Advent Angel Tree

This Advent season, our parish is honored to support the Advent Angel Tree in partnership with the Sisters of Mary World Villages for Children. For more than 60 years, the Sisters of Mary have dedicated their lives to serving “the poorest of the poor” in six countries: the Philippines, Mexico, Guatemala, Brazil, Honduras, and Tanzania. Their mission empowers children to break the cycle of poverty and protects them from the dangers of trafficking, violence, and more.

Today, the Sisters provide over 21,000 children with a safe home, three nutritious meals a day, quality education, healthcare, faith formation, and HOPE for a better future. There are more than 170,000 graduates that have been given the chance to build brighter futures—thanks to the life-changing work of the Sisters. Fr Luke and some of our parishioners have witnessed the transformative power of the Sisters of Mary and this advent we can all support this work of God. In this season of giving, we invite you to make a meaningful donation, bringing hope and joy!

Please select a tag off the tree or visit <https://worldvillages.org/angel-tree-parishes/> and help the Sisters of Mary. If you would rather write a check, you can drop it off at the office and Fr Luke will send the checks to the home office.

God’s Blessings this Advent!
