Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: All peoples, clap your hands. / Cry to God with shouts of joy!

GLORIA—Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading— God did not make death, / nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. / For he fashioned all things that they might have being; / and the creatures of the world are wholesome, / and there is not a destructive drug among them / nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, / for justice is undying. / For God formed man to be imperishable; / the image of his own nature he made him. / But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, / and they who belong to his company experience it. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O Lord, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O Lord, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R.

Sing praise to the Lord, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R.

Hear, O Lord, and have pity on me; O Lord, be my helper. You changed my mourning into dancing;

R.

O Lord, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

Second Reading— Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also. For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written: / Whoever had much did not have more, / and whoever had little did not have less.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel—[When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, “My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live.” He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.]

There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, “If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured.” Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who has touched my clothes?” But his disciples said to Jesus, “You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, ‘Who touched me?’ ” And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.”

[While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official’s house arrived and said, “Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?” Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, “Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.” And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child’s father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koum,” which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise!” The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.]

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ. APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

How to Make an Act of Perfect Contrition

1 — Call to mind your sins.

2 — Reflect on God's tremendous and unconditional love for you and how your sin offends that love. Express your sorrow.

3 — Make the intention to go to sacramental confession as soon as it is possible for you with the intention of mentioning any mortal sins forgiven through your perfect act of contrition.

4 — Pray an Act of Contrition:

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Wisdom 1:13-15, 2:23-24/psalm 30/2 Corinthians 8:7, 99, 13-15/Mark 5:21-24, 35b-43

The Holy Spirit through wisdom is reminding us we are created for being, truly imperishable, yet by the envy of the devil death entered the world. The Psalmist is encouraging us to sing praise to the Lord for he has rescued us. The Holy Spirit through 2 Corinthians is encouraging us to excel in faith in the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his poverty dies for us, so we may live. Jesus is teaching us to have faith that he brings the dead (all of us) to life. Father I give you thanks and praise to you for the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ. Protect all your children from the devil, and open our hearts to live fully as you created us to live one with you in Christ. I ask you this in Jesus. Amen. Most Holy Virgin Mary pray for us. St. Joseph pray for us. St. Anthony pray for us.

St. Junípero Serra O.F.M.

Feast Day July 1st
 (November 24, 1713 – August 28, 1784)
 Junipero Serra was a Roman Catholic Spanish priest and friar of the Franciscan Order. He is credited with establishing the Franciscan Missions in the Sierra Gorda, a UNESCO World

Heritage Site. He later founded a mission in Baja California and the first nine of 21 Spanish missions in California from San Diego to San Francisco, in what was then Spanish-occupied Alta California in the Province of Las Californias, New Spain.

Serra was beatified by Pope John Paul II on 25 September 1988 in the Vatican City. Pope Francis canonized Serra on 23 September 2015 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C., during his first visit to the United States. Serra's missionary efforts earned him the title of "Apostle of California".

Both before and after his canonization, Serra's reputation and missionary work during the Spanish occupation have been condemned by critics, who cite alleged mandatory conversions to Catholicism, followed by abuse of the Native American converts.

The Knights of Columbus have a wonderful article responding to these critics and allegations. Follow the link for more information: <https://www.kofc.org/en/news-room/st-junipero-serra-documentary/index.html>
