ENTRANCE

Lead Me, Lord John D. Becker

1. Blessed are the poor in spirit, longing for their Lord, for God's coming kingdom shall be theirs.
Blessed are the sorrowing, for they shall be consoled,
and the meek shall come to rule the world.

Refrain

Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord,
by the light of truth
to seek and to find the narrow way.
Be my way; be my truth;
be my life, my Lord,
and lead me, Lord, today.

2. Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs,
and the pure in heart shall see their God.
Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill,
for I say they shall be satisfied.

3. Blest are they who through their lifetimes
sow the seeds of peace;
all will call them children of the Lord.
Blest are you, though persecuted in your holy life,
for in heaven, great is your reward.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

"I LOVE YOU, Lord, my strength."

MASS FOR CHURCH UNITY

COMMUNION

Christians, Let Us Love One Another
PICARDY

1. Christians, let us love one another,
As we share the true living bread.
Jesus is our God and our brother;
With his flesh and blood we are fed.
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.

2. We who break this bread are one body,
We who share this cup are all one.
Children of our Father in heaven,
We are heirs with God's only son.
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.

3. We who eat and drink at this table
Die and rise again with our Lord.
Drawing from our Rock living water
Giv'n to all who thirst for accord.
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.

4. On the path of life we may falter,
Earthly food alone leaves us weak;
Always you invite from the altar,
"Hungry souls their food here must seek."
Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.

RECESSIONAL

Take the Word of God with You

Christopher Walker

1. Take the word of God with you as you go.
Take the seeds of God's word and make them grow.

Refrain

Go in peace to serve the world,
in peace to serve the world.
Take the love of God,
the love of God with you as you go.

2. Take the peace of God with you as you go.
Take the seeds of God's peace and make them grow.

3. Take the joy of God with you as you go.
Take the seeds of God's joy and make them grow.

From the Pastor's Desk

The central message of today's readings is the most fundamental principle of all religions, especially Christianity. It is to love God in loving others and to love others in loving God. In other words, it is loving God living in others. The prayers, bible reading, sacraments, sacrifices, and all other religious practices are meant to help us grow in this relationship of love.

Scripture lessons: The first reading presents Moses as explaining the Law to the Israelites after his return from Mount Sinai. He tries to make the people reverence and obey the Law as something that will bring them dignity and purpose, stature and distinction and a unique place in history. He reminds us to love God by keeping His commandments. He also describes the blessings reserved for those who obey the commandments. The second reading tells us how Jesus, the eternal and holy high priest, offered himself as a sacrifice on the cross to demonstrate God's love for us. Paul affirms that Jesus, the new High Priest, is superior to the old High Priests for three reasons: 1) He doesn't die and so doesn't need to be replaced generation after generation; 2) He is sinless, so he need not offer sacrifices for his own sins; and 3) The Jewish priests were appointed according to the Law, but Jesus is appointed by the word of God. In today's Gospel a Scribe asked Jesus to summarize the most important of the Mosaic Laws in one sentence. Jesus cited the first sentence of the Jewish Shema prayer: "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength" (Deuteronomy 6:4). Then He added its complementary law: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Leviticus 19:18). Thus, Jesus says that true religion is loving God and loving our fellow human beings at the same time, which means the only way a person can demonstrate real love of God is by showing genuine, active love for his neighbor.

Life Messages:

#1 How do we love God? We must keep God's commandments, and offer daily prayers of thanksgiving, praise and petition. We must also read and meditate on His word in the Bible, and attend Mass and other liturgical functions. If I am going to love God with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength, then I am going to have to place His will ahead of mine. It means that I may have to say no to some things that I might want to do. It means that I am going to have to seek the Lord's will and make it paramount in my life.

#2 Loving our neighbor. This means that we have to help, support, encourage, forgive, and pray for everyone, without discrimination based on color, race, gender, age, wealth, or social status. If I am going to love my neighbor as I love myself, it will cost me as well! I may have to seek forgiveness when I have done no wrong. I may have to sacrifice something I think I need to meet a brother's need. I may have to give up time to help someone. I may have to spend time in prayer for people, go to them, and reach out to them in the name of the Lord.

True Love of Neighbor

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – True Love of Neighbor
Jesus highlights the importance of loving our neighbor. Faith is not a private matter but must be shared and actively lived in charity toward our brothers and sisters. Woe to us if we observe a neighbor in need and do not seek to minister to his/her needs. In the Old Testament, God instructed the Jewish people to show love and mercy toward Gentiles, aliens, and the poor. Now Jesus reiterates and expands this commandment to all people. As John writes in his first letter, "But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him, how does the love of God abide in him?" (1 John 3:17). If we truly love God, then we will have deep concern for the welfare of those in need.

When we speak of the "environment," what we really mean is a relationship existing between nature and the society which lives in it. Nature cannot be regarded as something separate from ourselves. We are a part of nature and thus in constant interaction with it. Currently, we are not faced with two separate crises one environmental and the other social, but one complex crises that is both social and environmental. LS: 139
