Meditation for the Week

"Today we celebrate the two principal apostles of the early church. Saints Peter and Paul took two completely different routes to their vocation. Peter was called personally by Jesus, traveled with him during his entire ministry, and became the preeminent disciple among the Twelve. Paul, on the other hand, persecuted the early church until he was called and converted by the Risen Lord on his way to arrest Christians in Damascus. May these two saints remind us that God calls us all at different times in our lives and in different ways." (Pastoral Patterns)

Acts 12:1–11 The angel of the Lord rescues Peter.

Psalm 34 "The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him."

2 Timothy 4:6-8,17-18 "I have finished the race."

Matthew 16:13-19 "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

"Because today we celebrate two saints who lived during the time that the New Testament was written, our readings feature significant events from their lives. We hear how Peter is freed from prison by an angel the night before he is to be executed. Paul, knowing that he would soon give his life for his faith, writes a farewell to his close friend and fellow disciple, Timothy. In the Gospel, Peter proclaims Jesus as the Messiah, the Christ. May their strong faith in the Lord be a model for us." (Pastoral Patterns)
