1st SUNDAY OF ADVENT
Nov. 27, 2022

We can embrace and relish each moment of our lives as a sacred sacrament or nonchalantly and robotically attend to what life presents. We have our feet in two worlds. One is holy and sacred, and the other is profane and secular. Which one has the greater claim on us? To what do we devote most of our energy? We can easily be consumed with the particular demands and essentials of daily life: family, work, obligations, and the like, that we don't really notice anything more than what is right before us. We become masters at "doing" and neglect our need to "savor." Jesus reminds his friends that "as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away." While certain things require our daily attention, we cannot become so consumed with them that we fail to see the larger picture of what is coming. For the Christian, Advent is the time to pause, reflect, and savor. It is a time to see life as a sacrament of the moment and not just an investment in secular interests, pleasures, and personal obligations. It is easy to get distracted, lazy, preoccupied, and tired. Apathy can quickly wreak havoc on the most dedicated of souls. Whatever we can do this Advent season to be more attentive, focused, alert, and watchful will serve us well. It will make us eager and well-prepared to meet our Lord when he comes. It is for certain that he will come. Who made me? What is my purpose? What will happen to me when I die? These are pivotal questions that, in life's busyness, we hardly find time to ask and answer. They define who we are, and the answers we provide serve as guideposts and anchors in the seas of our lives. Advent is the perfect time to make friends with our souls. It is a time to perk ourselves up, open our eyes, ears, and hearts and seek God's presence in the simple moments of our lives. God is with us. Ask God to grant you a deeper appreciation for His presence and the gift of attentiveness.

Many Thanks to all who donated turkeys, monetary donations, and food items. Without all your generosity we would not have been able to accomplish our mission--- to serve our neighbors in need. Thank you to all who assisted in the distribution (especially our CCD students) -- We couldn't have done it without you. God Bless You All and Thank You So Much!

You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God. 2 Corinthians 9:11

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Being Surprised by Christ

Some people hate surprise parties. There are those who are uncomfortable with a last-minute vacation or even an unexpected travel upgrade. If it wasn't part of the plan, it's a cause for consternation. There is a temptation to view these folks as curmudgeonly — sticks in the mud, obsessed with predictability. But I think if we're being honest, there's a little bit of the surprise-averse in all of us. Deep within the very heart of the element of surprise is a kernel of shock. And shock, in the moment, can feel similar to trauma. If we reflect on the most traumatic occurrences of our lives — a loss, an accident, a calamity — it is likely that we will say this: "It was the shock more than anything that got to me." Grief or fear, those feelings were overwhelming as well, but they came later. In the first moment, all we knew was we were going about our lives on one path until we were thrust on a different one and then the whole future changed. This is the natural rhythm of our life here on earth. We never know what is coming — which is to say, in a beautiful way, we always know what is coming. More importantly, we know Who is coming. Like the early riser who sets the "pre-alarm" (the one on which he knows he's going to hit snooze just to take the edge off the disappointment of waking up), we are always being given a heads-up in Scripture. From the earliest prophecies of the Messiah to Jesus' reminders in the Gospel to the very last words of Revelations, God has communicated to His stewards: You know the time. The time is now. We are called to constant vigilance, perpetual renewal, steadfast accountability. In the end, the coming of Christ may be the only event in history that was a surprise, but not a shock — and so it will only be beautiful, even for those who hate surprise parties.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Ser sorprendido por Cristo

Algunas personas odian las fiestas sorpresa. Hay quienes se sienten incómodos con unas vacaciones de última hora o incluso con una actualización de viaje inesperada. Si no era parte del plan, es motivo de consternación. Existe la tentación de ver a estas personas como cascarrabias: palos en el barro, obsesionados con la previsibilidad. Pero creo que, si somos honestos, hay un poco de aversión a las sorpresas en todos nosotros. En lo profundo del corazón mismo del elemento sorpresa hay un núcleo de conmoción. Y el shock, en el momento, puede sentirse similar a un trauma. Si reflexionamos sobre los sucesos más traumáticos de nuestras vidas (una pérdida, un accidente, una calamidad), es probable que digamos esto: "Fue el shock más que nada lo que me afectó." La aflicción o el miedo, esos sentimientos también eran abrumadores, pero llegaron después. En un primer momento, todo lo que sabíamos era que íbamos con nuestras vidas en un camino hasta que nos empujaron a otro diferente y luego todo el futuro cambió. Este es el ritmo natural de nuestra vida aquí en la tierra. Nunca sabemos lo que viene, es decir, de una manera hermosa, siempre sabemos lo que viene. Más importante aún, sabemos quién viene. Al igual que el madrugador que establece la "pre-alarma" (aquella en la que sabe que va a presionar el botón de dormitar solo para aliviar la decepción de despertarse), siempre se nos da un aviso en las Escrituras. Desde las primeras profecías del Mesías hasta los recordatorios de Jesús en el Evangelio hasta las últimas palabras del Apocalipsis, Dios ha comunicado a Sus corresponsables: Vosotros sabéis el tiempo. El tiempo es ahora. Estamos llamados a una vigilancia constante, una renovación perpetua, una rendición de cuentas constante. Al final, la venida de Cristo puede ser el único evento en la historia que fue una sorpresa, pero no un shock, por lo que solo será hermoso, incluso para aquellos que odian las fiestas sorpresa.

PRIMER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO
27 de Noviembre de 2022

Nuevo año litúrgico, ciclo A, tiempo de Adviento. Dejamos atrás el Evangelio de san Lucas e iniciamos el viaje con san Mateo. Su Evangelio fue escrito en griego, por los años 80-90, posiblemente en una de las ciudades más importantes del imperio: Antioquía de Siria. En Mateo, Jesús es el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, el Señor Resucitado. ¿Para ti quien es Jesús? ¿Para tu familia y amigos quien es Jesús? Vale la pena iniciar con estas preguntas en este tiempo de Adviento, tiempo de espera, de cambio, de luz, de celebrar el nacimiento de Jesús en el corazón de cada creyente. Cuando llegue la Navidad nuestra familia debe estar preparada y nuestra oración de aquí a entonces debe ser: Jesús, no tardes en llegar, ven pronto. Hay que estar preparados, nos dice el Evangelio, en vela, despiertos para esperar al Señor. "El Señor viene; hoy, primer día del año litúrgico, este anuncio marca el tiempo de la partida: sabemos que, más allá de cualquier acontecimiento favorable o contrario, el Señor no nos deja solos… He aquí la fuente de nuestra alegría: el Señor no se ha cansado y no se cansará nunca de nosotros, desea venir, visitarnos (Papa Francisco). Es tiempo de preparar el espíritu para que esté listo, revestirnos de Cristo. La Iglesia nos ayuda a esta preparación con sus catequesis, con sus símbolos. Y los personajes del Adviento también son de gran ayuda. Los profetas, José y María, Juan Bautista. ¡Ven Señor, no tardes en venir!

LIVE THE LITURGY
Whether it is the surgeon performing an operation or the pilot directing a flight, one expects them to be alert. When we entrust our lives to someone, we presume that they will attend to them with the utmost care and vigilance. If we have this expectation of others, why would we not have it of ourselves? Our lives are precious vessels on an eternal journey. We can only stay afloat and on the course because of God's love and mercy. It is easy to get distracted, lazy, preoccupied, and tired. Apathy can wreak havoc on the most dedicated of souls. God's word transforms all that it touches, even a lukewarm heart. Let us seek God's grace this Advent season so that we can walk more fully in His light. Then, finding ourselves more attentive, focused, alert, and watchful, we will be eager and well prepared to meet our Lord when He comes. Why would we not want to be ready, awake, and watchful for the One we have waited for so long?

CLASES PRE-BAUTISMALES
La siguiente clase pre-bautismal será en enero del 2023.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA
Ya sea el cirujano que realiza una operación o el piloto que dirige un vuelo, se espera que estén alerta. Cuando confiamos nuestra vida a alguien, suponemos que la atenderá con sumo cuidado y vigilancia. Si tenemos esta expectativa de los demás, ¿por qué no la tendríamos de nosotros mismos? Nuestras vidas son vasijas preciosas en un viaje eterno. Solo podemos mantenernos a flote y en curso gracias al amor y la misericordia de Dios. Es fácil distraerse, ser perezoso, preocupado y cansado. La apatía puede causar estragos en las almas más dedicadas. La palabra de Dios transforma todo lo que toca, incluso un corazón tibio. Busquemos la gracia de Dios en esta temporada de Adviento para que podamos caminar más plenamente en Su luz. Entonces, encontrándonos más atentos, concentrados, alertas y vigilantes, estaremos ansiosos y bien preparados para encontrarnos con nuestro Señor cuando venga. ¿Por qué no querríamos estar listos, despiertos y vigilantes para Aquel a quien hemos esperado durante tanto tiempo?

MISALES EN ESPAÑOL están disponibles en la tiendita de regalos y en la oficina por $5

ESCALANDO POR LA VIDA es un evento pro-vida que se celebra una vez al año en varios lugares de Texas. Este evento recauda fondos para los Centros de Recursos para el Embarazo y los grupos Pro-vida del área para crear conciencia sobre la dignidad de toda vida humana desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural. El Obispo Mark Seitz ha estado participando en Hike for Life durante muchos años. Continuamos con su tradición y estamos haciendo todo lo posible para salvar vidas. Estamo entusiasmados con "Bishop's" Hike for Life de este año. ¡Se llevará a cabo en el Monte Cristo Rey, el 10 de diciembre de 8 am a 12 pm!
