"From the Organ bench..."

"Hail the day that sees him Rise"

A blessed Solemnity of the Ascension to you all!

You'll notice we Catholics love our numbers. Especially the number 40. 40 days after the Birth of Our Lord, he was presented in the Temple. We celebrated this last February 2nd. Our Lord spent 40 days in the desert which we today observe as Lent. 40 days after the Resurrection, our Lord Ascended into Heaven. Although traditionally the Ascension was celebrated last Thursday (the literal 40th day after Easter) in most Dioceses/Archdioceses in the United States, the celebration is transferred to the following Sunday.

For our offertory hymn, we sing "Hail the day that sees him Rise". The words were originally written by Charles Wesley (1707-1788) edited by Charles Cotteril (1779-1823) and the "Alleluias" were added in by George White in 1852. The lyrics speak of Christ's Ascension and reign from Heaven, with a view toward his second coming and eternal life for us.

If the melody sounds familiar, its because we've been singing the same hymn tune the last few weeks to the lyrics of "Christ the Lord is Risen today". The hymn tune is Welsh in origin and is named "Llanfair".

Although the Solemnity of the Ascension is a great feast unto itself, it also marks a period of preparation for the Church's 3rd greatest feast of the year, Pentecost which we celebrate next week. This is reflected in one of our Communion hymns "Healing River of the Spirit".

ST. GREGORY THE GREAT SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY 2024-2025

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools. While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.
