle on the ledge of a mountaintop. It is certain that we will choose sin — we always do. We will tumble over the side, toward ruin. But let us be Frodo, and not Gollum. Let us cling to the rock of the sacraments and accept the hand that would drag us away from the flames.

"Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight."

Sirach 27:30

Eucharistic Revival A Minute with Jesus

The Vital Connection Between the Eucharist and Confession

Part of the greatest preparation we can make to receive Jesus' Body and Blood is to experience His forgiveness and healing in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. If there is sin in my heart, there is no room for Christ.

Jesus forgives us of our sins in confession and this frees us, opens our heart to fulfill the deepest desire of our heart - to receive Him. Receiving Jesus brings about a strengthening of faith, hope and charity - a desire to love Him, ourselves, and others.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week:

"Jesus, please give me the desire as soon as possible to make a good confession."

This week, read how St John describes the importance of confession in 1 John 1:9.

St Matthew Parish Catechists 2023 - 2024

This weekend we celebrate Catechetical Sunday across our nation. It is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role each of us plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. The theme for this year is "Come to Me all you who labor and are burdened" (Matthew 11:28). It reminds us of the invitation we receive from the Lord Jesus to follow Him and the promise that He doesn't want to add to our burdens, He wants to lighten them.

We are especially grateful to our catechists who lovingly and generously give their time, talent and love to teach our children and young adults.

St Matthew Ministry Fair

It is time to Connect, Grow, and Serve as a community of St. Matthew's Parish!!

Join your fellow St. Matthew Parishioners at the Ministry Fair in the Angelorum, this coming weekend and next, following Saturday and Sunday Masses.

At the Ministry Fair, we will have the opportunity to talk with those involved in the many ministries, committees, and community services our Parish has.

To help each of us see how we can better Connect, Grow, and Serve, look at the Survey Insert in this week's bulletin. This will help you and your family discern the interests and gifts you have and match them up to the many ministries, committees, and community services available at our Parish.

Do you see an area of ministry not listed that our Parish can grow in?? Then this is the place and time for you to share those ideas!

WE WELCOME YOU in any way you are able to Connect, Grow, and Serve with our St. Matthew's community and as members of the Body of Christ.

Bring your Completed Survey and your ideas with you to the Ministry Fair!! You can use it as a guide as you meet and talk to those involved in the ministries. Then enter your survey in the Raffle basket!

See you there!!!

He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain...Rev 21:4

Our Prayers & Sympathy go to the Family & Friends of:

James "Jim" Low

He died Sunday - September 10, 2023
He is the Husband of Sharon Low

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Amen

Saint Matthew's Feast Day Thursday, September 21st

The Word Among Us magazine offers the daily Mass readings, wonderful meditations, inspirational essays, stories of the saints and more! If you are interested in receiving a 1 year subscription, contact Judy Koy at: 715-675-9215 by Monday, October 16th.

"The WORD Among Us" starts with the December 2023 issue.
The cost is $20.00.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

"Let the children come to Me and do not hinder them."

Mark 10:14

Children's Liturgy of the Word is held every Sunday during the 10 am Mass celebration from September - May beginning September 17th.

The Children's Liturgy of the Word is designed for children ages 4 and up offering the opportunity for children to hear the Scripture in words they understand.

After the opening of the Mass, before the first reading, Fr Sebastian invites the children to come forward for a blessing and they are dismissed with the leader for the Liturgy of the Word.

The children follow the same format used in the Mass - including the readings, the psalm, Gospel Acclamation, a brief reflection on the reading, the profession of faith and prayer of the faithful. The children are escorted back to church to rejoin their family for the Liturgy of the Eucharist.
