ENTRANCE

Crown Him with Many Crowns

DIADEMATA/George J. Elvey

1. Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
All kingdoms of the earth resound
In praise of him alone.
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee,
And hail him as thy risen King
For all eternity.

2. Crown him the Lord of life,
Who triumphed o'er the grave,
Who on the third day did arise
And hope to sinners gave.
His glory now we sing,
Who died and rose on high,
Who came eternal life to bring,
Who lives, no more to die.

3. Crown him the Lord of heav'n,
Where angels sing above;
Crown him the King, to whom is giv'n
The wondrous name of Love.
Crown him with many crowns,
As thrones before him fall.
Throughout the earth his praise resounds
For he is Lord of all.

Martin Willett

1. Those who were in the dark
are thankful for the sunlight;
we who live, we who die

Behold, behold the Lamb of God.

All who eat, all who drink shall live;
and all, all who dwell in God
shall come to know his glory.

2. Peaceful now, those whose hearts are blessed with understanding united with his word and the love we share.

3. Gentle one, Child of God,
join with us at this table.
Bless our lives; nourish all who hunger for this feast; shelter them with peace.

4. Lord of all, give us light.
Deliver us from evil.
Make us one; be our shield.
Make still the winds that blow; cradle us with love.

From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday, at the end of Church's liturgical year, the readings describe the enthronement of the victorious Christ as King in Heaven in all his glory. Instituting this Feast of Christ the King, Pope Pius XI proclaimed: "Pax Christi in regno Christi" (the peace of Christ in the reign of Christ). This means that we live in the peace of Christ when we surrender our lives to him every day, accept him as our God, Savior and King and allow him to rule our lives.

Scripture lessons: The first reading, taken from the book of Daniel, tells of the mysterious Son of Man (with whom Jesus would later identify himself), coming on the clouds, glorified by God and given dominion that will last forever. Today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 93), proclaims, "The Lord is King," celebrating the God of Israel as King over all creation. In the second reading, taken from the Book of Revelation, the risen Christ comes amid the clouds as the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last of all things. In today's Gospel, Jesus asserts before Pilate that he is a king and clarifies that his kingdom "does not belong to this world." He rules as King by serving others rather than by dominating them; his authority is rooted in truth, not in physical force, and his Kingdom, the reign of God, is based on the beatitudes. Jesus has come to bear witness to the truth: about God and His love for us, about himself as the Son of God, and about us as the children of God. There are plenty of texts proving the kingship of Jesus both in the Old Testament and in the New Testament of the Bible.

Life Messages:

#1 We need to accept Christ the King as our Lord, King and Savior and surrender our lives to him. We surrender our lives to Jesus every day when we give priority to his teaching in our daily choices, especially in moral decisions. We should not exclude Christ our King from any area of our personal or family lives. In other words, Christ must be in full charge of our lives, and we must give him sovereign power over our bodies, our thoughts, our heart, and our will.

#2 We need to accept Jesus Christ as our serving King. Jesus claimed that he came not to be served, but to serve, and showed us the spirit of service by washing the feet of his disciples. We become his followers when we recognize his presence in everyone, especially the poor, the sick, the outcast and the marginalized in the society, and render humble and loving service to Jesus in each of them.

#3 We need to accept Jesus Christ as the King of love. Jesus came to proclaim to all of us the Good News of God's love and salvation, gave us his new commandment of love: "Love one another as I have loved you," and demonstrated that love by dying for us sinners. We accept Jesus as our King of love when we love others as Jesus loved, unconditionally, sacrificially and with agape love.

Laudato Si': "Praise be to you" - Care for Our Common Home

"In the heart of this world, the Lord of life, who loves us so much, is always present. He does not abandon us, He does not leave us alone, for He has united himself definitively to our earth, and His love constantly impels us to find new ways forward. Praise be to Him!"

-Pope Francis, Laudato Si'

Dear Church Community of Our Lady of Sorrows,

On behalf of our Community and Team of Misioneros Maristas Bolivia, I sincerely thank you for your warm hospitality, generosity and sharing with us on the occasion of our recent Mission Appeal in your parish.

Know that you are remembered in our community prayer daily and, in a special way, we remember our dear friends of the Archdiocese of St. Louis on the 4th of each month.

Normally four times during the year we send out from our mission a circular letter to our friends and those in solidarity with us. If you should wish to receive this, then you can advise us using our email address cebstarija@yahoo.com.mx. We would be glad also to hear from the parish during the year.

With gratitude,

Fraternally:

Fr. John Hopkinson [Misioneros Maristas, Bolivia]

Light up our Church!

Happy November everyone! As we enter into this magical time of year, we have already been planning and discussing the lights on the parish grounds. This year will be bigger and better and might even include a special night or two with fun events to come see. To put a display together it takes a lot of help and time. Any help is appreciated as we need folks to climb ladders, stretch wires, fluff garland, paint names on ornaments and many more tasks. We are looking for volunteers for Saturday November 20th or November 27th. These would be our major decorating days and we would start at 9:00am. We will meet by the doors to Faenger Hall. For any questions, contact Brad Trower at olstreeofhope@gmail.com.

Sponsoring a tree/Buying an ornament

With the success of last year's Rhodes tree and ornament sales for the "Tree of Hope" in the courtyard, both will be returning. The tree sponsorship will begin November 21st and will be available after Mass from 11am-12:30pm.

We are adding more trees to this year's lineup starting at $30.00 and going up to $100.00. Ornaments can also be purchased at this same time. All money collected from these sales directly goes to help offset the cost of the display. There is a lot of behind the scenes cost that extend far beyond strings of lights.

For any questions, contact Brad Trower at olstreeofhope@gmail.com.

St. Francis Adopt a Family for Christmas Program

OLS parishioners have, for many years, made Christmas special for families served by St. Francis Community Services Southside. In 2020 during the pandemic, changing the format from wrapped gifts to gift cards gave families the ability to shop for what they truly needed--for example, some people were able to restock their food supply with foods their family would eat.

With these lessons learned, St. Francis Community Services is moving forward with the new normal for the Adopt a Family for Christmas Program. If anyone, or group of folks, would like to adopt a family, which means purchasing gift cards for each family member as well as a family gift card, or send a donation that allows staff to buy the gift cards for the family, please fill out the Adopt a Family for Christmas Sign Up Form on their website at <https://sfcsstl.org/adoptafamily/>

St. Francis has over 230 families and senior individuals to adopt this year. They ask that the word be spread around.
