From the Pastor's Desk

Depending on your denominational background, the minister who preached every Sunday, or your grandmother who took you under her spiritual wing, you have developed an image of God's character.

This impression affects how we pray, how we read the Word of God, and how we expect our heavenly Father to respond to our earthly situation.

In Mark 6:30-34, we gain an insight into how the Son of God revealed His Father's character, and also how God looks at us. We are, as the text describes, "sheep without a shepherd." If Christ is our Good Shepherd, then that must mean we are...?

Understanding ourselves as "sheep" will bring us closer to this God we follow.

Seven Considerations While Navigating Infertility

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/navigating-infertility.

We often assume parenthood happens easily after "I do," but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens.

Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility: after giving birth to one or more children, they are unable to have another. If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that God is with you, and that He has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple.

God is with you, and His Church desires to walk with you.

You are not alone; His Church desires to walk with you. The full article at the website listed above contains compassionate, practical guidance, intended primarily for married couples struggling with infertility, though others may also find it to be informative.
