Lent

MARCH 12, 2023

*Jesus said, “Whoever drinks the water I shall give
will never thirst;
the water I shall give
will become in them a
spring of water welling
up to eternal life.”*

John 4:14

Third Sunday of Lent

Word of the Lord Missal, pg. 111

ENTRANCE

Seek the Lord Roc O'Connor SJ

Refrain

Seek the Lord whose mercy abounds;
call aloud to God who is near.

1. Today is the day and now the proper hour
to forsake our sinful lives and turn to the Lord.
2. As high as the sky is above the earth,
so high above our ways, the ways of the Lord.
3. Open your heart to hear the voice of God,
whose words, whose ways lead us to life.
4. Finding the Lord, let us cling to him.
His words, his ways lead us to life.
5. Someday we'll live in the house of God;
hearts full of praise for God's gracious love.
6. Someday we'll live in the house of God;
gaze on his face and praise his name.

Text based on Isaiah 55:6–9. Text and music © 1975, 1996, Robert F. O'Connor, Jr., SJ, and OCP. All rights reserved.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

“If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.”

PREPARATION

Come to the Water John Foley SJ

1. O let all who thirst, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without price. Why should you pay the price, except for the Lord?
2. And let all who seek, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord: without money, without strife. Why should you spend your life, except for the Lord?
3. And let all who toil, let them come to the water. And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord: all who labor, without rest. How can your soul find rest, except for the Lord?
4. And let all the poor, let them come to the water, Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord: bring the children without might. Easy the load and light: come to the Lord.

Text: Based on Isaiah 55:1–2; Matthew 11:28–30.

COMMUNION

Come to Me and Drink Bob Hurd

Refrain

Come to me and drink, come to me and drink.
Oh, let all who are thirsting come to me and drink.

1. I will put my spirit within you and you shall live and know that I am the LORD.
2. I will pour my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy.
3. Rivers of living water will flow from within the one who believes in me.
4. Into our hearts the love of God has been poured through the Spirit that dwells within.
5. As the deer longs for running streams, so my soul is longing for you, O God.
6. My soul is thirsting for God; when can I go to see the face of God?

Text: Refrain based on John 7:37; verses based on Ezekiel 37:14; John 7:38; Romans 5:5, 8:11; Psalm 42:2–3; Joel 3:1. Text and music © 2006, Bob Hurd. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

RECESSONAL

Save Your People Jim Farrell

Refrain

Save your people, O Lord. Show us the way to come home. We have been wandering far from your love. Save your people, O Lord.

1. One thing I ask, O Lord, this I seek: to dwell forever in your house, that I may gaze on your loveliness all the days of my life.
2. For you will hide me in the shelter of your wings and from the arrows of my foes. You set me high on a mountaintop, saved me from my distress.
3. Listen, O Lord, to the sound of my call, for I acknowledge my offense. Wash me and I shall be purified. I shall be whiter than snow.
4. Thus will I bless you all the days of my life. Lifting my hands, I call your name: “O Lord, remember your inheritance. Save your people, O Lord!”

From the Pastor's Desk

Today's readings are centered on Baptism and new life. Living water represents God's Holy Spirit Who comes to us in Baptism, penetrating every aspect of our lives and quenching our spiritual thirst. The Holy Spirit of God, the Word of God, and the Sacraments of God in the Church are the primary sources of the living water of Divine Grace. We are assembled here in the Church to drink this water of eternal life and salvation. Washed in it at Baptism, renewed by its abundance at each Eucharist, invited to it in every proclamation of the Word, and daily empowered by the anointing of the Holy Spirit, we are challenged by today's Gospel to remain thirsty for the living water, which only God can give. The first reading describes how God provided water to the ungrateful complainers of Israel, thus placing Jesus' promise within the context of the Exodus account of water coming from the rock at Horeb. The Responsorial Psalm (Ps 95), refers both to the Rock of our salvation and also to our hardened hearts. It reminds us that our hard hearts need to be softened by God through our grace-prompted and -assisted prayer, fasting and works of mercy which enable us to receive the living water of the Holy Spirit, salvation and eternal life from the Rock of our salvation. In the second reading, Saint Paul asserts that, as the Savior of mankind, Jesus poured the living water of the gift of the Holy Spirit into our hearts. In the Gospel, an unclean, ostracized Samaritan woman is given an opportunity to receive the living water. Jesus awakened in the woman at the well a thirst for the wholeness and integrity which she had lost, a thirst which he had come to satisfy. This Gospel passage also gives us Jesus' revelation about himself as the Source of Living Water and teaches us that we need the grace of Jesus Christ for eternal life because he is that life-giving water.

Life messages:

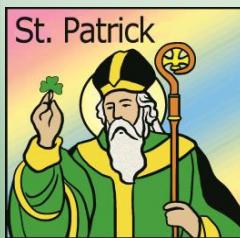

#1 We need to allow Jesus free entry into our personal lives. Jesus wishes to come into our "private" life, not to embarrass us, not to judge or condemn us, but to free us, to change us, and to offer us what we really need: the living water of the Holy Spirit. Let us find this living water in the Sacraments, in prayer, and in the Holy Bible, especially during this Lenten season.

#2 We need to be witnesses to Jesus as the Samaritan woman was. Let us have the courage to "be" Jesus for others, especially in those "unexpected" places for "unwanted" people. Let us also have the courage of our Christian convictions to stand for truth and justice in our day-to-day life.

#3 We need to leave the "husbands" behind during Lent as the Samaritan woman did. Today's Gospel message challenges us to get rid of our unholy attachments and the evil habits and sinful addictions that keep us enslaved and idolatrous. Lent is our time to learn from our mistakes of over-indulgence in food, drink, drugs, gambling, promiscuity, or any other addiction that distances us from the Living Water.

Feast of Saint Patrick

The Feast of Saint Patrick (March 17, 2023) falls on a Friday during Lent this year. Feasts of the Church are meant to be a day of celebration and rejoicing.

Therefore, on this Friday, March 17, 2023, the faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Louis are dispensed from abstaining from meat should they choose to celebrate the Feast of Saint Patrick.

Mass Intentions

We are extremely low on Mass Intentions. Please consider a Mass Intention for a friend or family member. Mass Intentions can be for someone who is living in need of healing or celebrating a birthday, wedding or anniversary, as well as for the repose of the soul of the deceased.

If you would like to request a Mass Intention, there are forms at all Church entrances or you may call the Rectory at 314-351-1600.

Thank you.
