Thanksgiving Life to the Fullest

By Bishop Arthur Serratelli (Nov 23, 2017)

Edited & used with permission
By Catholic News Agency

Like the pilgrims who gathered with their neighbors at Plymouth Rock after their first successful harvest in 1621, the early American colonists celebrated days of thanksgiving. When a drought ended or a war won, they would set aside a day to give thanks for the favorable outcome. After the victory over British forces in the Battle of Saratoga in 1777, the Continental Congress declared a Thanksgiving holiday. The thirteen original colonies stopped their ordinary routine in order "to acknowledge with gratitude their obligation to [Almighty God] for benefits received, and to implore ...farther blessings..."

Two years after the signing of the Constitution of the United States, on September 28, 1789, Congress asked President George Washington to name a national day of thanksgiving. Elias Boudinot, a statesman from New Jersey, introduced the resolution for this first national Thanksgiving Day. It was to be observed as a day of prayer.

Wasting no time, five days after receiving Congress' resolution, Washington designated Thursday, November 26, 1789 as that day of thanks for the blessings which God bestowed on our country. The tradition of celebrating such a day of thanks continued after that first national holiday. But not all states observed their Thanksgiving on the same day.

In the midst of the bloodshed of the civil war, President Lincoln harkened back to the example of the nation's first president. However, he declared not one, but two Thanksgiving celebrations. The first was on Thursday, August 6, 1863 to commemorate the Union's victory at Gettysburg. The second was a nationwide holiday, to be observed on the last Thursday of every November "as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens." Eventually, President Roosevelt standardized the celebration of Thanksgiving. On December 26, 1941, he established the fourth Thursday in November as the Thanksgiving Day holiday for the entire country.

Thanksgiving is in the life blood of America. From the very birth of our nation until today, Americans have set aside a day to express their gratitude to God for his goodness to us. As our first President so wisely proclaimed, "... it is the duty of all Nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor..."

On a natural level, an attitude of gratitude contributes to our mental health. Our consumer culture fosters the illusion that the more things we possess, the greater will be our happiness. But, the drive to have more and more things only makes us restless. It cannot make us happy. However, gratitude for what we do have, actually improves our well-being. It helps us enjoy our lives and form strong relationships with others. If we are not grateful, then, no matter how much we have, we will not be happy.

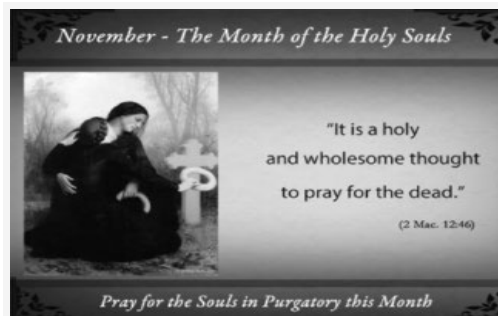

There is nothing that we possess that has not come from the generous hands of God. ... When we thank God for His blessings, we acknowledge Him as the source of all that is good. Such gratitude places us in the right relationship with God. ... "Those who offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving honor Me" (Ps 50:23).

Each year we pause as a nation to celebrate Thanksgiving. We take count of our many blessings: freedom, family, friends, and faith. Sorrows and hardships touch all our lives. Yet, each of us has many reasons to be thankful. As followers of Jesus, we heed the encouragement of St Paul to "pray without ceasing, giving thanks in all circumstances..." (1 Th 5:16-17). For a grateful heart turns even the simplest meal into a feast and makes us live in peace with our neighbors. Thanksgiving is not just a day. It is the way to live life to the fullest.

Four Reasons to be Thankful

1. Those who cultivate the habit of thankfulness experience true Christian joy. And isn't this something that we desire? When we count our many blessings, our attitude can turn away from any discouragement and lead us to be more generous with others.
2. The more we hear "thank you" come from our mouth, the more we notice what people are doing for us and it can help to shift an attitude of discouragement as well. Consider a person in your family you need to verbally thank for something specific; or thank a family member for who they are and what they mean to you. Growing in the habit of being thankful to God and others is well worth the effort.
3. We have every reason to be thankful. Jesus gave His life for us, experiencing the worst possible pain on the Cross, so that we can have eternal life with Him forever. And the Cross is in the shape of the letter "t" which reminds us of the word "thanksgiving." Giving thanks to Jesus will foster greater humility as we recognize His incredible love for us.
4. Being thankful leads to peace and calm, which keeps us healthy. When we focus on what we do have, rather than what we don't have, stress diminishes, our shoulders relax and we can function better in so many ways.

Can my prayers really help someone who has died?

During the month of November the Church remembers the faithful departed. Why? Because once you are baptized, you are a member of the Church for eternity; and even though our body dies, our soul lives forever.

On many occasions, Jesus spoke to us about heaven and hell. The Church has taken Our Lord's words seriously and teaches us that if we wish to go to heaven, we need to be in the state of grace when we die. However, a person may be in the state of grace when he or she dies, but may not have a completely pure soul, and only those souls that are completely pure enter heaven. As the Bible says, "nothing unclean can enter" heaven (Rev. 21:27). That's the purpose of purgatory: to purify our souls.

When a loved one dies, we often have unspoken regrets and wish we could have said "thank you" more often to them during life, or could have shown them greater love. By praying for the souls in purgatory, we can help them now and show our love. It is never too late.

Because souls in purgatory cannot pray for themselves, they need the faithful on earth to pray for them so they can enter into heaven more quickly. If you truly love your family and friends who have died, you should pray for them at Mass, in the Rosary, and other opportunities you have for prayer. During the month of November, try to gain a plenary indulgence for the faithful departed.

The Mass is the single most powerful prayer we can offer for a soul in purgatory. For that reason, since time immemorial, the Church allows a priest to celebrate three Masses on All Souls Day. Normally, the priest is allowed to celebrate only one Mass a day, but the needs of the souls in purgatory are so great, that on November 2nd, a priest can celebrate the Mass two more times.

So yes, your prayers, by God's grace, can really help someone who has died.

With prayers and best wishes,

Eucharistic Revival - A Minute with Jesus

Jesus is Our Greatest Friend

Jesus loves each one of us and desires to be with us always. Jesus gives Himself to us in the Holy Eucharist, so that He can live in our heart. The Holy Eucharist is Christ's Body and Blood. We know that Jesus is our greatest Friend because He gives Himself to us completely in the Holy Eucharist. The word Eucharist means thanksgiving.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week:

"God, help me not to prefer anything more than You, nor to substitute anything for You. Thank You for the grace that will always strengthen me to choose You above everything."

The Perfect Friend

- Always happy to see you.
- Ready to listen on a moment's notice.
- Gracious to forgive you.
- Full of great advice.
- Loves to encourage you.
- Available to lean on.
- Will stand by your side.
- Faithful to protect you.
- Will never leave you nor forsake you.

Thanksgiving Meals

The "Wausau West Side Circle of Joy" will, as in the past 50+ years, again be helping needy households enjoy a nice Thanksgiving dinner.

Many of the government programs families received have been cut or eliminated altogether. Those who receive S.N.A.P. cards are not able to stretch the amount they receive for an entire month. Food costs keep rising. FARMERS MARKETS are done for the season. Calls to us for all types of assistance have increased.

Due to continued Covid precautions, we will be handing out gift cards from local grocers & Kwik Trip to households depending on their size.

The following requested items are not available with S.N.A.P. cards. We would like to add these items to our Thanksgiving baskets:

- | | | |
|---------------------|---------------------|---------------|
| • Personal Products | • Cleaning Supplies | • Soap |
| • Paper Products | • Laundry Detergent | • Face Soap |
| • Paper Towels | • Shampoo | • Tooth Paste |
| • Toilet Paper | • Shower Gel | • Hand Lotion |

*If anyone has leftover Halloween candy they would like to donate, we'll take it!

The large blue bins are set up in the Angelorum for those collections. If you are so moved, please purchase SCRIP CARDS and/or PERSONAL PRODUCTS to help us in this endeavor.

All donations are tax deductible AND are distributed in the local area.

WE ARE THE HANDS OF YOUR CHARITABLE HEARTS.
