Meditation for the Week

“On this special day, we celebrate twin milestones: Jesus’ ascension from earth to heaven and the commissioning of the disciples. Before Jesus left them, he told his disciples to preach in his name to all the nations, from Jerusalem to the ends of the earth. Then his apostles saw him lifted up and out of their sight, never to return in bodily form until the end of time. As his disciples, let us carry on the mission of the first apostles, trusting that the Holy Spirit will guide us and empower us to be witnesses to the world of Jesus’ love and forgiveness.” (Pastoral Patterns)

Acts 1:1–11 As the Apostles were looking on, Jesus was lifted up.

Psalms 47 "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord."

Ephesians 1:17–23 Christ is the head of the church; where he is we are called to follow.

Luke 24:46–53 As he blessed them, he was taken up to heaven.

“Besides his Gospel, Saint Luke also wrote the Acts of the Apostles. Today we get to hear the ending of one and the beginning of the other, for Jesus’ ascension marks the transition between the two. As Luke writes, the Gospel deals with what Jesus said and did while on earth and Acts May 29 or June 1, 2025 23 begins with Jesus giving his disciples a mission. As we carry on this mission, let us realize how Jesus is still present with us today: in each other, in those in need, when we gather in his name, in the Eucharist, and in the proclamation of the word. Listening to his word now, let us be aware of his constant and enduring presence.” (Pastoral Patterns)
