Pastor's Notes

There's no harm in avoiding trouble, is there? Common sense teaches us to endure the problems we already have and then avoid the rest. No one in their right mind purposely courts disaster. Or do they?

For the early church, there was no way to proclaim Jesus and avoid persecution. Believers made a willing, active choice to step out into trouble, welcoming the harshest of penalties, even death. And that willingness to sacrifice is still part of our Christian walk today. Jesus tells us we must "take up" our cross to be worthy of Him. It is not enough to merely endure the small troubles of life and living. We must be willing instead to reach down and lift Jesus' cross of self-sacrifice and self-denial to our shoulders, willingly accepting the sorrows it may bring. As we carry our cross faithfully behind Him, we proclaim ourselves true believers, loving Him and His Gospel more than our own comfort and security.

Courting disaster? Maybe, but the end reward is more than we could find in any other way.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
And I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

TOMORROW'S OPPORTUNITY

If we might have a second chance
To live the days once more,
And rectify mistakes we've made
To even up the score.

If we might have a second chance
To use the knowledge gained,
Perhaps we might become at last
As fine as God ordained.
But though we can't retrace our steps
However, stands the score,
Tomorrow brings another chance
For us to try once more.
