Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe into me, Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.

Move in me, Holy Spirit,
that my work, too, may be holy.

Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy.

Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy.

Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy.

Saint Augustine

Gospel Meditation

A Deeper Understanding of Scripture

by Father John Muir (edited) ©LPi

When Jesus breathes on His Apostles (John 20:22), he must have been within inches of at least some of them. This closeness of His breath has a purpose: the purpose of forgiveness of sins. "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them" (John 20:23).

In the Bible, breath is spirit or wind. It comes from above and makes that which is below to have identity. To not have a single identity is to be multiple, divided. The word "sin" comes from an ancient word that means "to split" or "render asunder". Sin divides us sinners and the world around us; our spiritual "breath" leaves us and our identity splinters. Only breath from above restores. For example, a shattered vase is rendered whole because the craftsman breathes the spirit of the vase back into it when he repairs it. A human being shattered by sin is made whole by the breath of God, breathed by Jesus through His priests. His breath alone forgives sins. It's always done with His gentle, loving closeness.

Reflection on Today's Readings

June 8, 2025 - Pentecost

Today, as we culminate the Easter season with the grand Feast of Pentecost, let's take a moment to reflect on the personal significance of this day. The readings of today's celebration fill us with awe as we witness the mighty power of the Holy Spirit at work, giving birth to and sustaining our Church. This same Spirit is reaching out to each one of us, individually, on this day, calling us to play our unique role in the Church's mission. You are not just a part of the crowd, but a significant individual in this divine plan.

In the first reading from Acts, we see the creative genius of the Holy Spirit at work through the newly confirmed Apostles, who began to speak in different languages as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim the gospel. The large crowd, gathered from all over the world, was amazed and astounded that each person could understand the Apostles speaking in their language.

Each one of us, regardless of age, is personally called today by the Holy Spirit into the same mission as that of the first Apostles, to advance the Kingdom of God in our corner of the world. This personal call from the Holy Spirit makes each of us feel individually addressed and important. Just as He did on that Pentecost day, the Holy Spirit speaks to us in our "own language" to give us the Good News of the Gospel and urge us to share it. We can think of our language as the gifts, talents, and passions we possess. We experience the presence of the Holy Spirit through them, and we are meant to put them to work in grateful service of the Kingdom of God.

When we think about the Christian way of life, we often focus on the challenges it presents. Surrendering ourselves to God is indeed a challenging way to live. However, it leads to a life that is not only challenging but also exciting, creative, and deeply rewarding. It is a life guided and directed by the very source of power and creativity, the Holy Spirit.

Eucharistic Revival - A Minute with Jesus

The Holy Spirit And The Eucharist

Even after the Apostles had experienced the Risen Christ, they were afraid. They gathered with Mary on the day of Pentecost and prayed behind locked doors, waiting as instructed for the Gift of the Holy Spirit. After the Holy Spirit descended upon them on Pentecost, the Apostles were no longer afraid and were equipped to fulfill their mission. It is the same for us today. When we receive the Eucharist, we also receive God the Holy Spirit, to abide in the depths of our hearts. If we allow Him, the Spirit of Truth will transform us and we will no longer be afraid, but be equipped with peace and strength for our mission. Let us then prepare for each Eucharistic encounter in the same way the Apostles prepared for Pentecost, "in prayer...with Mary..." (Acts 1:14).

Let's pray this now & each day this week-Sequence for Pentecost:

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from Your celestial home shed a ray of light divine! Come, Father of the poor! Come, source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. O most blessed Light divine, shine within these hearts of Yours, and our inmost being fill! Where You are not, we have naught, nothing good in deed or thought, nothing free from taint of ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour Your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away; Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore and confess You, evermore in Your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them Your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.

Prayer for the Help of the Holy Spirit

by St Anthony of Padua

O God, send forth your Holy Spirit into my heart that I may perceive,
into my mind that I may remember,
and into my soul that I may meditate.

Inspire me to speak with piety, holiness, tenderness and mercy.
Teach, guide, and direct my thoughts and senses
from beginning to end.

May your grace ever help and correct me,
and may I be strengthened now
with wisdom from on high,
for the sake of your infinite mercy.
Amen
